

Range Livestock Heavy at Omaha; Steers to $41.00

Fat cattle sold 25.75c higher Monday and Tuesday at Omaha, and a top crest of the upturn were Hemingford, Neb., slaughter steers at a new all-time high of $41.00. Other long-feds sold to $39.00, $39.25, $39.50 and $39.75. The spread remained wide, however, plain shortfeds still down to around $20.00. Omaha Monday and again Tuesday topped all the major markets in livestock supply. The Monday run included 12,000 Western cattle and calves, and over 13,000 Western sheep, and Tuesday's run 11,000 range sheep. The Monday run at Omaha was biggest for a Labor day since 1944 and the biggest Western run since 1934. Stockers and feeders Monday sold steady to 50c lower, Tuesday steady to 25c up, feeder steers $24.00-$28.75, stock steers to $29.50, stock heifers to $27.00, steer calves to $29.00 and heifer calves to $27.00. Cows sold 25-50c higher, canners and cutters $15.00-$17.00, beef cows to $22.00, grassfats on the "heiferette" order to $23.00. Beef bulls reached $23.50, veal calves $28.00. Butcher hogs were steady, some heavy hogs even 50c higher, Monday, but Tuesday trade on butchers averaged a quarter lower, some sales 50c off. Top held at $30.00 but sparingly. Heavies sold down to $24.25. Sows were largely steady, $24.50-$28.00, stags $20.00-$22.00. A $2.00 break last week dropped fat lambs to a new low for the season—$24.00, and while the top Monday held to that figure, bulk sold another 50c off—don to $23.50. Tuesday, however, slaughter lambs sold 50c-$1.00 higher, mostly $24.00-$24.50, one small lot $24.75. Feeder lambs, $2.00-$3.00 lower last week and Monday another 50-75c off, Tuesday sold strong, most sales $22.00-$24.00. Slaughter ewes skidded 50c—to a $10.00 top, and breeding ewes were a dollar or more lower, Tuesday $10.50-$13.00.

Richard E. Spangler, 3 hogs, wt. 263, $29.50; 19 sows, wt. 367, $26.00.

Harley Morton, 13 hogs, wt. 337, $28.00.

Melvin Todd, 22 steers, wt. 1302, $37.25.

Clifford Rogers, 1 steer, wt. 1230, $39.50.

Melvin Todd, 23 steers, wt. 1273, $37.50.

Alton Stewart, 9 hogs, wt. 217, $30.00 (top Sept. 6).

"Dead" Man Gives Annual Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Goodchild and their grandson, David Davidson, of Los Angeles, arrived in this city Sunday for a visit at the home of Mrs. P. A. Horn, mother of Mrs. Goodchild and her family. They were accompanied by Webb Goodchild, of Salem, Ohio, a brother of Mr. Goodchild.

While enroute here the Goodchild party stopped at Denver where Mr. Goodchild carried out an annual custom in tendering to a group of the friends in the former home a picnic in recognition of their thoughtfulness a few years ago.

Mr. Goodchild, an auto parts manufacturer at Los Angeles, was very badly injured in 1934 in an auto wreck near Wakefield, Nebraska, the report reaching the old friends at Denver that he had been killed. The friends learning of the supposed death sent a large floral horseshoe that Mr. Goodchild had set up on the dresser of his hospital room.

He then vowed that each year he would tender a picnic to the kind friends that had supposedly remembered him in death. This year on the way east he stopped in Denver to give the picnic attended by 111 of the old friends.

TO VISIT IN CALIFORNIA

Miss Beatrice Seybert of this city and Miss Pearl Dugay of Omaha, left Wednesday for an indefinite visit in California, where they will visit with relatives and friends. Miss Seybert is expecting to make her headquarters with her cousin, Mrs. C. A. Marshall and family and both Miss Seybert and Miss Dugay are expecting to visit with old time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Deboer and daughter, Lou Ann of Aurora, Neb., were Labor Day week end guests of the Walter Gleason family.
