

Louisville

Mrs. Bessie Core

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mayfield and Miss Olive Hedvall of Omaha were supper guests at the Harold Koop home one evening this week.

Jesse Sell, Sr., and family who have been at Wayne for the past few weeks completing some road work are back in Louisville again. Mr. Sell is working in Omaha and near Omaha and will drive back and forth to work.

Miss Ruth Kile writes that she will be working at Onawa, Iowa, this year. She attended school at Wayne this summer.

Louisville and vicinity has almost been rained out this week. We had a good heavy rain every night this week up to Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Kuehn and family are new residents of Louisville. They moved here last week from near South Bend.

The marriage of Miss Janet Dalrymple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dalrymple of Lincoln to Mr. Donald F. Huffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Huffman of Louisville was solemnized Saturday evening, August 7th at the First United Presbyterian church. Both Mr. and Mrs. Huffman are graduates from the university of Nebraska. Mr. Huffman will work with the Security Mutual Life Insurance Company and Mrs. Huffman will teach music in the Lincoln schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pankonin and family of Hampstead, Long Island, arrived in Louisville last Saturday for a short vacation with Mr. Pankonin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pankonin and other relatives.

Mrs. Geo. F. Erickson and 3 children of Broken Bow, Neb. arrived last week for a visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Worthman. They returned to their home Saturday p. m.

Those from Louisville, who attended the Dalrymple-Huffman wedding in Lincoln were: Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Brunson, Mrs. E. A. Ingram, Mrs. Gail Meisinger, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Webb, Mrs. Bedella Stander and Arthur Stander, besides Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Huffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Pankonin, Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Worthman and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pankonin were Omaha visitors Thursday night.

Louisville won the ball game from Springfield Sunday.

Mrs. Earl Hurlbut and Mr. Hurlbut's mother of Greenwood, who is visiting at the Earl Hurlbut home, called at the Ervin Albert home Monday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Woolhiser are visiting relatives at Colome, South Dak. this week.

Mrs. John Ritter, Mrs. James Ingram and Mrs. T. A. Flammant were county seat visitors Friday a. m.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover and Grace on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McArthur and small son Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Speakman and Mrs. Chas. Hoover, all of Nebraska City.

Mrs. E. L. Bradley of Lebanon, Ind. has been visiting for the past week in the Ivan Thomas and Elinore Saltmarsh homes. Mr. Bradley is Mrs. Thomas' brother. Other guests in the Saltmarsh home were Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Collins and children also of Lebanon.

Mrs. Jack Wegener and Mrs. Bob Startzer of Louisville visited Thursday p. m. at the Dave Campbell home in South Bend. Sylvia Saltmarsh and Alice Lundtvegen spent a week at Camp Harriet Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hier spent Sunday p. m. at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Emery Hansen and husband near Weeping Water.

Dennis Baines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barnes, Sr. was ill last week but is o.k. now. Mrs. Zulemma Dye of Platt-mouth is spending the days here in Louisville looking after affairs at the Drug store while Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zastera are on a vacation. She goes back to Plattsmouth at night and Joe Zastera, Jr. helps in the store after he gets thru work in the evening.

Leaves Many to Mourn Losses

Lemont Kimble, age 29, of Fremont who moved to Plattsmouth recently with many ideas, left last week leaving a bitter taste with many people in this community. Kimble informed many persons in this community that he was due a large inheritance from his father's estate and that he came to this community to establish a business and buy a home. Last week he left hurriedly, leaving behind four 'no fund' checks the largest being $50 and a $89 debt.

His wife and child who were left deserted in Plattsmouth without any funds was taken to Fullerton, Nebr. yesterday by a friend. Sheriff Solomon was advised that Kimble is an ex-combat soldier and is a mental case. Kimble was last seen in Schuyler after leaving Plattsmouth.

HERE FROM HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Woster and children, Stephen and Karen, of Pickstown, South Dakota, are here for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jahrig and Mr. and Mrs. Tim Woster, as well as other relatives. They are enjoying a vacation trip, stopping in the Black Hills for a sojourn enroute to Plattsmouth.

Mr. Woster is in the employe of the government in the land department of the Pick dam construction.

Each farm worker now produces enough agricultural products to support himself and more than 13 other persons.

HERE FROM AVOCA

Mr. and Mrs. John Dankleff and son, Lyle, of Avoca were in Plattsmouth Saturday for a few hours. Lyle was taking examination for a drivers permit to drive from his home, north of Avoca to town where he will attend school. They report that the rains in their section have been heavy but no apparent damage to the crops. While here they were callers at the Journal to renew for several subscriptions.

Lewis Family Reunion At Nebraska City

The Lewis family reunion was held at the Steinhart park at Nebraska City with some forty-eight members from Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska in attendance.

The group participated in a breakfast of bacon, potatoes, eggs and coffee cooked over the open fire. At the noon hour there were many more of the members in attendance and the number was estimated at seventy-five for the dinner.

The officers selected were: Wayne Lewis, Plattsmouth, president; L. L. Lewis of Iowa, secretary and treasurer.

In the afternoon a number of the party enjoyed swimming in the pool.

In the late afternoon ice cream and cake was served and all departed planning on being back in 1949.

Mrs. C. H. Warner Still Serious

The many friends over Cass county will regret to learn that Mrs. Charles H. Warner, one of the long time residents of this community, is still in very serious condition at the family home on North 8th street in this city.

Mrs. Warner is at the ripe old age of eighty-seven years and in the past year has been gradually failing in health and in the past few weeks her condition has given little hope of her recovery.

PETER CAMPBELL HOME

Peter Campbell returned Saturday after eight days spent at the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City. He has been under observation and treatment. He is slightly improved and glad to be home as his 85th birthday was Sunday. Mrs. Guy Davis, of Imperial, a daughter, arrived Sunday to visit with Mr. Campbell and assist in his care.

Chas. Kaffenberger Here From the West

Charles Kaffenberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kaffenberger of west of Plattsmouth, arrived home Saturday for a visit here with the many old time friends in the community.

Charles is located at Compton, Calif., where he has been working and also attending school. He is feeling in the best of condition despite his long and hard service in the last war.

Attorney Dwight Clement of Elmwood was among those in the city Friday.

No-Stocking Fad Hit NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP)—Dr. Lee Todd, city health director, says women are carrying the no-socking fad too far when they walk into slipper shops. Todd says those who try on shoes barefooted are spreading athlete's foot. He wants an ordinance to require shoe shoppers to wear stockings.

Are you dreaming of a cool night for SLEEPING?

HIGH TEMPERATURES CAUSE SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

Summer, 1948—Residents of this Midwestern area find sleep impossible because of the sweltering heat. Many desperate sufferers are seeking relief in back yards, city parks and even country camps.

A recent survey, however, showed that persons whose homes are equipped with Servel, the famous year around air conditioner, are enjoying perfect home comfort, despite high temperatures.

Servel is at the ripe old age of eighty-seven years and in the past year has been gradually failing in health and in the past few weeks her condition has given little hope of her recovery.

Shut the Weather Outside...With a Servel All-Year Gas Air Conditioner

You CAN ignore outside temperatures and enjoy year round comfort by installing a Servel Gas Air Conditioner in your home. "Selectol" the magic Servel thermostat, enables you to govern home temperatures by a mere flick of your wrist. Whether it's Old Sol beams—or Jack Frost blowing—your home temperature stays just where you want it. Reasonable installation costs and low operating costs make Servel within easy reach of every home owner. Visit your Gas Company and see about installing Servel Air Conditioning in YOUR home. Keep the outside weather OUTSIDE!
