Weeping Water

Mrs. Thomas Murty

Mrs. Lillian Stuff Jones
Lillian Belle Stuff was born in Chicago, January 14, 1874, the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. George Lunt Spencer Stuff. She received her early education in northern Illinois. In 1893, after the death of both parents, she came to Nebraska, and made her home with her brother, the late Professor Frederick Stuff. In 1896 she was graduated from the Academy of Nebraska Wesleyan University, after which she taught school for two years, but her ambition was to become a nurse, so she entered the Ensworth Methodist Hospital at St. Joseph, Mo., and completed their training for nurses.

During the First World War she enlisted in the nursing service of the American Red Cross and was sent to France where she remained for some time after the war was over, caring for the wounded men who were too ill to be sent home.
