Hundreds Enjoy GI Fish Fry

The GI portion of the Friday program of the King Korn Karnival was featured by the fish fry at the American Legion club on highway No. 75, south of the city, and the dance that followed later in the evening. The committee in charge of the event had arranged and cooked a great array of the toothsome Missouri river catfish that was consumed by the hundreds that visited the club in the afternoon and evening.

There were visitors from Omaha, Nebraska City, Council Bluffs, Lincoln and all sections of Cass county, to enjoy the dinner that vets had prepared for the evening. Don Rainey and Bill Williamson were head of the committee that arranged the repast. Mrs. Howard Hirz and Mrs. James Heneger were heading the committee looking after the cooking.

In addition to the fish feed there was free refreshments that had been donated for the occasion.

The later part of the evening was devoted to dancing with Gene Lingford and his orchestra playing for the large crowd that danced out the celebration.

The Legion entertained at the fish fry and the event next year will be in the hands of the VFW group through the co-operation of the two organizations.

Returns From Sad Mission to East

Sunday night Willard Brink, Sr., returned home from New Albany, Indiana, where he was called by the death of his son-in-law, Jack Hess, whose death occurred a week ago. Mr. Brink remained for the funeral and to visit his daughter, formerly Dorothy Brink. Miss Catherine Brink, of Philadelphia, another daughter, also attended the services.

Mr. Hess has been ill for some time suffering from a lung trouble but was not in critical condition until the last week.

DOES EXCELLENT WORK

Mrs. Jack Troop of near this city is deserving of a great deal of praise for her excellent work in arranging and decorating the float of the Junior Woman's club in the parade Friday night. Mrs. Troop has been a very active worker in the club since coming here and the members feel very grateful to her.

Fred Lugsch Has 29th Anniversary in Business

Fred Lugsch, head of the local cleaning establishment in this city as well as the Pantorium in Omaha, is observing his twenty-ninth year in business in Plattsmouth. His cleaning and repair of athletic equipment is known over the greater part of the central west.

In the intervening years since Mr. Lugsch came here from his native home at Glenwood, he has built up a great business organization that is one of the best in this part of the west, one of the labor employing units in the business life of the community.

Mr. Lugsch was just out of service with the Iowa troops in world war I, when he came to Plattsmouth on September 20, 1919 and located in a building on the north side of Main street. Later he moved in 1932 to the present location and here the business has been greatly expanded. A new unit is in process of construction and will be ready to be placed in service in a short time.

During his residence here Mr. Lugsch has been an active figure in the community life deeply interested in the business and political life of the community. He has been commander of the American Legion post as well as Chef De Gare of the 40 & 4. He is a member of Plattsmouth lodge No. 6 A.F. & A.M.

LEWISTON SOCIAL CIRCLE

The Lewiston Social Circle Club met at the home of Mrs. John Hobscheidt at Plattsmouth for their September meeting. The meeting was called to order by vice-president, Mrs. Glen Thomson. The regular business meeting was taken care of. Each member told of her capsule friend and what she had done for her and they all drew their new capsule friend for the year 1949. After the business meeting, a social time was had. A visitor, Mrs. Molly Shurigar, played some piano numbers which they all enjoyed very much. Hostesses, at the close, Mrs. Hobschidt and Mrs. S. Y. Smith, served a lovely lunch of ice cream, dark and light cake, and iced tea.

All left for home having a lovely afternoon.—Mrs. Lloyd Lewis, reporter.

Former Residents Here From West

Several former residents of Plattsmouth, now living at Long Beach, California, are here for a visit with old friends and relatives. They are guests here of Mr. and Mrs. John Carmack, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ward Egenberger and other relatives.

The group comprises Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Rogers and Mrs. Fred G. Egenberger, who are enjoying meeting the many old time friends. Mrs. Egenberger and daughter, Mrs. Rogers are former residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Royal of Lincoln were in the city Sunday to visit with Judge C. L. Graves, father of Mrs. Royal.

Maxine Cloidt Home From the Hospital

Miss Maxine Cloidt who has been at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha for the last six weeks, was able to return home the past week feeling somewhat improved but still far from well. Miss Cloidt has been in poor health for the past two years spending a great deal of the time at hospitals. She is recuperating here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cloidt on high school hill.

Nebraska Has Fine Record For Holiday

Nebraska has scored again on the safety-side of the ledger, reports the Nebraska State Safety council. Although the council predicted three and possibly four traffic deaths over the long Labor Day holiday, only one such death has so far been reported.

Nebraska's only holiday fatality was that of Mrs. Lester Hollenbeck who was killed on September 6 in Shelton when the auto she was driving was struck by a fast train.

Nebraska drivers have every right to be proud of themselves for their record, the council said, for the nation as a whole exceeded estimates set up by the National Safety council.

"Much credit is due to the many agencies, both public and private, who made possible the successful promotion of the Labor-Day traffic safety campaign." Dwight Havens, president of the State Safety Council, said.

Many Attend Services For Mrs. Mary Duff

The funeral services for Mrs. Mary Cynthia Duff were held on Friday morning at the First Methodist church in this city. There were a large number from this city as well as Cedar Creek, the old home precinct.

Rev. E. C. Williams brought the message of comfort to the family and old friends while during the service Mrs. Margaret Carr gave two of the loved hymns, "In the Garden" and "Sometime We'll Understand" with Mrs. Marcia Davis at the organ.

The Caldwell funeral home of this city had charge of the services and the interment was at the Glendale cemetery, the pall bearers being old family friends, George Schroeder, Ernest Hennings, Harold Ahl, Floyd Erickson Glen Marloff and Henry Ahl.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall Pollard and son, James of Nehawka, were in the city Saturday to attend to some matters of business and enjoying the King Korn Karnival.

Andy Graves of Bellevue, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Graves of Omaha were here Sunday to visit with their uncle, Judge C. L. Graves.

Farmers Day Opens Karnival Parade Events

Miss Hogarth is a very talented baton twirler and also presented songs and dancing numbers. Her baton numbers are widely known and popular, making her a great hit where she appears. Her display with the electric baton was especially lovely. In addition to her work with the Union Pacific group she is leader of the South Omaha high school band. She has won many prizes in Chicago, De- as City and many other places.

The Melodie Cowboys also added to the evening program with a very fine offering from Jim and the boys.

The Farmers day parade announcing was conducted by Rex Young, well known auctioneer in his usual fine manner.

Denver Visitors At Mauzy Home

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Reed of Denver arrived Thursday from their home in the west for a few days visit here with the old time friends in this city and vicinity.

Mr. Reed, who is the western sales manager for the Globe Casket Co., at Denver, has been a visitor here frequently in the past, but this is the first visit here for Mrs. Reed since their locating at Denver and was very much enjoyed by the old friends.

While here the Denver party were guests of Mrs. Alpha Manzy at her home in the south part of the city.

Syracuse Visitors At the Karnival

A group of the live wires from Syracuse were here Thursday to enjoy the King Korn Karnival and the nice Horse Show of the Cass County Horse Show association. The party comprised Stanley Swanson, well known resident of central Otoe county, Harry Steinhoff, Herman Strong, Allan Long.

John F. Wolff, of Omaha was in the city Thursday to visit at the Karnival and with the old friends. He was an over night guest Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hirz. Friday Mr. Wolff attended the funreal services for Mrs. Mary Duff, an old neighbor and friend of the Wolff family.

Winners in Soap Box Derby Saturday

The soap box derby, a feature of the last day of the King Korn Karnival in the recent years, had the largest number of entries this year with some twelve registered for the start of the race.

This year there were many boys from other points registered, showing the growth of this sport among the towns of this locality.

The cars were well constructed and some very snappy home made machines were on hand on high school hill as the entries and their cars were lined up for the race down the hill.

The race was run in pairs and gave the spectators a real thrill as the youngsters guided their cars down into the main part of the city for the judging.

The judges of the events were Clement Woster and Coach Merle Stewart while the starters were John Willis of Nebraska City and R. R. Furse, local soap box derby chairman.

The winners of the event as announced by the judges were: First, Richard Voges, Nebraska City; Second, Tom Hebard, Nebraska City and the Third, Larry Ruse, of Tabor, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Silken and Alex Silken of Lincoln, spent the day in Plattsmouth Friday to attend the King Korn Karnival. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hanson, of Nehawka, were here Thursday to enjoy the Farmers day parade and visiting with friends. While here Mr. Hanson called at the Journal to enroll for the ensuing year.
