Elmwood

MRS. TRACE PLYBON, Correspondent

Royal Neighbor Lodge held their April session on Friday at the home of Mrs. Emily Goxales. IOOF district convention was held in the Elmwood community building Friday evening, April 2. A banquet was served by the Rebekah ladies after which Harry Linder acted as toastmaster, with the theme word as Life and the following responses were given: Live, by George Wieck of Nehawka; Ideals, by C. L. Livingston of Weeping Water; Fellowship, Ernest Norris, Avoca; and Entwine, by Richard Pratt Elmwood. Work was put under the District Degree team, after which a lunch was served. 35 members were present. Sunday morning after services at the Methodist Church a fellowship dinner was served in the basement honoring the ones who had worked and given for the redecoration of the entire building. After the dinner a program was given with Mrs. Eldon Mendenhall presiding. Hymns were sung. Mrs. V. G. Clements at the piano. Talks were given by Fred Buell and Rev. C. H. Lind. A duet was sung by Marilyn Mendenhall and Donna May Miller. V. G. Clements played two baritone solos, and dedicated his numbers to Mr. and Mrs. Capwell, who had come from Lincoln, bringing an ice cream treat for all. Dick Apt sang "The Old Rugged Cross," and the closing number was a talk by Jessie Bragg of Raymond, returned missionary from India. She reports a trend toward Christian ideals there and here. A very enjoyable time was had.

The music students did well at the concert held at Weeping Water for this district. Superior ratings were granted the girls Sextette, Dale Hall, baritone horn, the Boys' Glee Club and Karlene Eidenmiller, piano. Excellent rank went to Girls' Trio, Lavina Ochlerking, piano, Girls' Glee Club, the solos by Joan Backemeyer, Bernita Irons, and Irene Kunz. Ramona Jones' solo was good.

Rev. J. L. Jockens suffered a stroke after two heart attacks, at his home here on Saturday. Mrs. Joyce of Bonesteel, South Dakota, is spending this week here with her sister, Mrs. Mint Wood. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Engles have moved into the Sterner property. He is taking up work at his fathers lumber yard, the Engles Lumber Co.

Farnsworth

TABLE MODEL RADIOS

Each Farnsworth table model offers wide ranging reception comparable to that of a large console. Sturdy plastic cabinets in striking modern designs make them the ideal receivers to fit those many special "extra radio" needs. Full resonant tone—accurate tuning controls—lasting dependability mark Farnsworth table models as today's most distinctive small sets.
