Fairview Women's Club Has Election

The members of the Fairview Women's club met on Wednesday, September 8th at the home of Mrs. Glen Terryberry with a pleasing number of the members in attendance.

The main business of the meeting was that of election of officers for the ensuing year and the following were selected:

President—Mrs. Oliver Meisinger.

Vice-President—Mrs. Leon Bond.

Secretary—Mrs. Louis Wagner.

Treasurer—Mrs. Verner Meisinger.

Song Leader—Mrs. Jacob Tritsch.

News Reporter—Mrs. Floyd Becker.

Social Leader—Mrs. John Terryberry.

The new officers will be installed at the meeting to be held in January.

Plans were made for the float to be used in the Farmer's day parade and the committee named for the decorating was Mrs. Ray Ehlers and Mrs. Floyd Decker.

The club members met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Herman Hemmings where they decorated the float.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Ralph Gansemmer.

Former Resident Visits in City

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leaming of Long Beach, California, were in the city this week to visit with old friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Leaming. She is the former Ruth Houseworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Houseworth, for many years a resident of Cass county where Mr. Houseworth was clerk of the district court.

Mr. and Mrs. Leaming have been enjoying a summer vacation in a motor tour of the greater part of the United States, traveling through the south and east and are now swinging back through the west. They are traveling as far north as Seattle and from there will turn south toward their southern California home.

Emil Schmidt Family Back From Colorado

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schmidt have just returned home from a delightful trip to the west that has taken them through a greater part of Colorado. They visited at Colorado Springs and Denver and the many place of interest in that part of the west.

They report that crops look good in that part of the country and especially in the potato country of Colorado where some of the best potatoes in the country are raised.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore of Murray was a visitor in the city Wednesday where he was called to look after matters of business.

Gilmour-Lee Wedding Held At Omaha

In a quiet and simple wedding ceremony on Saturday, September 11th at high noon, at Omaha, Miss Carol Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Arthur Lee, of Alexandria, South Dakota, became the bride of William M. Gilmour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam T. Gilmour of this city.

The marriage lines were read by Judge Robert R. Troyer at his offices in the court house.

The bridal couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Ifland, of Omaha, close friends of the young people.

The bride wore a street dress of elfen gray with black accessories while Mrs. Ifland wore a street dress of black and white for the ceremony.

Mrs. Gilmour has been making her home in Omaha where she has been employed.

The groom was born on the farm south of this city where he has grown to manhood, graduating from the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1934. He served in world war II and since the return from service has been engaged in farming with the father, south of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore are to make their home on the farm near this city and where they will carry the well wishes of the many friends.

Hinky-Dinky Picnic Enjoyed by Many

Sunday the staff of the Hinky-Dinky company, with their store managers and employees, had one of the times of their lives at the annual picnic party, staged at the Platte river north of this city.

At the picnic everything was "on the house" and a royal treat was afforded in the picnic dinner and all the trimmings that had been provided by the company for the entertainment of the employees.

The registration took up the morning hours and at 1 o'clock the picnic dinner was served with loads of the good things to eat and plenty of refreshments to add to the spirit of the occasion.

There were races for everyone, old and young, fat and lean, men and women, that filled the afternoon with entertainment and a ball game served for those that preferred to watch.

From the local store, No. 24, Dick Black, Herb Baumgart and Louise Kief served on the committee.

Bill Bigger of the Omaha officers had charge of the races and entertainment.

Mildred Weber Is With Symphony

Plattsmouth residents will be interested in learning that Miss Mildred Weber, former Plattsmouth girl, is a member of the Omaha Symphony orchestra, who are opening their ticket selling campaign this week.

A number of great musical artists will be on the winter and spring program of the orchestra including Helen Traubel of the Metropolitan and Albert Spaulding, great violinist of recent years.

Former Resident Visits in City

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kaufmann of Seattle, Wash., arrived from their home in the west Sunday to spend a few days visiting with relatives and friends here and in Omaha.

Mr. Kaufmann is a former resident here where he spent his boyhood days and received his early day schooling. Later he moved to the west and was in service in the first world war.

While here he visited with Miss Marie Kaufmann and as many of the old time friends as he was able to locate.

Family Reunion Held at Fremont

A very delightful reunion was held at the park in Fremont, Neb., Sunday, September 12 when friends and relatives from Norfolk, Scribner, Fremont, Lincoln, Louisville, Plattsmouth and also from Kansas gathered in honor of Mrs. Claus Ploehn of Dallas, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Dagendorfer of Oklahoma who are visiting relatives and friends in Nebraska.

Everyone came with well filled baskets and enjoyed the day immensely. Those attending from Plattsmouth were H. M. Soennichsen, Miss Mathilda Soennichsen, Mrs. Elizabeth Hennings, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hennings and Mrs. Helen Meisinger.

Credit Women Have Breakfast Party

The Plattsmouth Credit Women's Breakfast club held a most delightful meeting last evening at the main dining room of the Rainey Coffee shop in the Plattsmouth hotel.

It was the regular meeting of the club and in honor of the event the table was arranged with decorations of the fall flowers and also the beautiful birthday cake presented by Mollie C. Gobelman in honor of her anniversary.

The ladies have been invited to a brunch to be held at the Hotel Cornhusker on Sunday, September 19th at 11 a.m. A number of the local ladies are planning on attending.

The plans for the district guest night that will be held this year in Plattsmouth, was also discussed and committees will be arranged for the event.

Mollie Gobelman gave a very interesting account of her recent trip to the west coast that was very much enjoyed by all of the group.

Exhibits at Karnival Are Very Attractive

The exhibits at the King Korn Karnival are numerous and very attractive on the Wednesday afternoon as they were opened to the public for their inspection.

The flower show is located in the display room at the Cass County Motors Co., building at 6th and Pearl street, Wednesday was a place of a great deal of interest to the men and women of the community. The flowers are very lovely and embrace almost every variety that can be found in the floral kingdom. The exhibits of roses are exceptionally lovely as are the dahlias, asters and other varieties of the fall flowers that have been brought in by the exhibitors.

The Hofmockel and Brown floral dealers have exhibits on hand but these are not competition for the judging. One of the unusual flowers shown is that of the Bird of paradise flower, something that is attracting much attention. The shadow boxes are well arranged and makes a never failing source of interest to the visitors at the show.

Miniature churches and landscapes have been arranged for showing that attracts the eye of the visitor. The miniature Holy Rosary church is a real work of art and the detail closely followed, the church building is reproduced in detail, the walks and the grove in the yard are all carried out very cleverly. The Methodist church has a reproduction of "The Church in the Wildwood" and the Presbyterian church has a setting of the Garden of Gethsemane.

There are also shown a number of bird houses built by Edward Berlett as well as exhibits of seeds that are cleverly arranged.
