Weeping Water

Mrs. Thomas Murty

The leaders of seven Extension clubs in the Weeping Water district, held an all day training meeting Thursday at the auditorium, when they discussed ways of presenting the next two lessons to their clubs. The subject will be "Breakfast, a Family Affair." At the first meeting "Fruit and Pancakes" will be their theme, and at the second meeting they will illustrate the preparing of "Cereals and Eggs."

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Noyes, (Imogene VanEvery) of Lincoln, spent Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Noyes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William VanEvery.

Mrs. Lloyd P. Wolcott was hostess at the regular meeting of the Knickerbocker Bridge club Wednesday evening with eight members present.

The Helping Hand Aid Society met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Loyal Fleming with a good attendance. The afternoon was spent sewing. Mrs. I. L. Markland, Miss Imo Heebner and their sister, Mrs. Jesse Westlake, of Eagle, attended to business in Plattsmouth Saturday.

"Billy" VanEvery is at Ogallala assisting in the building of Mr. and Mrs. Russel VanEvery's new home.

Tuesday evening found only a small attendance at the caucus, which precedes our annual city election. Victor Wallie, was nominated for Mayor, on both tickets. Dr. C. O. Herman is the candidate for councilman in the first ward. Leonard Doty and M. L. Fernbach for the second ward. For members of the school board there are three candidates named for the two vacancies of the board to be filled. They are Frank Domingo, present incumbent, and Jack Cohen and Francis Hebard, were named to fill I. L. Markland's place as Mr. Markland refused to allow his name to be placed on the ballot.

Rev. Paul Walker returned home Wednesday evening from Hastings, where he worked Monday morning to attend a workers conference of the Methodist church.

Rev. Walker is the district secretary of Missionary Education. Byron Baker and his force of men have just completed the addition of a bath room and utility room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Norris, also a complete remodeling of their kitchen with built-in cupboards and all other modern conveniences.

Albert Peters of Sheridan, Wyoming, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peters.

Elmwood

MRS. TRACE PLYBON, Correspondent

Mrs. Ellis Miller is still confined to her bed because of injuries sustained in a fall last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Purnell and children are now living on the farm northwest of town which they purchased last year.

Mrs. F. L. Wiegert is able to be up much of the time now. Mrs. Hall has returned to her home at Wahoo, where she is moving to another apartment. During her absence Mrs. Lydia McElroy of Arlington, a sister of Mrs. Wiegert is staying with her.

This last week visitors at the Wiegert and Harry Greene homes were the three daughters of Mrs. Wiegert and sisters of Mrs. Greene, Mrs. F. A. Schroeder, of Wahoo; Mrs. Erna Bergstrom, of Los Angeles; and Mrs. Ruth Short, of Enyokem, California. While they were here they were all entertained at a family dinner at Green's home honoring the guests, and Mrs. Wiegert for her 82d birthday anniversary. It was also the wedding anniversary of the Greens, February 22, and also the Schroeders, as well as Mr. Schroeder's birthday. Mrs. Bergstrom and Mrs. Short returned to California in a plane, the same way in which they came to Elmwood.

Mrs. Emily Gonzales is again chairman for the Red Cross drive in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. August Borne-meier have moved into the home they recently purchased from Loren Dennis and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Borne-meier have moved from Murdock to the Dreaner property.

The sale of Peter Nickel, west of town, Monday, drew a good crowd despite the snow. Cattle sold very well and the other things brought satisfactory prices.

Woman's Club March meeting was held on Thursday at the library room with Mrs. H. Lanning as hostess. The president, Mrs. George Coatman, for the devotional thought read the poem "Hymn of Faith" by Riley. Mrs. Earl Horton gave the lesson on "Atomic Energy" in an interesting development. Materials used were the book "Men and Volts at War" by John A. Miller. The booklet "The Church in an Atomic Age" by Edwin E. Jones, who was a plant builder at Oak Ridge and the magazines Readers Digest and Coronet along with clippings from newspapers. Plans were made for a book review—"The Bishop's Mantle" by Agnes Sligh Turnbull to be given at the library room on March 23d at 2:30 in the afternoon by Mrs. Horton, and an offering to be received for new books. The April meeting is to a library benefit tea at the home of Mrs. Elmer Shreve, April 1st. Delegates chosen to attend the Woman's Club state convention on March 17th at Grand Island are the president, Mrs. Coatman, and Mrs. Charles Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fleischman observed their 25th wedding anniversary March 1. There was a family gathering for them at their home on Sunday evening, relatives and friends calling the following night, Monday. Guests who came from a distance were Mrs. Harold Taylor and son, of Laramie, Wyoming. The honored couple received some nice gifts.
