Today's Issues Parallel Biblical Times

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

IT is not surprising that Sunday school lessons, sermons and comments on religion in general, are based very largely on the Bible and on Biblical times, since the Bible is "God's book for man's life."

Above all things also, it is the book of the Gospels, the story of Jesus of Nazareth, the book of His life and teaching, and the interpretation of the reality and meaning of His Messiahship, and of His coming into the world to be humanity's Savior and Redeemer.

But many parts of the Bible have to do with the life of an ancient people and with the individual lives of men and women who lived in a little land. It was situated between the great empires, warring for mastery in that ancient world, and in the history of the time seemingly of far more importance than Palestine and its people.

It is the little land that remains, while the great empires—Assyria, Babylon, Syria, Persia, Greece, and Rome—have all passed away.
And that little land today, apart from its ancient religious interest and the way in which successive generations have turned to it for guidance and inspiration, is still a center of tragic interest.

VITAL issues are centered there, amid strife and struggle as in ancient times. And the world is watching, somewhat fearful lest the conflicts may involve the whole world once more in war.
From every standpoint there is reason to study that ancient land and all that happened there. Paul said that the chief advantage of the Jew (Romans 3:2) was that to the Jews had been committed the oracles of God.

That statement is amply proven.
While in other lands men were bowing down to wood and stone and worshipping false gods, in Israel devout men and women were seeking the true God. And they found Him, giving to the world the truth, righteousness and beauty of which the Bible is the great and varied repository.

In the Bible, too, are the inspiring experiences of men and women of faith, courage and achievement, the stories of individual lives, that in any time and among any people would be outstanding in their encouragement and example.

Who, for instance, considering Palestine today, can fail to see the significance of Nehemiah, leading his people from the Babylonian exile, helping to restore them in their ancient home, facing some of the problems Jews seeking restoration there are facing today? Surely in all of this there is food for study and thought.

The "Christian Herald," some years ago when the famous Dr.
Talmage was its editor, used to have a page entitled, "The Bible and the Newspaper." On this page current events were linked with Biblical parallels, or with some teaching that they emphasized. It was a wise emphasis.
The Bible, though it be an ancient book, is a book of daily life and man's best teacher and guide.

A night course in religion is Conference superintendent to hold the 2nd Quarterly conference Tuesday.

The Easter season services were well attended and it was a joy to have 5 additions to the Church and 7 baptisms. Today it is our privilege to know, accept and serve Christ. It is our hope that out of our mutual fellowship we may be strengthened and helped.

Our sympathy and prayer as a church goes out to each of the sick at home and in the hospitals.
May your recovery be steady and sure and out of it all may we be conscious of God's wonderful love.
Let us worship in spirit and in truth together.

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, April 11, 1948.

The Golden Text is: "Israel shall be saved in the Lord with an everlasting salvation" (Isaiah 45:17). Other Bible citations include, "Behold, God is mighty, and desiseth not any; he is mighty in strength and wisdom" (Job 36:5).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "All reality is in God and His creation, harmonious and eternal. That which He creates is good, and He makes all that is made" (p. 472).
