A number of Plattsmouth people were at Nebraska City Thursday evening to attend one of the opening numbers of the course of concerts sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of that city.

Hallowe'en Party at the 40 & Eight

Friday evening the costume party given by the Forty and Eight Society to their members, Legionnaires and guests drew a very large crowd to enjoy the occasion.

The main club rooms, and the ball room had been decorated by the committee, of which W. R. Holly was chairman, with skeletons, witches, ghosts and pumpkins as reminders of the Hallowe'en season.

The music for the dance was furnished by Al Binder and his band of Omaha, a fine selection of popular and Bohemian dancing number that all enjoyed until a late hour.

The prizes of the evening were awarded to Erwin Siemers, Miss Naomi Day and Mrs. Lucile Terryberry.

Removing a ring of bark from a tree trunk will kill a tree because it interrupts the flow of digested materials downward to the roots. The roots then die of starvation.

... that women who felt they had been slighted by nature wore bustles. Maybe they're coming back but the old days never will return. Father would tug and tug to make mother's waist like Anna Held's, and then she'd equalize things by tying a little bundle on behind. Remember?
