

Weeping Water

Mrs. Thomas Marley

Miss Eileen Fitzpatrick spent the Christmas week end with her father, Clyde Fitzpatrick. Miss Fitzpatrick is employed in the drapery department at Miller at Paine's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Sudduth of Plattsmouth, spent Friday night at the Dan Sudduth home.

S. Ray Smith, accompanied by George Wiles, spent Tuesday at his farm, near Plattsmouth, and called on friends in Plattsmouth, also, while there.

It is with sincere regret that we say that the S. Ray Smiths have moved to Hartington, Nebraska, where Mr. Smith and his son, Milfred, bought an undertaking establishment, and where both families will make their home. This has been a busy week socially for Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Tuesday evening, Mrs. Henry Snell entertained Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rauth at an oyster stew, and an evening of visiting, Wednesday at noon, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wiles entertained Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Dave Patterson and Mrs. George Domingo, at a luncheon at their home, Thursday noon they were guests at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. George Domingo, and Thursday afternoon, the South Side Pinochle Club had a farewell party honoring Mrs. Smith at the home of Mrs. R. O. Baker, with Mrs. Irving Patterson, Mrs. Harold Thomas and her house guest, Miss Darlene Dasher, of Omaha, as invited guests. Mrs. Smith was presented with a going-away gift, and she afternoon was spent reminiscing and visiting, Mrs. R. O. Baker, the hostess, and Mrs. Smith were the only original members Honoring the thirty-sixth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Michelson, Sr., there was a gathering of relatives at the home of their son, E. A. Michelson, Jr., Thursday evening, when those present to enjoy the occasion were Mrs. Michelson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Hislop, and their daughter, Joyce, of Portland, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Russell VanEvery of Ogallala; and the bride and groom of thirty-six years ago.

Donald Cohen and Michael Cohen, young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cohen, were quite ill with the flu last week. Donald was very ill for one day, but both are well on the road to recovery, again.

The DeForest Browns spent Christmas in Council Bluffs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ankerson, and with Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Carl Ankerson.

Gerald Hansen, who is a student at the Chicago School of Electronics, spent his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Hansen, Thursday evening. Lyman Rehmeier entertained at a party in his honor, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rehmeier, with fifty guests present to enjoy the evening of holiday fun. Gerald left Monday on his return to Chicago.

With their two children at home for the holiday season, the Thorwald Hansen home has been a busy place. Sunday, the family had dinner at the home of Mrs. Hansen's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fosburg, and Sunday evening, at the home of Mr. Hansen's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hansen, at Bellevue. Monday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fosburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fosburg, all of South Bend, were at a dinner at the Thorwald Hansen home.

The many friends of Mrs. Besie Lyman Lindberg were shocked to hear of her death, December 13, at Rochester, Minn., where she had gone for treatment.

Mrs. Theodore Davis returned home Monday, after having spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humphrey, at Auburn. Mrs. Davis went to Auburn Friday, and enjoyed visits with many old friends, while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Elgaard entertained their family at a Christmas Eve dinner, when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Elgaard and family, of Maryville, Missouri, and Mrs. Don Philpot, Jack, Jr. and Virginia.

The Danish people of the Weeping Water community held a belated Christmas party, Thursday evening at the Odd Fellows hall, when a covered dish dinner was served around which there was singing around the Christmas tree, and a fish pond and a grab bag for the children. These caused much fun for the younger members of the group. About one hundred were present to enjoy the evening together.

Butter-nut BREAD'S GOOD IDEAS

KITCHEN TRICK

MAKE PECAN PIE without pecans by substituting an equal amount of coarsely crushed cornflakes for the pecans called for in the recipe. Add 1/2 teaspoon almond extract.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

REMEMBER THE important days! Hang a calendar on the inside of your clothes closet door with birthdays and anniversaries circled in red pencil.

RECIPE

SCRAMBLED EGGS RANCHERO
4 slices bacon 1/2 tsp. salt
2 onions 1/2 tsp. pepper
4-6 eggs 1 Tbsp. butter
4-6 Tbsp. milk
Toast

Dice bacon and cook crisp. Slice onions, saute in bacon fat. Beat eggs slightly, add bacon, onion, milk (1 Tbsp. per egg) and seasonings. Cook in butter to consistency desired. Serve with buttered toast strips.

GOOD START

A BREAKFAST with enriched Butter-nut toast. Butter-nut is an important source of quick food energy—helps you keep going in high all day. Butter-nut Bread is downright delicious, too!
