

Attends Funeral Service at Omaha

Attorney and Mrs. Harold Lebens have been at Omaha the greater part of the first of the week, being called there by the death of Thomas Pound, 23, a brother of Mrs. Lebens, at the residence, 2373 California street.

The funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at 9:30 at the St. John's church with burial at the Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Mr. Pound is survived by the wife and two small children, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pound and one brother and three sisters.

Return From Trip To California

Mr. and Mrs. Winford Dasher have returned home from a trip to the west coast where they have spent a short vacation with relatives and old time friends.

The greater part of the time was spent at Riverside, Calif., home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kohlreil, the former a brother of Mrs. Dasher, finding the family well and enjoying life very much. They also had a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, formerly of Plattsmouth.

California Guests Visiting n City

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Alkire has been the scene of a very pleasant family gathering in the past few days, two brothers of Mrs. Alkire, Arthur Harvey of Bell Flower, Calif., and Bob Harvey of Los Angeles being here for a visit.

EHAWEE CAMPFIRE

The Ehawee Camp Fire group met at Mrs. Edgar Newton's Tuesday, June 15, 1948. The group decided to meet every other Tuesday instead of every week. Then we played games.—Brenda Ote, scribe.

READ THE JOURNAL FOR THE LATEST IN NEWS.

Use Journal Want Ads

Best Fat Cattle Again Sell Higher; Hogs in Upturn

Better fat cattle racked up further price gains Monday at Omaha. Up $1.00-$2.00 last week, better slaughter steers, yearlings and heifers sold another 25-50c higher Monday, the full advance on heavy steers. Some weighing over 1430 sold at $36.75, highest for steers that heavy since January. Quotable peak for steers was $37.50. Top last week at Omaha hit $37.25, with fed heifers to a record $35.50 and mixed yearlings to $36.00. Medium shortfats and "grassy" cattle failed to keep pace with better kinds, however, selling 25c-$1.00 lower late last week and Monday. Cows were mostly 25-50c off Monday, canners and cutters $15.50-$18.50, beef to $25.00, only odd head $26.00, $26.50. Beef bulls sold to $24.25, vealers to $30.00. Week-end rains over much of the Cornbelt perked up stocker and feeder steers sold to $30.15, stock steers to $29.00, and light steer and heifer calves to $30.00. Most sales ranged from $25.00 to $29. Hogs scored a spectacular though uneven price upturn in Monday trade at Omaha, the advance ranging all the way from 50c-$1.50. Butchers sold from $18.50, mostly $19 to $25.50, the top highest since May 26. Sows were mostly $19.00-$20.50, stags $16-$17. From an all-time high of $33.00 last week, spring lambs skidded to $31.50, that price paid Friday and Monday. Old crop shorn lambs Monday were stopped at $27. Shorn slaughter ewes sold to $11.00, a quarter better than Friday. Feeder yearlings brought $20.50.

Among recent sales:

Otto Hauschild, 8 steers and heifers, wt. 342, $35.00.

Leo Rikli, 24 steers, wt. 1160, $36.75.

Leo Rikli, 23 steers, wt. 1213, William Wehrlein and son, 24 William Nehrlein and son, 24 steers, wt. 1092, $35.25.

L. B. Todd, 23 steers, wt. $34.75.

Funeral of Miss Hazel Dovey Tuesday

The funeral services for Miss Hazel Dovey, member of one of the pioneer families, was held Tuesday afternoon at the Sattler funeral home at 3 o'clock and attended by a large number of the old friends and acquaintances.

The body arrived here late Monday and lay in state at the Sattler funeral home until the hour for the service.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of which the deceased had long been a member, conducted the services and brought the message of comfort to the bereaved family.

During the service Frank A. Cloidt gave two numbers, "Beyond the Sunset," and "Wonderful Peace." Mrs. H. F. Goos being the accompanist.

The body was accompanied to this city by Mrs. J. R. Brown, of Lakewood, O., sister of the departed lady, as well as other members of the Brown family. Mrs. Mary Dovey, mother of the deceased, makes her home in this city.

The burial was at the Oak Hill cemetery and the pall bearers were old friends of the family, John Bauer, E. J. Richey, Luke Wiles, Robert Hayes, T. H. Pollock, Frank A. Cloidt.

The average life of a dollar bill is six months.

Funeral of Miss Hazel Dovey Tuesday

The funeral services for Miss Hazel Dovey, member of one of the pioneer families, was held Tuesday afternoon at the Sattler funeral home at 3 o'clock and attended by a large number of the old friends and acquaintances.

The body arrived here late Monday and lay in state at the Sattler funeral home until the hour for the service.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of which the deceased had long been a member, conducted the services and brought the message of comfort to the bereaved family.

During the service Frank A. Cloidt gave two numbers, "Beyond the Sunset," and "Wonderful Peace." Mrs. H. F. Goos being the accompanist.

The body was accompanied to this city by Mrs. J. R. Brown, of Lakewood, O., sister of the departed lady, as well as other members of the Brown family. Mrs. Mary Dovey, mother of the deceased, makes her home in this city.

The burial was at the Oak Hill cemetery and the pall bearers were old friends of the family, John Bauer, E. J. Richey, Luke Wiles, Robert Hayes, T. H. Pollock, Frank A. Cloidt.

The average life of a dollar bill is six months.

Has Pleasant Vacation Trip

Wilma Mumm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mumm of this city, was Monday and Tuesday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Sack and Richard of Murray. She also visited Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Meisinger and David. After the visit she was the guest of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mumm and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mumm, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Albin, all of Omaha. She had a very fine time on the two weeks vacation.

Schreiners Back From Chicago Trip

Mr. and Mrs. John Schreiner and son, John Dean, have returned from a very pleasant week in Chicago. They stayed at the Stevens hotel and enjoyed the many sights of the "Windy City" visiting the Board of Trade, the zoos and other points of interest. Mrs. F. A. Ransom, mother of Mrs. Schreiner, who has been their guest for some time accompanied them as far as her home in Dubuque, Iowa. The Schreiners made the trip by car.

Visiting in West For a Short Time

Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Hudson and daughters, Shirley and Joyce, left Sunday for a short trip to the Pacific coast where they will enjoy a combined business and pleasure trip.

They are expecting to visit and look after some business at Los Angeles and will then go to Reno, Nev., where Dr. and Mrs. Hudson were formerly engaged for some time in the operation of a hospital. They will later visit at San Francisco with friends before returning home.

Baptise Children of Army Couple

Sunday morning at the services at the First Methodist church Rev. E. C. Williams celebrated the sacrament of baptism for the three small children of Captain and Mrs. A. N. Bozeman.

The twin daughters, Sherry and Yvonne, were born to the couple while Captain Bozeman was stationed with the American forces at Bremerhaven, the great port of Hamburg, Germany, they later being brought to the United States by the parents. The son, Tommie, was born in this country.

The number of livestock in the United States today is the lowest in eight years.

Poured in the Same Mold

In Hollywood for screen parts, blonde models Joy Lansing, left, and Pat Vaniver discovered (or somebody with keen eyes discovered) that they have the same measurements. They're both 5 feet 6 inches tall, weigh 115 pounds, and have a 36-inch bust, 33-inch hips and 23-inch waist.

James Johnsons to Reside in Indiana

Friday Mrs. Roy Olson left for her home at Hammond, Ind., after having been here for some weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson of Avoca, during the illness of Mr. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have disposed of their interests at Avoca and will make their home at Hammond in the future to be near Mr. and Mrs. Olson.

The party was accompanied by Rosalie Olson, who will visit at Hammond for a time with her relatives, later going to Washington, D. C. where she will spend the remainder of the summer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray, Jr., the latter an aunt.

Roy Olson of Hammond came west to accompany the members of the family back to Hammond.

Death of Mother of James Holoubek

The funeral services were held Tuesday at Omaha for Mrs. Petrolina Holoubek, 88, at 8:30 from the John A. Gentleman's mortuary to the St. Wenceslaus church at 9 o'clock. The burial was at the Bohemian National cemetery.

Mrs. Holoubek passed away Sunday at the family home, 2526 South 10th street.

Survivors are sons Joseph, John W., Charles R., Omaha; James, Plattsmouth; daughters, Anna M., Mrs. H. J. Rousey, Mrs. S. J. Parker, all of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. James Holoubek of this city were in attendance at the services.

Bob Meisinger Now in Lincoln

Bob Meisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Meisinger, a member of the class of 1948 of the Plattsmouth high school, is now located at Lincoln.

He is employed by the Continental National bank of Lincoln, one of the large banking houses of the capital city. He feels very fortunate to be offered this position and we wish him all the luck and success possible.

Bob was one of the outstanding members of the class of 1948 in athletics, lettering in basketball and football and was also the captain of the track team.

Child Born to Former Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rice of 1148 Dawes street, Lincoln, are the proud parents of a baby girl born June 2, 1948. Mrs. Rice will be remembered as Beverly Ann Chansley, daughter of Gladys Harrington of Omaha. She formerly resided with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lovelless, former residents of Cass county. The great grandmother, Mrs. Emma Morton, resides at Union. The occasion has brought a great deal of happiness to all of the family.

Young Sailor Back From the Islands

Monday evening Don Sharp, gunner's mate second class, arrived home from his service in the United States navy, receiving his discharge at San Francisco from the navy and he is now free and ready to resume his civilian status.

The young man joined his wife and family here, Mrs. Sharp being the former Norma Jean Favors, who has been making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Favors.

Mrs. Edith Purviance Visits in County

Mrs. Edith Purviance, of Long Beach, Calif., is visiting in Cass county with the old time friends for a short time. She is visiting in the Murray neighborhood and also at Plattsmouth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Schutz. She is a niece of the late Mrs. A. D. Asch and a member of the Wiley family, old residents of the Murray community.

The tongue is a two-edged sword, says a famous bit a Biblical verse. Henry Wallace must have missed that portion in his theological homework since his tongue is costing him votes on all sides.

Death of J. R. Gregory in the West

The many friends in this section of Cass county will regret to learn of the death of J. R. C. Gregory, 83, for many years a resident of this county, living south and east of Louisville in Eight Mile Grove precinct.

Mr. Gregory has in the past thirty years made his home in the west part of the state in Perkins county where his death occurred. He had been making his home at the farm of son, James Gregory, residing in a small trailer house, and had been apparently in his usual health. Sunday evening members of the family had gone out to visit the aged man, finding him lifeless sitting in his easy chair, death coming from a sudden heart attack.

The body was brought back to Louisville where the funeral service is being held today (Thursday) at the Methodist church with the burial at the Glendale cemetery near the old home of the family.

The members of the family from the west part of the state accompanied the cottage back to the old home, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rhoden, former residents of this locality. Mrs. Fred Terryberry of near Louisville, is a daughter of the deceased.

Remembers Passing of Old Time Friend

As has been his custom since the death of Robert A. Bates, former publisher of The Journal, and a lifelong friend, Frank A. Cloidt has brought a floral bouquet to Mrs. Bates in memory of her husband. Monday was the anniversary of Mr. Bates' passing and Mrs. Bates was the recipient of a lovely bouquet from the Cloidt gardens, which she later placed at the cemetery on the family plot. Mr. Bates passed away June 15, 1934.

U. S. District Attorney Visits Plattsmouth

U. S. District Attorney Joseph T. Votava, of Omaha, was in Plattsmouth Wednesday where he transacted business in the office of Judge Paul E. Fauquet and attended to other business matters at the court house and renewed acquaintances.

China's 60,000,000 farmers have only about 210,000,000 acres of land.

Will Enjoy Fishing in Minnesota Lakes

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr departed Sunday by auto for Hennepin, Minnesota, where they will spend some time at their summer cottage at East Battle lake and join the group of friends that enjoy the summer there each year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stark-john, who also have cottages at the lake are already on the scene and enjoying the fishing.

ATHLETES FOOT ITCH NOT HARD TO KILL IN ONE HOUR

READ THE JOURNAL FOR THE LATEST IN NEWS.

ATHLETES FOOT ITCH NOT HARD TO KILL IN ONE HOUR.

If not treated, your 35c back at any drug store. TE-OL, a STRONG fungicide, contains 90% alcohol. IT PENETRATES. Reaches MORE germs to KILL the itch.

Local Insurance Family Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Knoflick, and son, William, of Plattsmouth, will leave home on June 18 for Lake Rosseau, Ontario, Canada, where they will attend the annual convention of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of Nebraska.

Mr. Knoflick, who is a representative for Bankers of Nebraska in Plattsmouth, has earned the honor of attendance by Qualification. The leading producing representatives of the company will be in attendance. Approximately 300 people from all parts of the United States will attend.

The convention which will last from June 23 to June 27 will be held at the Royal Muskoka Hotel which is situated on an island in Lake Rosseau. It is located approximately 140 miles north of Toronto, Ontario. In order to reach the hotel, the Knoflicks will travel the last forty miles by lake steamer which they will board at Gravenhurst, Ontario.

William will attend the "Junior Convention" while their parents attend the convention at the Royal Muskoka, Bankers Life of Nebraska has become famous for this unique convention idea of planning a special convention for the "kids".

Remembering Passing of Old Time Friend

As has been his custom since the death of Robert A. Bates, former publisher of The Journal, and a lifelong friend, Frank A. Cloidt has brought a floral bouquet to Mrs. Bates in memory of her husband. Monday was the anniversary of Mr. Bates' passing and Mrs. Bates was the recipient of a lovely bouquet from the Cloidt gardens, which she later placed at the cemetery on the family plot. Mr. Bates passed away June 15, 1934.

Child Born to Former Residents

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rice of 1148 Dawes street, Lincoln, are the proud parents of a baby girl born June 2, 1948. Mrs. Rice will be remembered as Beverly Ann Chansley, daughter of Gladys Harrington of Omaha. She formerly resided with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lovelless, former residents of Cass county. The great grandmother, Mrs. Emma Morton, resides at Union. The occasion has brought a great deal of happiness to all of the family.

Young Sailor Back From the Islands

Monday evening Don Sharp, gunner's mate second class, arrived home from his service in the United States navy, receiving his discharge at San Francisco from the navy and he is now free and ready to resume his civilian status.

The young man joined his wife and family here, Mrs. Sharp being the former Norma Jean Favors, who has been making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Favors.

Mrs. Edith Purviance Visits in County

Mrs. Edith Purviance, of Long Beach, Calif., is visiting in Cass county with the old time friends for a short time. She is visiting in the Murray neighborhood and also at Plattsmouth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Schutz. She is a niece of the late Mrs. A. D. Asch and a member of the Wiley family, old residents of the Murray community.

The tongue is a two-edged sword, says a famous bit a Biblical verse. Henry Wallace must have missed that portion in his theological homework since his tongue is costing him votes on all sides.

Patronize Journal advertisers

Local Insurance Family Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Knoflick, and son, William, of Plattsmouth, will leave home on June 18 for Lake Rosseau, Ontario, Canada, where they will attend the annual convention of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of Nebraska.

Mr. Knoflick, who is a representative for Bankers of Nebraska in Plattsmouth, has earned the honor of attendance by Qualification. The leading producing representatives of the company will be in attendance. Approximately 300 people from all parts of the United States will attend.

The convention which will last from June 23 to June 27 will be held at the Royal Muskoka Hotel which is situated on an island in Lake Rosseau. It is located approximately 140 miles north of Toronto, Ontario. In order to reach the hotel, the Knoflicks will travel the last forty miles by lake steamer which they will board at Gravenhurst, Ontario.

William will attend the "Junior Convention" while their parents attend the convention at the Royal Muskoka, Bankers Life of Nebraska has become famous for this unique convention idea of planning a special convention for the "kids".

Will Enjoy Fishing in Minnesota Lakes

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr departed Sunday by auto for Hennepin, Minnesota, where they will spend some time at their summer cottage at East Battle lake and join the group of friends that enjoy the summer there each year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stark-john, who also have cottages at the lake are already on the scene and enjoying the fishing.

ATHLETES FOOT ITCH NOT HARD TO KILL IN ONE HOUR

READ THE JOURNAL FOR THE LATEST IN NEWS.

ATHLETES FOOT ITCH NOT HARD TO KILL IN ONE HOUR.

If not treated, your 35c back at any drug store. TE-OL, a STRONG fungicide, contains 90% alcohol. IT PENETRATES. Reaches MORE germs to KILL the itch.

Local Insurance Family Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Knoflick, and son, William, of Plattsmouth, will leave home on June 18 for Lake Rosseau, Ontario, Canada, where they will attend the annual convention of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of Nebraska.

Mr. Knoflick, who is a representative for Bankers of Nebraska in Plattsmouth, has earned the honor of attendance by Qualification. The leading producing representatives of the company will be in attendance. Approximately 300 people from all parts of the United States will attend.

The convention which will last from June 23 to June 27 will be held at the Royal Muskoka Hotel which is situated on an island in Lake Rosseau. It is located approximately 140 miles north of Toronto, Ontario. In order to reach the hotel, the Knoflicks will travel the last forty miles by lake steamer which they will board at Gravenhurst, Ontario.

William will attend the "Junior Convention" while their parents attend the convention at the Royal Muskoka, Bankers Life of Nebraska has become famous for this unique convention idea of planning a special convention for the "kids".

Will Enjoy Fishing in Minnesota Lakes

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr departed Sunday by auto for Hennepin, Minnesota, where they will spend some time at their summer cottage at East Battle lake and join the group of friends that enjoy the summer there each year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stark-john, who also have cottages at the lake are already on the scene and enjoying the fishing.

ATHLETES FOOT ITCH NOT HARD TO KILL IN ONE HOUR

READ THE JOURNAL FOR THE LATEST IN NEWS.

ATHLETES FOOT ITCH NOT HARD TO KILL IN ONE HOUR.

If not treated, your 35c back at any drug store. TE-OL, a STRONG fungicide, contains 90% alcohol. IT PENETRATES. Reaches MORE germs to KILL the itch.

Local Insurance Family Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Knoflick, and son, William, of Plattsmouth, will leave home on June 18 for Lake Rosseau, Ontario, Canada, where they will attend the annual convention of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of Nebraska.

Mr. Knoflick, who is a representative for Bankers of Nebraska in Plattsmouth, has earned the honor of attendance by Qualification. The leading producing representatives of the company will be in attendance. Approximately 300 people from all parts of the United States will attend.

The convention which will last from June 23 to June 27 will be held at the Royal Muskoka Hotel which is situated on an island in Lake Rosseau. It is located approximately 140 miles north of Toronto, Ontario. In order to reach the hotel, the Knoflicks will travel the last forty miles by lake steamer which they will board at Gravenhurst, Ontario.

William will attend the "Junior Convention" while their parents attend the convention at the Royal Muskoka, Bankers Life of Nebraska has become famous for this unique convention idea of planning a special convention for the "kids".

Will Enjoy Fishing in Minnesota Lakes

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr departed Sunday by auto for Hennepin, Minnesota, where they will spend some time at their summer cottage at East Battle lake and join the group of friends that enjoy the summer there each year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stark-john, who also have cottages at the lake are already on the scene and enjoying the fishing.

ATHLETES FOOT ITCH NOT HARD TO KILL IN ONE HOUR

READ THE JOURNAL FOR THE LATEST IN NEWS.

ATHLETES FOOT ITCH NOT HARD TO KILL IN ONE HOUR.

If not treated, your 35c back at any drug store. TE-OL, a STRONG fungicide, contains 90% alcohol. IT PENETRATES. Reaches MORE germs to KILL the itch.

Local Insurance Family Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Knoflick, and son, William, of Plattsmouth, will leave home on June 18 for Lake Rosseau, Ontario, Canada, where they will attend the annual convention of the Bankers Life Insurance Company of Nebraska.

Mr. Knoflick, who is a representative for Bankers of Nebraska in Plattsmouth, has earned the honor of attendance by Qualification. The leading producing representatives of the company will be in attendance. Approximately 300 people from all parts of the United States will attend.

The convention which will last from June 23 to June 27 will be held at the Royal Muskoka Hotel which is situated on an island in Lake Rosseau. It is located approximately 140 miles north of Toronto, Ontario. In order to reach the hotel, the Knoflicks will travel the last forty miles by lake steamer which they will board at Gravenhurst, Ontario.

William will attend the "Junior Convention" while their parents attend the convention at the Royal Muskoka, Bankers Life of Nebraska has become famous for this unique convention idea of planning a special convention for the "kids".

Will Enjoy Fishing in Minnesota Lakes

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr departed Sunday by auto for Hennepin, Minnesota, where they will spend some time at their summer cottage at East Battle lake and join the group of friends that enjoy the summer there each year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stark-john, who also have cottages at the lake are already on the scene and enjoying the fishing.

GIFTS
That Give the Most for the Money

WESTON MASTER II Exposure Meter $29.67

FATHERS DAY JUNE 20

"POPS" THE QUESTION

HERE ARE 25 ANSWERS:

- 1—"Seaforth" Sets $2.00 and up
- 2—"His" Sets $1.50 and up
- 3—"Old Spice" Sets $2.00 and up
- 4—"Mennen's Sets" $1.25
- 5—Schick Injector Razors $9c
- 6—Gillette Razors 49c to $5.00
- 7—Lighters $1.00 to $5.00
- 8—Pipe Lighters $3.50
- 9—Ronson Lighters $6.50 and $7.50
- 10—Meeker Billfolds $2.00 to $7.50
- 11—Ball Point Pens 98c
- 12—Sheaffer Pens $3.50 to $10
- 13—Marxman Pipes $3.50
- 14—Duke Pipes $1.00
- 15—Electric Razors—Schick, Remington $1.75
- 16—Carton Cigarettes $2.00
- 17—Whitman Sampler $2.00
- 18—Electric Fans $9.85
- 19—Shave Brushes $1.00
- 20—Box of 25 Van Dykes $2.50
- 21—Oculen's Sun Glasses $4.98
- 22—Men's Travel Brush Kits $1.00 to $3.00
- 23—Key Holders $1.00 to $3.00
- 24—Hall Mark Father's Day Cards $6.95
- 25—Bath Room Scales $6.95

COFFEE STILL A NICKEL

SCHREINER CO.
DRUG PHARMACY
PLATTSMOUTH, NEBR. DIAL 4114

DON'T LET DAD SEE THIS...

but on the quiet we want to tip you off to some clever things we have to make Dad glad on Father's Day—next Sunday—

For instance—
a wonderful little gadget called "Stratching" that fits on the inside of the cuff—keeps pants perfectly creased—Dad will like it—the price $1

A unique folding tie rack—plastic—holds 12 ties—folds against the wall—cannot fall off. He'll date on this one. The price—$1

A new jewel device that holds the point of these long collars close to the shirt—it's practical—it's attractive—nothing like it before. The price—$1.45

If you want to be real good to him buy some of these choice Courtley Toiletries—made for men only—a gift father will enjoy. The price $1 to $5

Most every store has Ties—but not like these—rich, new, original—made for particular men. Each gift boxed and with gift card. The price $1 to $3.50

If you want to make Dad feel like a King for 365 days a year get him one of these worsted gaberdine suits. They're scarce. The price $35

These are only few of the many items we have for Dad.

Wescott's SINCE 1879

BUDGET BUYS
FOR PENNY WISE HOMEMAKERS

Walnut Bedroom Suites
Sturdy Reinforced Construction
159.50 to 189.50

SOLID OAK TABLE AND CHAIRS
Extension Leaves Braced Legs and Top
$59.50

- Samson Card Tables
- Walnut Duncan Phyfe Drum Table
- Mahogany Tier Tables
- Floor Lamps
- Roll-Away Bed
- Table Lamps

SPECIAL PLATFORM ROCKER FOR FATHER
ON JUNE 20—$49.50

Farley Furniture
118 South Sixth St. Dial 260—Plattsmouth