Funeral of Fred Wagner Saturday

Graveside funeral services were held here Saturday afternoon for Fred Wagner, 75, former Plattsmouth business man, for some time the operator of the present Hotel Plattsmouth, at one time a candidate for mayor of the city.

The death of Mr. Wagner occurred on Thursday, November 4th at the hospital at Plainview, Nebraska, where he has been making his home for the past several months. Funeral services were held at the Ashburn mortuary at Plainview at 10:00 a. m. Rev. B. H. Hart officiating and at the close of the services the cortege came to Plattsmouth.

The services here at the grave were conducted by Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, with a number of the old friends being at the cemetery for the last rites. Pall bearers were W. C. Soennichsen, M. D. Brown, John Libershal, Frank Smith, Clarence Cotner, Paul Barker.

Obituary

Fred Wagner was born in Germany, November 15, 1873. He came to the United States with his parents at the age of two years, the family settling at Seattle, Washington, where he lived with his parents for twenty-three years. He took part in the gold rush of 1898-99 to Alaska and spent two years in the Yukon territory. After the stay in Alaska he returned to Seattle and lived there for the ensuing three years. He then worked in many different parts of the country at his trade of baker. He eventually came to Omaha, Nebraska, where he lived for five years. He finally settled in Plattsmouth in 1912 where he operated a bakery and restaurant for a number of years and later was the operator of the hotel here. Mr. Wagner was married on October 21, 1913 at Omaha to Miss Anna Kathryn Weidman, of Plattsmouth, a member of one of the old families of this community. After leaving this city Mr. and Mrs. Wagner resided at Lincoln for a great many years until they moved to Plainview in March, 1948, and resided there until his passing.
