

Elmwood

Mrs. Grace Plybon, Journal Correspondent

Mrs. Gertrude Davis went to Lincoln on Saturday of last week to spend a few days with Miss Pauline Liston. Pauline has her plans completed for a trip to Alaska the latter part of June. A party of four including Dr. and Mrs. Welch will go by train to Seattle then on to Alaska by boat. While there they will visit Mrs. Geraldine Liston Kouten and family.

Band concerts are scheduled to start here June 16, the town and school bands playing under the leadership of Miss Maxine Stone.

Royal Neighbors met on Friday afternoon with Mrs. Ray Fentiman. A bountiful covered dish luncheon was enjoyed.

Mrs. Ruth Monning and Mrs. Emily Gonzales attended the wedding at Murdock on Saturday, June 5, of their niece, Miss Margaret Mills and Robert Dickmeyer of Fremont. The couple are having a wedding trip to Denver and the Black Hills.

At the last quarterly conference meeting here the Methodist Church members voted for the return of Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Lind to this field. They have been here eight years. However a change was made at the Lincoln conference session last week as Rev. Lind was so urgently invited to go to the Oakland, West Side Church, which is in the Omaha District. They are now making ready to move these. For three months the pastor here will be Miss Lorene Schacht. She plans to enter school for further study in mid-September.

Mel Miller attended the conference two days and Mrs. Miller one day last week. Fred Buell also attended on Friday.

Beverly Schlichtemeier of Ferguson, Missouri, has arrived to spend the summer vacation with her grandparents, the Bert Rebers.

Miss Lillie Muenchau entertained eight guests on Thursday evening, the occasion being a shower honoring Miss Elsie Kunz.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller entertained his parents and two of his aunts and their husbands on Saturday night and Sunday at their home south of town.

Mrs. Elsie Reeve of Iowa City, Iowa is spending this week at the homes of her nieces in this county, after attending the Mills-Dickmeyer wedding on Saturday. On Tuesday in company with Mrs. Emily Gonzales she went to Eagle to visit Mrs. Fred Rudolf and family. Mrs. Reeve reports the weather to be drier at Iowa City than here.

A number of ladies of the Methodist WSCS spent Tuesday at the church making drapes for the basement windows.

Jim Wade has been feeling very poorly at his home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moomey, Mrs. G. G. Douglas, Mrs. Ellen Douglas Pitts, Mrs. Cora Gerbeling and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plybon visited at Lincoln in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gustin and Mr. Kirby. They ate a picnic dinner at Pioneer Park, and saw the Pinewood Bowl. In the afternoon they enjoyed seeing the views from the more recently taken films by the Gustin in the basement of their new home on D street. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Pitts.

An interesting Children's Day program was given at the Christian Church on Sunday morning, under the leadership of Mrs. Bernice Dankleff. She was assisted by Mrs. Alma Hay and Mrs. Hazel Shelley. Pianists were Marlene and Joycecola Eidenmiller.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vette were Lincoln business callers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hennings were in Omaha Monday. They took Merle up where he entered business school.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gess of Nebraska City announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty to Raymond Rippe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rippe. No date has been set but they plan a fall wedding.

Garden Club met with Mrs. Mary Harmon Monday. Flower for the month was the rose. Subject for discussion was led by Mrs. Louis Ruhga "Battle with Bugs and Insects." Guests were Mrs. Norton Johnson, Mrs. William Klemme and Stephen and Mrs. Sigvold Jensen.

Rev. Adams conducted Sunday morning services again last Sunday. He had been called to Colorado Springs by illness of a sister-in-law.

Mrs. Henry Dankleff had the May Bird party, held for those that had birthdays in May at her home Thursday evening. The guests were seated at the table the center of which was a large

Cass County Buys Many Saving Bonds

Residents of Cass County have invested $249,845.50 thus far in the Security Loan campaign through May 31, it was announced today by Walter H. Smith, chairman for this county.

"Everyone who can buy additional U. S. Savings Bonds is urged to do so by June 30, before the drive closes," said chairman Smith.

Nebraskans purchased $20,069.834 in E, F, and G series U. S. Savings Bonds through May 31, and 53.5 per cent of the state's quota of $37,500,000 has been attained.

"We have a good chance of making our state quota, but it will take intensive work in all counties if we are to go over the top," said Allen T. Hupp of Omaha, State Chairman for Nebraska of the Advisory Committee for U. S. Savings Bonds sales.

Twelve counties have already attained or exceeded their quota, Hupp said. Kimball with 183 per cent of its quota already made is leading the state.

Other counties over the top include: Cedar, Keya Paha, Wheeler, Garfield, Rock, Stanton, Burt, Keith, Arthur, Banner, and McPherson.

Thirty-eight of the state's 93
