

Death of Former Louisville Man

The death of Charles A. Taylor, 72, former resident of Louisville, occurred on Sunday at Omaha at the family home, 1205 1/2 South 11th street. Mr. Taylor was well known in the Louisville community where he spent his younger years and the many friends have regretted to learn of his passing. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Theodore Reuting; one grandson, Randall; three sisters, Mrs. Fred Fleischmann, Manley;

Mrs. Charles Sennard, Grand Island; Mrs. Earl Bailey, Hastings; three brothers, Wesley J. Taylor, Plattsmouth; Thomas Edward Taylor, California and Floyd Taylor of Chicago.

The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the John A. Gentleman mortuary at Omaha.

Attending the services from this city were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Taylor.

W. H. Woolcott III At Family Home

W. H. Woolcott, one of the active leaders in the Eagles lodge and the Knights of Columbus, has been confined to his home for the greater part of this week. Mr. Woolcott has not been in the best of health for the past year and the many friends regret to learn that he is again confined to his home by illness.

CHILD DOING WELL

The many friends here of the Howard Dodds family will be pleased to learn that Alan, fifteen months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hartman, of Bellevue, is doing nicely at the Children's hospital at Omaha where he was taken a few days ago. The little one is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dodds.

Fat Cattle Steady Monday Omaha; Feeders Go Lower

Fat cattle sold steady, stockers and feeders steady to $1.00 lower, hogs steady to 50c higher, and fat lambs 25c higher Monday on the Omaha market. Supply topped the 42,000-mark, giving Omaha No. 1 rank among the major markets for the eighth successive Monday. The cattle run at 23,000 also ranked No. 1 and was mostly Western; the sheep run was nearly all Western. The steady trade on fat cattle was the first other than lower in some three weeks. Price range was $18.60-$37.00. Cows Monday sold weak to 25c off, $13.50-$22.00. Beef bulls sold to $21.00, veal calves to $27. Yearling stockers sold steady to 75c lower, and 2 and 3-year-old feeder steers 50c-$1.00 lower, some weighty feeder steers off more than $1.00. Yearlings ranged from $22.00-$29.00, most feeder steers $23.00-$27.00, a part lead of 2's at $29.00. Choice steer calves, to $32.00, were steady, others steady to $1.00 lower. Hogs opened steady to 50c higher, the top $26.00 but closed with the advance largely lost. Sows reached $24.50. Fat lambs moved a quarter higher—to $24.75, with a few Cheviots $25.00. Slaughter ewes were 25-50c off at $8.00-$9.00. Feeder lambs were weak to 50c lower at $20.00-$22.50. Breeding ewes went to the country at $9.50-$10.50.

Attend Motor Meet At Omaha Monday

Monday afternoon Roy V. Bryant, local Dodge and Plymouth dealer, was at Omaha in company with Walter Bryant and Elmore Brink, of the local agency, to attend the meeting held at the Hotel Fontenelle of the dealers and service men of this section of the state. The meeting was dealing with the sales and service activities of the motor companies and brought to the sessions many of the experts in the various lines of activity.

The group enjoyed the fine dinner party that was arranged by the company for the entertainment of the guests and from the talks given a great deal of valuable information was derived.

Good Will Train

A meeting will be held on Monday evening, October 18th at the American Legion hall at Weeping Water. This meeting will be for the purpose of planning the county organization of the Good Will Train for European Relief. This train will be a successor of the Abraham Lincoln train that was organized several months. This is sponsored by the CROP organization.

Civilian Air Patrol Holds Fine Meeting

Tuesday evening the Civil Air Patrol had their weekly meeting. The main activity was the using of field telephones. Everyone is invited to come and take part in these varied programs. Near the end of the meeting the group worked on braiding, making belts, and pot holders. On October 31, at 5 p. m. the C.A.P. is giving a picnic. Anyone who wishes to attend this picnic is welcome and to meet at the high school at five.

Transportation will be furnished for everyone, and those who may be late can make arrangements. If further information is desired, please call Jackie Schubeck or Florence Duda.

Mrs. Robert Cappell Goes to Topeka, Kan.

Mrs. Robert Cappell, who has not been in the best of health for some time, is spending a few days at the S. B. A. hospital at Topeka, Kansas. It is expected that she will spend a short time under observation before her return home. Mr. Cappell accompanied his wife to Topeka and was with her a part of the time during the stay.

Father-Son Banquet Held At Avoca Church

The annual father and son dinner was held Tuesday evening at the parlors of the Congregational church at Avoca with a large number of the fathers and sons being present to enjoy the event.

As the members of the party arrived they were presented with boutonniere in honor of the event.

The dinner was very much appreciated and the ladies had provided a delightful repast comprising:

Meat Loaf
Mashed Potatoes Gravy
Baked Beans Cabbage Slaw
Rolls Jelly Pickles
Pie Coffee

The welcome to the sons was given by Clair Wilbur with the response on behalf of the sons by Arthur Norris.

The invocation was offered by Rev. Hadsell.

During the evening a number of prizes were given and among these were: father with the largest feet, Paul Straub; oldest father, Silas Munn; youngest son, Lee Dumke.

During the evening program Mr. Kirtley of Nebraska City, showed pictures of his recent trip to Mexico that were very interesting.

ATTENDS NURSE MEETING

Mrs. Henry J. Heldt of this city has been attending the meetings of the Nebraska State Nurse's association in Omaha this week. The sessions are at the Hotel Fontenelle and included are many very interesting visits over the city. The group was enter-
