Marilou Warner Has Birthday Party

Tuesday evening Marilou Warner was the honored guest at a very delightful birthday party held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warner, west of the city. The event honored the eighteenth anniversary of the guest.

Games were enjoyed and in these prizes were won by Janis Schmidtman, Marilyn Lutz, Clementine Woster.

At an appropriate hour delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Warner who was assisted by Mrs. Fred Lugsch and Mrs. Lester Meisinger.

Those attending the party were Patricia Rogers, Mildred Meisinger, Donna Meisinger, Betty Howland, Marilyn Lutz, Catherine Parkening, Jean Lyod, Frances and Edna Mae Buchler, Jean Meisinger, Clementine Woster, Shirley Humerickhouse, Naomi Roloff, and Eileen Nickels.

Attend Wedding At Thurston

Mr. and Mrs. Job Hobscheid, Sr., have returned home from Thurston, Neb., where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherwood, the former a brother of Mrs. Hobscheid.

The occasion of the trip was to attend the wedding of Miss Dorothy Sherwood, niece of Mrs. Hobscheid.

While in that section of the state they drove to Coleridge, Nebraska, where they enjoyed a stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rose, former residents of the Union community.

Pastor Lentz And Wife Have Anniversary

The twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. A. Lentz was observed on Thursday, June 17 at the residence and the Christ church, located on the Plattsmouth - Louisville road, where for a great many years they have served the community as pastor and wife.

In the evening at 8 o'clock the congregation had prepared a very fine observance of the anniversary that was fittingly carried out, attended by a very large number from the church membership.

The committee in charge of the planning consisted of Mrs. John Hild, president of the Ladies Aid, Mrs. Arthur Hild, secretary of the Ladies Aid, Mrs. Franz Peter, treasurer of the Ladies Aid; Mrs. August Keil, vice-president of the Ladies Aid; Miss June Keil, for the Sunday school, Mrs. Herman Hennings, Mrs. Roloff, Mrs. Katherine Wehrlein, Mrs. Verner Friedrich.

It is estimated that about 200 were present, filling the parlors to capacity.

Pastor A. Duis was the master of ceremonies, being very clever in this role. Appropriate songs were given with Miss Jeanne Lentz as the accompanist.

Short talks of recognition and congratulations to the estimable couple they were honoring were given by Arthur Hild, member of the church council, in behalf of the congregation; Mrs. John Hild, as president for the Ladies Aid; Ralph Hild, superintendent of the Sunday school; Mrs. Joseph Puls in behalf of the Woman's Missionary society.

Harlan Brei sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Pastor Lorin Wolff, S. T. M., president of the synod of the Midwest of the U. L. C. gave the main address and pronounced the blessing upon the couple on this very happy anniversary. The response was responded to by Dr. Lentz very appropriately.

The committee served refreshments of ice cream, Silver Wedding anniversary cake and coffee.

The congregation of Christ's church presented a purse to the anniversary couple. It was a beautiful evening, one long to be remembered by Dr. and Mrs. Lentz.

The members of the immediate family, Mr. and Mrs. James Monroe and Mrs. Lester Monroe of Omaha and Miss Jeanne Lentz, who is still at home, were in attendance. Other of the relatives present were: Rev. A. Duis and wife, Hildreth, Neb., together with their three children, Mary Lou, Glen and Jerry; Rev. Otto Celke, wife and son, Luther Warren, Hanover, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wieters and daughter, Helen, Odell, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. August Brei, Odell, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Duis and daughters, Deanne and Cheryl, Fairbury Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. George Wehling, Lanham, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. John Duis, Diller, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Duis, Odell, Neb.; Mrs. Minnie Adam, Odell, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nienaber, Odell, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stolte, Odell, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Duis, Odell, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Beckman, Fairbury, Neb., and daughter, Frieda. These were guests of the anniversary dinner.

All of Mrs. Lentz's sisters and their husbands were present and Mrs. Celke, sister of Dr. Lentz, represented the family.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and viewing motion pictures of the Duis reunions in the past. These were shown by Rev. A. Duis.

Jean Lloyd Honored At Birthday Party

A very pleasant birthday party was held on June 19 at the home of Miss Jean Lloyd, honoring the passing of her nineteenth birthday. The time was spent playing pinocle in which Pat Rogers was the winner of the girls' prize and Warren Kneer for the boys. The consolation prize was won by Ray Tischer.

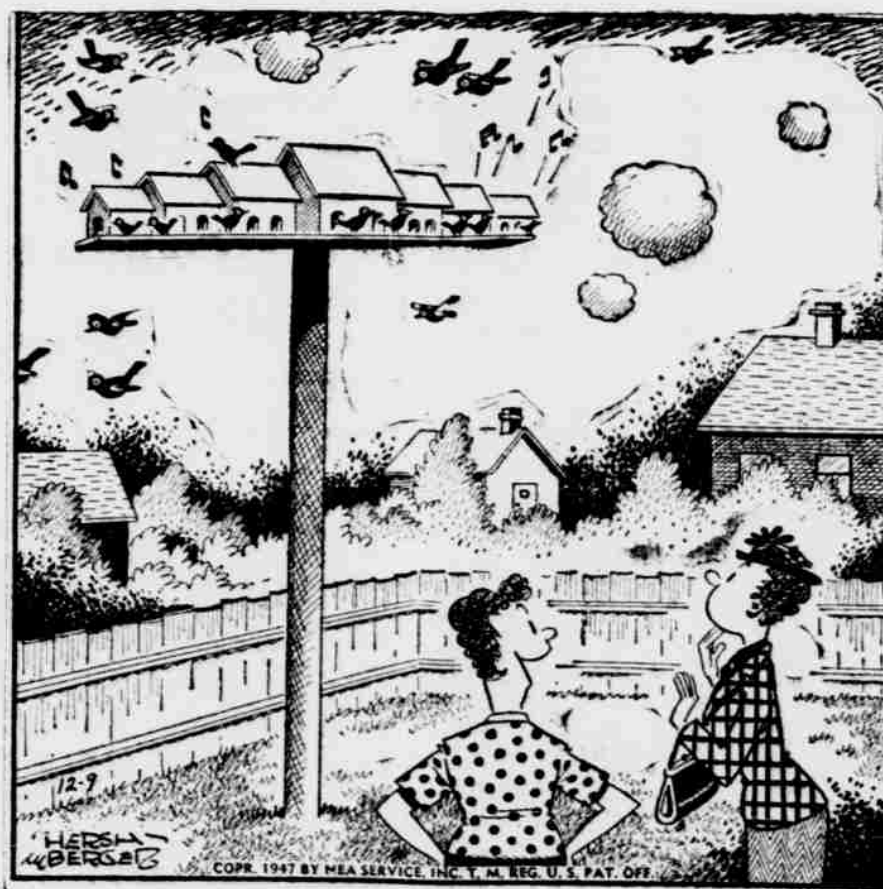

Miss Lloyd received many lovely gifts.

Guests were: Ray Tischer, Bill Howland, Bud White, Cyril Kocian, Wynne Babbitt, Warren Kneer, Gordon Green, Charles Newton, Janet Tickotter, Pat Rogers, Marv Lou Walling, Jeanette Rhylander, Marilou Warner, Mildred Meisinger, Janis Schmidtman and the guest of honor Jean Lloyd.

Union Parties Wedded at College View

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morford of Creighton have announced the marriage of their daughter, Betty Louise, to Cpl. Glendell Lee Shafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burnice Shafer of Falls City which took place Thursday, June 10, at College View S. D. A. church in Lincoln. The ceremony was performed at 4:30 o'clock by Elder R. S. Joyce. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Jose Salinas of Mexico City, played, Monroe Morford, brother of the bride, and Miss Francis Osborne sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon dress of white linen and eyelet embroidery with white accessories. Her corsage was gardenias and sweetheart rosebuds. She was attended by Miss Raylene Mead, who wore an afternoon dress of blue grey crepe with white accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

Pfc. Edward Morford of Denver, brother of the bride, was best man.

A reception was held at Antelope park.

The bride, who is a graduate of Union college at Lincoln, taught in the Union, Nebraska, schools in 1945 and 1946.

The groom, attended the Union high school in 1946 and entered the armed services the same year. He has been stationed at Fort Slocum, New York.

Southern Visitors Visit Plattsmouth

Mr. and Mrs. Mott Frady and children of Jacksonville, Fla., are here for a visit with the relatives and many friends in the old home community. They made the trip by way of Washington, D. C., spending a few days there and looking over the points of interest in the capital city, the White House, United States capital, Arlington cemetery and the tomb of the unknown soldier. They also had an eighteen mile boat ride on the Potomac river and seeing many places of interest. They report the weather at Jacksonville as being quite warm for the season.

Mr. Frady is to return Thursday to Jacksonville to resume his work with the BREX shops in that city.

W. C. Soennichsens Home from the West

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Soennichsen and daughter, Mary Phyllis, who have been enjoying a visit on the west coast, returned home Tuesday after a most delightful time.

They made their headquarters at the home of Mrs. Christine Hoppe, sister of Mr. Soennichsen, visiting with the many friends in the Los Angeles area and taking in the places of interest in that locality.

One of the main events of the trip was attending the Cass County picnic at Long Beach, this affording an opportunity of visiting with many old friends, among these Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hess, formerly of this city, as well as others.

They enjoyed a side trip to beautiful Lake Tahoe, one of the best known summer resorts of the west, finding it a most attractive spot and largely patronized by the residents of the coast country.

On their return trip they stopped for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Patterson at San Francisco, finding them well and enjoying life very much, also enjoying a visit with Edward Patterson, former Plattsmouth resident and son of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson.

Visit at Craig With Relatives

Dr. and Mrs. H. G. McClusky departed Tuesday for Craig, Nebraska where they were guests of Mrs. Ethel Fredlund at a dinner. Mrs. Fredlund is the former Ethel Hughes, well-known in this city.
