Friday was the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Alvira Harrison and Miss Kate Seidenstriker, who are making their residence at the Neighborhood Convalescent Home on North Eighth street. To remind them of the anniversaries the members of the United Adult Bible class of the First Methodist church of which the ladies had been members for a number of years called on them in the afternoon.

The time was spent in visiting with the guests of honor and recalling many of the incidents of the past years when they were active in the church affairs.

The members of the party presented each of the ladies with a gift from the class while the individual members brought personal remembrances to the old friends.

Refreshments were served at the homegoing hour to the members of the party.

Otto Sochor, of Los Angeles, California, who has been visiting here with his mother, Mrs. James Sochor, as well as a number of the old friends, returned Thursday to his home on the west coast.

VISITS WITH MOTHER

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nearhood and son, Donald Michael, of Grand Island, were here a few days the past week visiting at the home of Mrs. Anna Nearhood, mother of Don. The visitors were compelled to return home by the threat of bad weather.
