Returns from Trip to the Southland

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Wynn have just returned from a very pleasant trip to Texas and Oklahoma where they found the most pleasant weather conditions and were greatly surprised on returning home to find that winter was coming to Nebraska.

They stopped at Blackwell, Oklahoma, where they were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Palmer. Dr. Palmer is a former resident of this city and since his graduation from the local school in 1905 has been living in the south and active in his practice. He has a very fine business at Blackwell and a very attractive home. Mr. and Mrs. Wynn enjoyed a most delightful visit here.

Later the Plattsmouth couple visited at San Antonio, Texas, the play-ground city of the southwest, they were guests while there of Mr. and Mrs. George Brinklow, the former, a cousin of Mr. Wynn. The stay at San Antonio gave them the opportunity of visiting all of the places of interest in that section including the historic Alamo, shrine of Texas liberty, and also they had many trips out in the country in that section of Texas.

Credit Women Hold Their Installation

The Plattsmouth Credit Women's Breakfast club held their installation of officers at their meeting at the Rainey coffee shop dining room this week.

The members of the party enjoyed a very fine dinner that had been arranged for their pleasure and at the close the officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. Pearl Busch, retiring president. The officers installed were:

President Mrs. Louis Ward Edenberger.
Vice-President—Ruth Patton.
Secretary—Mrs. R. R. Furse.
Treasurer—Miss Helen Eiting.

During the meeting the members of the club joined in the presentation to Mrs. F. P. Busch of a gift as a testimonial of her excellent work for the club in the past year.

The club is planning on holding their annual Christmas party on December 1st.

Georgia Girl to Wed Gerald Jones

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Salsbury Dunaway of Savannah, Georgia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Sue, to Midshipman Gerald Robert Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Clell Jones, of Auburn, Nebraska.

MARY SUE DUNAWAY

Miss Dunaway is the maternal granddaughter of Mrs. John Taylor Chapman and the late Judge Chapman of Savannah. She is a graduate of Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia.

Midshipman Jones attended the University of Nebraska until his appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., from which he will graduate in June.
The wedding will take place June third at the First Presbyterian church in Annapolis, Maryland, upon Midshipman Jones' graduation.

Omaha Parties Wedded Here

On Monday afternoon at 4:30 at the First Christian church was held the wedding of Miss Irma Maxine Taylor and Lloyd Charles Moravec, both of Omaha.

The wedding was quiet and very impressive, the marriage lines being read by Rev. Sherman R. Hanson, pastor of the church, the ceremony was witnessed by a few of the relatives and close friends of the young people. The bride wore a gown of royal purple, street length, and wore a shoulder corsage of orchids. The groom was attired in a conventional dark business suit.

The double ring service was used in the wedding of the young people.
The bridal couple were attended by Linford Dasher of this city, an uncle of the bride, and Mrs. Clyde Taylor of Omaha, mother of the bride.

After the wedding at the church the members of the party returned to Omaha where a wedding dinner had been arranged for them.

The family of the bride are former residents of Plattsmouth, but have in more recent years made their home in Omaha where Mr. and Mrs. Moravec are planning on making their home.

Find Travel Hard in the State

Friday Joseph Solomon and daughter, Miss Edith, returned home from a few days visit in the vicinity of Tryon, Nebraska, at the home of Mike David, a relative of Mrs. Solomon.
The Plattsmouth people found the trip out very pleasant but when on the way home they encountered a great deal of bad weather and had to fight the blizzard all the way from their starting point to Lincoln.

National Head of the VFW to Visit in State

Lyall T. Beggs, Madison, Wisconsin, Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, is scheduled to visit Nebraska on Thursday and Friday, December 2 and 3. It was announced this week by state commander L. J. Gaughen, North Bend.

The national VFW chief will first meet Cornhusker state veterans in Omaha on December 2, where a banquet has been slated for 6:30 p. m. at the Elks club at 18th & Dodge Streets.

VFW members from eastern Nebraska towns are urged by the state commander to attend. "We want as many as possible of our Nebraska vets to hear Commander Beggs," stated Gaughen. Tickets for the banquet may be secured by writing Kai Koch, 4228 Meredith Street, in Omaha. Price per ticket will be $1.75.

Scottsbluff has been selected as the second banquet site for veterans in western Nebraska. It will be held Friday, December 3, at 8:00 p. m., at the VFW club on the Scottsbluff Gering highway. Beggs will address various civic groups during the day, in addition to the evening banquet. Reservations may be secured by contacting Emil Savage, 424 W. 14th Street, Scottsbluff, and the price will be $1.00 per ticket.

Among the issues to be discussed by Beggs are the VFW activities for veterans' housing the stand of the VFW calling for military aid to western Europe, and the picture of veterans benefits in the United States. He will also outline the "Veterans' RFC" which is being sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

On Saturday, the VFW chief will journey to Cheyenne, Wyoming, where he will speak at a luncheon in his honor.

"Modern Miss" 4-H Clothing Club

The "Modern Miss Clothing Club" reorganized December 8, 1947 at the Annual 4-H Christmas party with a membership of ten-five in Winter Wardrobe, two in Summer Wardrobe and four enrolled in So and Sewers. The officers have been: President, Donna Jean Embury; Vice President, Shirley Bickett; Secretary, Ruth Wolph; News Reporter, Marjorie Whipple; Games, Norma Sue Ashcraft; Song Leader, Marilyn Whipple; Roll Call and Conservation, Margaret Ann Knabe; Helpful Hints, Patsy Mather; Cheer Leader, Barbara Ford; 4-H News, Francine Jones and Citizenship, Ruth Wolph.

Combined meetings were held at the Sand, Wilson, Bickett, Wolph and Knabe homes. Other meeting places were The Nehawka Library, Nehawka School and The Methodist church.
At the Knabe home Miss Wintermote and Miss Schultz assisted the girls in judging. The 4 luncheon at the Wolph home is an annual affair when the girls assist with the meal and have their mothers, sisters and Home agent as guests. Miss Wolph conducted an inspirational installation service using candles and flowers. Miss Wintermote gave helpful and valuable information using the clothing kits.

The 4-H Community Night, when Alice Wolph told of her Washington trip, achievement, the 4-H Christmas party, the Shrine circus, tour and picnic at Nebraska City, 4-H Sunday, the County and State Fairs and the Korn Carnival have been most interesting and worthwhile. The County Style Revue was of special interest.

A box of Christmas gifts was sent to the Orthopedic hospital, $5 given for the Mrs. L. I. Frisbie Scholarship Fund and an exhibit in Sheldon's Store window observed 4-H club week.
Miss Schiefert, Nehawka Home Economics Instructor gave a most interesting and instructive, illustrated talk on "History of Clothing". She closed with an educational flip.

Demonstration Day at Weeping Water and Judging School at Lincoln were attended. Interesting Group discussions were: "A Good 4-H Club", "What 4-H Gives to the Community" and "What Our Community Has Given to 4-H".

The ribbons received are: Achievement, 9 blue, 6 red; county fair, 12 blue, 10 red;

BIRTHS

Son
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ballinger, a son, Monday, November 15th, weight seven pounds, twelve ounces, at the family home, 14th st. and Second avenue. The babe has been named Ronald Eugene.

State Fair, 3 blue, 1 purple; Korn Carnival, 13 blue, 7 red, 3 white.

The Modern Miss club members wish to thank all those who have helped in any way to promote 4-H.

The cooperation of the community has encouraged us and enabled us to complete the year's work. "To make the best better" has been ever before us and we realize more fully, the true value of this splendid organization.

YOUNG SAILOR VISITS HERE

John Chamberlain, former Plattsmouth young man, was here the past week to visit with the relatives and former school friends in this section of the county. John is a member of the United States navy and is enroute for the naval base of Guam, expecting to leave for the island about November 27th.
The young sailor greatly enjoyed the visit here and meeting the old friends. John was for some time an employe of the Journal before enlisting in the navy.

Here from Kansas for Thanksgiving

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Busch and children, Mary Virginia and Archena Pearl, of Chanute, Kansas, are here for a visit over the Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Busch and George Busch, the father of Donald. While here they enjoyed a visit with the many old time friends and associates.

VISIT AT LINCOLN

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wescott are at Lincoln for the Thanksgiving holiday, where they are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Wescott.

A recent survey found that 63 per cent of all co-operative frozen food lockers were in the north central states.
