Schafer-Gift Wedding Held on Sunday

Miss Ruth Schafer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schafer, Nehawka, and Mr. William L. Gift, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gift, Omaha, were married Sunday. The Rev. Adolph Lentz officiated at the 7 p. m. ceremony at Kuntz Memorial church, Omaha.

Baskets of white, yellow and gold chrysanthemums decorated the altar. Miss Betty Schafer, sister of the bride, sang "I Love Thee" and "Because." Mrs. Flora Sears Nelson was organist.

The bridal gown of white slipper satin was made with a sheer-yoke, sweetheart neckline embroidered with seed pearls and crystal beads, and fitted bodice. The full gathered skirt extended into a three-yard court train. A mantilla of rose point lace held her fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Kathleen Schafer, maid of honor for her sister, wore a Kelly green taffeta gown with matching hat, and carried yellow, gold and rust pompons. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Jack Heeter of Circleville, Ohio, and Miss Norma Schafer, both sisters of the bride, wore similar gowns in peacock blue and bittersweet, respectively.

All dresses were made with fitted bodices, self ruffles at the yoke, and ruffles trimmed the full skirts. They carried colonial bouquets of pink and yellow roses respectively.

James Nodgaard was the best man, and Norman Bressman, Thomas Bayer and John Boetel ushered.

Miss Marilyn Schafer and Mrs. James Schafer lighted the tapers.

The bride's mother wore a grape color dress with black accessories.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Elaine Ellis and Esther Zabel served and Mrs. Howard Fullerton, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. For her wedding trip to the Ozarks, the bride wore a royal blue suit and hat with toast accessories. They will live in Omaha.

Plattsmouth Ladies Gowns at Ball

The Plattsmouth ladies, members of the royal court of Ak-Sar-Ben, who took part in the coronation and the social events of the evening, at Omaha, were Mrs. Waldemar Soennichsen, and her daughter, Miss Mary Phyllis, who was one of the countesses of the realm.

Mrs. Soennichsen wore a gown of Italian lace and crepe with a square neckline and tiny sleeves. The lace bodice was sprinkled with iridescent sequins.

Miss Soennichsen wore Recamier red taffeta. The tight fitting bodice was finished with off shoulder bertha laid in a soft fold to dip to a little point in front. The full skirt worn with stiff crinoline pedicoot was typical of the Empire period. Six wide panels of taffeta were shirred to tiny taffeta cords running from waistline to hem, the taffeta falling in a soft drape between the cords in the Australian puff manner. Elbow length mitts were shirred exactly like the skirts in the countesses court gown, and fastened at the wrist with six tiny covered buttons. The countess wore a rhinestone tiara and one strap pumps.

Young People Are Married Saturday

Saturday afternoon at the chambers of County Judge Paul E. Fauquet at the court house was celebrated the wedding service for Miss Dora Hunter of Omaha and Leonard Sikora of this city. The young people were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Dehning of Omaha. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sikora of this city.

Dean-Bennett Wedding Ceremony

Miss La Von Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dean, of Memphis, became the bride of Burdette Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bennett, of Wabash, at 3 o'clock, Sunday, Oct. 3, 1948, at the Methodist church in Memphis. Rev. Walter E. Neth pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Carl Weston of Alvo immediately following "Because" and "God Gave You Me," sung by Miss Donna Bennett, sister of the groom.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of blue slipper satin with black accessories and wore a corsage made of pink chrysanthemums and bows. She was attended by her sister, Miss Bonnie Dean, of Lincoln, who was attired in grey taffeta with black accessories and pink mum corsage.

The groom and his attendant, Bernard Bockelman, of Alvo, both wore blue suits with pink carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother wore grey satin with black accessories and pink carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a dress of navy blue and grey and black accessories, and also a pink carnation corsage.

The church was attractively decorated with white chrysanthemums and carnations, and there were streamers of pink and white.

Dee and Orland Bennett, brothers of the groom, served as ushers.

Mrs. Orland Bennett, sister-in-law of the groom, Mrs. Mary Lou Ziegenbein and Verma Mae Dan, sisters of the bride, had charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Dee Bennett of Lincoln, sister-in-law of the groom, was in charge of the guest book.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the basement of the church for about 40 immediate relatives of the couple. The table was decorated with white mums and pink rosebuds, white candles, and was centered with a three tiered wedding cake. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ivan Armstrong, Ashland; Mrs. Roy Everman, Wann; Mrs. Jim Payne and Mrs. Alget Johnson, Wahoo, all aunts of the bride. Mrs. Carl Ziegenbein, sister of the bride, cut the cake and Miss Donna Bennett, sister of the groom, poured. Refreshments consisted of ice cream, cake, mints and coffee.

The bride is teaching school at District 16, Saunders county, and the groom is engaged in farming near Alvo. Their address will be Eagle.

Ladies Discuss Plans for Guild

Mrs. R. C. Humiston was hostess to an interested group at her home Wednesday evening, who have in mind the formation of a Wesleyan Service Guild. This organization has its main objective missionary activities, and the membership is composed of business and professional women who, by the fact of their daily employment, are denied participation in similar organized church groups. The programs are usually in the form of dinner-meetings, and provide study, christian social contacts and recreation for its members. Mrs. Charles E. Allen, District Secretary, of Omaha, was present, and outlined the objectives.

Historical Society Has Fine Meeting

The Cass County Historical society met on Wednesday noon at the Rainey coffee shop in the Hotel Plattsmouth for their regular meeting, had a most interesting program on some of the work that the society is doing each day to preserve the historic spots, documents and history of the earlier days of Cass county.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. G. H. Gilmore of Murray, the president of the society, and the program of the meeting was conducted by Attorney A. L. Tidd, whose work has been untiring.

The subject of the meeting was that of the pioneer cemeteries in this part of Cass county, now in the midst of a restoration program after many years in which they were unknown in many cases, neglected in others. The society through the efforts of Dr. Gilmore and Mr. Tidd have restored a great deal of the Clemmons, Deem and Kanosha cemeteries along the Missouri river localities. The ultimate aim is to have the cemeteries restored, fenced and to be cared for in proper manner in the future years.

The society had a number of visitors and among these was E. B. Thomason, a member of the Clemmons family, residing in this locality, as well as Louis Mears of Nebraska City and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson of Herman, old residents of Cass county some forty years ago.

An interesting part of the meeting was the fact that Mr. Tidd learned that members of the Clemmons family had in early days been neighbors of the family of Elijah Tidd, the father of Mr. Tidd, in Pike county, Ohio, before coming to the west.

Attend Coronation of Ak-Sar-Ben Friday

Friday evening a number of the Plattsmouth residents were in Omaha where they were in attendance at the coronation ceremonies for King Ak-Sar-Ben LIV and his queen.

The ceremonies were most colorful as William D. Lane, Omaha, president of the Eggers-O'Flyng Co., was named as the king and Catherine Ann Coad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lawrence Coad, the queen.

Among the Plattsmouth people attending were Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar C. Soennichsen, whose daughter, Miss Mary Phyllis Soennichsen, was one of the countesses of the royal court, Mayor and Mrs. A. B. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Schneider.

The 55,000 colonies of honeybees in Utah during 1947 produced an estimated $545,000 worth of marketable honey and beeswax.

Former Resident Visits Old Home

Lloyd Gagen, for many years a resident of south of Plattsmouth, came in Monday to visit here with the relatives and old friends and while here learned of the sad news of the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Sam Gagen of Hyattville, Wyoming.

Mr. Gagen formerly resided on the farm south of Plattsmouth, now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Wiles, the former a nephew of Mr. Gagen. Twenty-nine years ago he left the Cass county farm to make his home in the west and is residing at Parks, Dundy county, Nebraska.

He is now 79 years of age and is alert and able to look after his business affairs as usual, although he has largely turned the operation of his farm over to a son, Oliver, who with the daughter, Willa, reside with the parents. Mr. Gagen departed for Omaha Tuesday where he will visit his sister, Mrs. George W. Snyder until after the funeral of Mrs. Sam Gagen.

Mrs. Mae S. Morgan of Omaha was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Westcott, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Westcott and daughter, Jane, of Lincoln also visited at Sunnyside on Sunday.
