Tuesday evening County Attorney and Mrs. Walter H. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Don Arundel entertained a group of friends in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Kroehler of New York City at the W. R. Holly cottage on the Platte river north of this city.

The men of the party spent the time in pitching horseshoes and the ladies in visiting until time for the serving of a very delightful lunch and refreshments.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tritesch, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Long, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and Mrs. Don Arundel, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Kenner, Mr.

and Mrs. Jack Dierks of Nebraska City and the guests of honor, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Kroehler of New York.

Dr. and Mrs. Kroehler and children departed Wednesday morning for their home.

Local Man Visits At Rail Show

R. C. Jahrig returned home Friday from Chicago where he has been in attendance at the great Railroad Fair, one of the largest showings made of the development of the railroads of the United States.

Mr. Jahrig found a large showing by the Burlington, Union Pacific, New York Central and Pennsylvania lines, embracing equipment from the earliest days, wood burning locomotives, locomotives with the upright boilers of early day, and the large stokers of the early time trains. One of the big thrills was a ride on the narrow gauge railroad that had formerly been in use on the Deadwood, S. D., line of the Burlington. In addition to the old time equipment, there was some of the latest type locomotives in service on the lines over the nation.

Henry Thiele Family Building New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thiele of near Nehawka, were in Plattsburgh Saturday for a few hours to attend to some matters of business and visiting with friends. They have just recently disposed of their large farm near Nehawka and are now engaged in the erection of a new home in this city.

The new home will be strictly up to date in every respect and make a fine home for Mr. and Mrs. Thiele, who will receive a hearty welcome from the many friends in this community where they will make their home when the new residence is ready for occupancy.

Honor Daughter On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kroeger entertained a group of friends and relatives from Omaha on Friday evening at the Twenty Club park north of this city in Sarpy county.

The event honored the sixteenth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Barbara who is a student in the law college at Creighton university at Omaha. The members of the party enjoyed a delightful time with a fine lunch to add to the festivities of the occasion. The guest of honor received many well wishes on the passing of the anniversary.

Jacobson-VanDerlice Vows At Lincoln

A pretty wedding took place Sunday, August 29 at St. Paul's Methodist chapel in Lincoln before a gladioli banked altar when Miss Ramona Jacobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jacobson, Broken Bow, was married to J. Stanley Van Derlice, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Van Derlice of Lincoln.

The bride wore a slipper satin gown with fitted bodice and long sleeves that came to a point over her wrist. The skirt was full with a train. Her neckline was a sweetheart and veil was finger tip. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls. She carried white roses. Her attendant was her sister Iris who wore an aqua taffeta gown and carried pink roses.

The Rev. Clarence Forsberg performed the double ring ceremony and her father gave her away.

Carl Van Derlice was his brother's attendant.

Paul Jacobson, brother of the bride sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lords Prayer", after the ceremony a reception was given at the Corn Husker Hotel for 75 friends and relatives. After a trip to Colorado and the Black Hills they will make their home south east of Lincoln.

Mrs. W. Hickey Has Visit Out in State

Mrs. W. E. Hickey has returned home from a very pleasant week's outing that took her over a great deal of the south part of Nebraska among the old time friends. She first visited at Firth, Neb., at the home of Mrs. John Boeye, a long time friend, who accompanied her on the trip over the state. They visited at Steel City, Nebraska, with the L. B. Blackshear family and later on were at Falls City with a group of the old time friends. They visited at Peru for a short time with Mrs. Cleve Coatsmy and other friends.

Mrs. Hickey reports the crops as looking fine and the corn in the best of shape despite the heat.

Home on Leave From Annapolis

Jerry Jones, former local high school athlete, now a midshipman at the U. S. Naval academy, was in the city Thursday to visit with the old school friends and associates. He is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jones, at Auburn during his thirty day leave from the academy.

Jerry has just recently returned from the summer cruise of the midshipmen to European waters and had the pleasure of visiting at ports in France and Italy while on the cruise and enjoyed the experience very much.

Associates Honor Mrs. Ann Buechler

Mrs. Ann Buechler, who has been one of the staff at the Welfare department at the Cass county court house, recently resigned her post to take a short vacation before she enters the University of Omaha for the fall term. On Wednesday afternoon the fellow employees of Mrs. Buechler presented her with a number of remembrances in honor of the pleasant associations in the welfare work in the past months.
