

Return From Trip To California And Northwest

Miss Jessie M. Robertson, librarian at the Peru State Teachers college, is home now to take part in the formal opening of the school year and the resumption of her duties.

Miss Robertson has just returned home from a very pleasant outing that has taken her to the Pacific northwest as well as southern California and covered several weeks.

She was first at Los Angeles where her niece, Mrs. J. H. Goss, formerly Miss Janet Westover, is residing and had a most delightful time in that locality with the relatives and meeting the many old time friends. Miss Robertson later visited at San Francisco where she was a guest of her niece, Mrs. J. Pallett, formerly Miss Rachel Robertson and with William G. Robertson, a nephew who is now located on the west coast.

Later she continued onto Seattle, Washington to visit Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Westover and their youngest daughter, Ruth, for a time. Dr. and Mrs. Westover and daughter and Mrs. H. L. Gerner of Plattsmouth, a sister of Mrs. Westover, have just returned home from a visit of several weeks in Alaska where they found many delightful vacation spots in that little known section of the nation.

On the return home Miss Robertson stopped at Estes park, Colorado, with Miss Ruth Westover, who is teaching school here the coming term. Mrs. Gerner had flew to Los Angeles from Seattle to join her sister, Miss Robertson and accompanied her on her visit to the other relatives on the coast.

Mrs. Estil Jenkins Suffers Bad Burns

Mrs. Estil Jenkins is confined to her home as the result of severe burns sustained on last Thursday while engaged in the household work. Mrs. Jenkins was engaged in cooking apple sauce in a pressure cooker and as she was starting to release the cooker, and started to open it, the cooker suddenly exploded and the hot sauce was thrown over the right arm of Mrs. Jenkins, burning it from the shoulder to the finger tips.

The injured lady was treated at the office of Dr. L. S. Pucelik and made as comfortable as possible, is now at the family home recuperating from the effects of the burns but it will be some time before she is over the effects of the injury.

Plattsmouth Group At County Fair

Among the groups taking part in the Nebraska State fair on Sunday, Veterans day, was the Plattsmouth high school band and color guard of the Hugh J. Kearns post of the American Legion.

The band made a very decided hit at the fair in their concert and in the parade as they were at their best and under the direction of David Fowler gave the large crowd a real treat.

The Legion colors were in the parade of the veterans and the guard for the colors was composed of Robert Slavicek, Edward Hayes, Leonard Brothers and Jake Keller.

"Watch Out For Kids" Warns Safety Council

With the grim reminder that 197 youngsters from ages 5 to 19 were killed and injured last year after being struck by vehicles, the Nebraska Safety Council again warned the motorists of Nebraska to "Watch Out for the Kids".

School has again started, which means many youngsters will be exposed to traffic dangers to a much greater extent than during vacation, the Council said.

During the month of September last year, 8 youngsters from 6 to 19 years of age were killed in traffic accidents. Although all of these were not pedestrians, the Council pointed out that it is cause for grave consideration this year.

The State Safety Council calls upon motorists to observe three simple rules, especially during this fall. One: Drive at a moderate speed that will enable you to stop quickly. Two: Keep on the watch for sudden, unpredictable actions of children. Three: Look around carefully before backing or starting up from a parked position.

Claude Richardson Back From Hospital

Claude Richardson of this city, who for the past two months has been at the U. S. veterans hospital at Lincoln, came home Wednesday afternoon for a short furlough to visit Mrs. Richardson and his many friends.

He was severely injured two months ago when his right arm and shoulder was broken as he attempted to alight from a moving freight train in the local Burlington yards. He caught the arm in one of the hand holds on the side of a box car as he swung off, the arm was almost torn from its socket. He states that he had splendid service at the hospital with every care and accommodation afforded. He is gradually regaining the use of the arm that was first thought might be useless. He will be home for thirty days and then return to the hospital to have a pin removed from the shoulder.

Wallace Arnold Is Home For a Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Arnold of Nebraska City, were here Saturday to visit with Mrs. Virgil Arnold and others of the family. Mr. Arnold has just been released from the Veterans hospital at Lincoln, after a long stay there due to injuries received by a severe fall from a bridge at Nebraska City. He was very badly injured and it was uncertain for a time as to his recovery but he was sent to the Veterans hospital where he has been given treatment and is much improved. While he is still compelled to wear a brace around the upper part of the body he is progressing fine and it is hoped in the next few weeks may be able to resume his normal activities.

Attend Funeral at Ord, Nebraska

Joseph Cook, 76, of this city, last of the original Cook family of pioneer days, was at Ord, Nebraska, Sunday to attend the funeral services of a nephew, Joe Cook, 75, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cook, one of the older branches of the original family.

Other members of the family attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Cole, Mrs. Betty Patterson and Mrs. Glenn Wiles. The late Mr. Cook is survived by the widow and two daughters. The Jacob Cook family have resided in the northern part of the state for a great many years and are known to many here as they have attended the Cook reunions many times.

OLD RESIDENT HERE

The week end found a resident of Plattsmouth many years ago, back from the west coast for a visit with friends and old acquaintances, this was Robert Brown and Mrs. Brown of Los Angeles. Mr. Brown left here in the early nineties and this is the first time he has been here since that time and he found but few that he recalled. The Browns are visiting at Omaha with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brantner, old friends, making trips here to greet the few that Mr. Brown could recall. Mr. Brown had a pleasant visit here with the Westcotts, C. C. and E. H., and their families, as well as Emil Wurl, and old school mate, also calling on L. D. Hiatt and the Frickses while here.
