Young People Married at Burr on Sunday

In a very joyous home wedding held Sunday at 2:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumgart, at Burr, Nebraska, Miss Anna Mae Baumgart, daughter of Louis Baumgart of this city, became the bride of Rex Carmichael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Carmichael, of Burr.

The home was attractively arranged in settings of the fall flowers whose colorful charm added to the impressiveness of the service.

The marriage service was celebrated by Rev. R. Winkler, pastor of the Methodist church at Burr. The double ring ceremony was used in the wedding.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Louis Baumgart.

The bride had chosen for her wedding gown royal blue crepe with black accessories and carrying an arm bouquet of white carnations. Her wedding veil furnished the something old, it being worn by her great aunt, Mrs. Ida Mockenhaupt, at her wedding fifty years ago.

Miss Jean McLaugh, of Burr, a close friend, attended as bridesmaid, she wearing a gown of two-tone blue with a corsage of white carnations. Her accessories were black.

Mr. Carmichael was attended by John Buchanan, of Burr, a brother-in-law. Both men wore dark suits with white boutonnieres.

Following the ceremony refreshments of ice cream and cake were served the guests at the home.

The bride has made her home since babyhood with the uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumgart, growing up, in that community where she was educated in the schools of Burr. The groom is also a lifelong resident of near Burr.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael are expecting to continue to make their home in the old home community where Mr. Carmichael will farm the coming year.

Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Fay Carmichael and son, Fay Edward, Mrs. Laura Shelman, Mrs. Max Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryne and three sons, of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mockenhaupt of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. John Buchanan, Rev. and Mrs. R. Winkler, Mr. and Mrs. August Breithorst and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baumgart of Plattsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumgart of Burr.

Catholic Daughters Hold Card Party

Tuesday evening the members of the local court of the Catholic Daughters of America were entertained at the home of Mrs. Walter H. Smith in the north part of the city with a very fine attendance of the members of the organization.

The fore part of the evening was spent in the enjoyment of a weiner roast that was served in the open air living room of the place.

Later the ladies spent the time at cards and in the playing Miss Minnie Guthmann was the winner of high score in bridge and Mrs. Timothy Kahoutek in pinocle. The prize in Chinese checkers was won by Mrs. Richard Otterstein.

Father John Kelly was a guest of the ladies. The hostesses comprised Mrs. Smith, Mrs. L. A. Amato, Miss Helen Eiting, Mrs. Ruth Kalasek and Mrs. John L. Hadraba.

Mrs. F. G. Egenberger and daughter, Mrs. Rogers of Long Beach, California, were guests of the evening. Both are former members of the local C. D. of A.

New Church School Curriculum Planned

The Associated Press announced this week from Philadelphia that the Presbyterian church in the United States of America is introducing an improved and enriched curriculum for its church school pupils on October third.

This curriculum, which involves an investment of $2,000,000 and seven years of preparation by the Board of Christian Education leaders, is entitled "Christian Faith and Life — A Program for Church and Home."

A parent-teacher conference is planned for Wednesday evening, September 29, at 7:30, to enable all parents and teachers to become better acquainted with the aims and objectives of this well organized and illustrated course of study for Christian living.

Church Wedding Held at Nehawka September 15th

The Nehawka Methodist church was the scene Wednesday, September 15th of the wedding of Miss Doris Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Daniel Anderson and Joseph Doedyns, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Doedyns, of San Juan, Texas.

The church was beautifully arranged with decorations of yellow, white and cream gladioli on the altar.

The marriage lines were read by Rev. Paul Walker, pastor of the Methodist church at Weeping Water with one hundred and eighty friends witnessing the service.

Mrs. Robert Romans, Lincoln, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore an off-the-shoulder green taffeta gown with a full skirt. Miss Betty Bolton, Omaha, was bridesmaid, wearing a light green taffeta gown trimmed with lace at the neckline. Both carried bouquets of daisies.

Attending the bridegroom were John Doedyns and Lyman Anderson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white brocaded satin gown with a fitted bodice, and long pointed sleeves with diamond shaped cut-outs from the point of the sleeve to the elbow. A double peplum was draped over the full skirt which fell into a three yard train. She carried white carnations.

Mrs. Ivan Hansen was soloist and sang "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Charlotte Lundberg. Candles were lighted by Dolores Hoffman, Omaha, and Carlene Meisinger, Cook.

The bride's parents entertained 200 guests at a reception in the church parlors.

Mrs. Doedyns graduated from Nehawka high school and attended business college in Omaha. She has been employed in Omaha for the past three years. The bridegroom served in the Navy and was employed in Omaha. He is now a senior at the University of Texas in Austin, where they will make their home.

Out-of-town guests were from San Juan, Tex.; Cheyenne, Wyo.; Omaha, Lincoln, Weeping Water, Avoca, Louisville, Nebraska City, Union, Syracuse, Cook and Plattsmouth.

Visits with Old Friends
L. R. Feller, of Omaha, who is connected with the Paxton & Vierling steel company, was in the city Tuesday for a few hours enroute home from Nebraska City and Auburn where he was called on business. While here he had the opportunity of visiting a number of the old friends of some thirty years ago when a resident of Plattsmouth.

Mr. Feller has just recently returned from Davenport, Iowa, where he was called by the death of his mother.

While in Plattsmouth Mr. Feller was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Hiber.

1st radishes, Mrs. Fred Hild, Murray.
