This is de-tasseling time of the season at the Steckley Hybrid Seed Companies farms, and the young people of Weeping Water are taking advantage of the opportunity of securing work and of the good wages offered.

Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Brown made a quick business trip to Minneapolis Thursday and returned home, Friday.

Dinner guests at the DeForest Brown home, Friday evening, were Mrs. Gladys Philpot Keyes, and her son, who are here visiting from California; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Philpot; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Munkres and Mrs. Ida Young.

Mrs. Mae Keckler, Weeping Water acting post mistress, and her son Richard, are spending their two weeks vacation with relatives in Minneapolis.

The Woman's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist church, met Tuesday afternoon at the church, with Mrs. Spencer Marshall, Mrs. Lester King, Mrs. Herman Waggoner, Mrs. Russel Newham and Mrs. T. Hugh Hanlan acting as hostesses. Mrs. M. L. DeCraene had charge of the program, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Brockman, who had charge of the devotionals.

Mrs. Herbert Ratnour, Miss Maude Moulten, Miss Imo Heebner, Mrs. Will Jameson and Mrs. W. D. Lenker spent Thursday in Elmwood, as the guests of Mrs. Nettie Mendenhall.

Benjie Olive, son of Mrs. Ben Olive, was badly burned, Monday, while in the kitchen with his mother, with the pressure cooker. He had just turned his back to the cooker, when it exploded knocking him down and he was badly burned on his back. He has been under the care of Dr. L. N. Kunkey, and is recovering as rapidly as possible.

The Woman's Association of the Congregational church met Wednesday afternoon at the church, with Mrs. Ole Olsen, Mrs. Walter Roberts, Mrs. Louis Noble and Mrs. Hutchinson as hostesses for the afternoon.

This leaves the home where they have lived, and which Mrs. Lenker bought, recently, vacant, and Mrs. Lenker and Mrs. Elmer Worman will move into the home as soon as some interior changes can be made. This is the former Dr. Tuck home across the street from the auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Taylor, of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Taylor and Mrs. Vesta Taylor and families all joined the Harold Taylors in a picnic on the lawn of the Taylor home.

Vandalism by the younger generation is getting to be prevalent in Weeping Water. Throwing stones at church windows is one of their pastimes. Recently the Christian Science church have had to replace several widow panes. Fruit is picked from the trees at the rear of the church and thrown away, before it is ripe. Recently, we returned home after having been away during part of the afternoon, and found tiny green apples scattered all over our yard. They had been picked from the church lawn. Today we discovered that a heavily loaded red leafed plum tree had been completely stripped of its fruit. Mail boxes are opened and birds nests are robbed of their young. Most of this vandalism is done by seven year old youngsters.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Rehmer entertained Wednesday evening, when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steinkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Hansen, and son Herbie, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Groesser and son Donnie.

Mrs. Ida Young, 87, is an enthusiastic flyer. Friday afternoon she accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Neil Munkres, on an afternoon trip over to Weeping Water. Mr. and Mrs. Munkres and Mrs. Young, are Weeping Water's most air-minded family.

Butter-nut BREAD'S GOOD IDEAS

KITCHEN TRICK
Shell hard-cooked eggs easily—just add salt to the water in which the eggs are boiled. Salt hardens the shell, makes shell easier to remove.

HOUSEHOLD HINT
Have you ever tried darning socks over a lighted flashlight head? It certainly makes the work easier, especially since darning seems to be on the nighttime "must" list.

RECIPE
RICE MEAT BALLS
3/4 c. raw rice 1/2 c. water
1 lb. ground beef 1 Tbsp. grated onion
1 tsp. salt 2 Tbsp. chopped green pepper
1 can cond. tomato soup

Wash rice, mix with meat and seasonings. Shape into small balls. Combine tomato soup, water, onion, green pepper and drop meat balls into the mixture. Cover and cook slowly 40 minutes. Serves 6.

POINTED REMARK
TENDER, FRESH Butter-nut White Bread gives you lots of vitamins and minerals as well as all the fine-textured lightness of the best white bread. Look for the blue and white checked gingham wrapper!

Tut, tut nothing but Butter-nut Bread
