OUR 20th Anniversary OF BUTTERMAKING

The Plattsmouth Creamery Has Produced Approximately 3,500,000 Pounds of 'CASCO' BUTTER

Cass County and surrounding territory have consumed a large amount of CASCO BUTTER and the balance has gone to many parts of the United States for consumption.

The following is a news story taken from the January 7, 1929 issue of The Plattsmouth Journal.

Cass County Creamery Butter Given Governor

Ceremony Staged in Legislative Hall as well as Executive Offices of the New Governor.

Monday, January 7, 1929

From Friday's daily: The first pound of butter that was produced at the new creamery in this city by the Cass County Co-operative Creamery Co., now decorates the table of the native born governor of Nebraska, Arthur J. Weaver, the butter being presented to him yesterday at Lincoln as he took over the office as the state's chief executive officer.

The butter had been arranged in a package of gold paper tied with a wide purple ribbon and the exterior of the package looked as attractive as the contents proved to be, and on the package appeared the artistic card prepared by Miss Marie Kaufmann and which bore the wording, "This pound of butter, worth $500, Presented to Hon. A. J. Weaver, by the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce, on His Inauguration as Governor, January 3, 1929."

The first presentation of the butter for the benefit of the news and newspaper photographers was held in the hall of the house of representatives just before the opening of the message of Governor McMullen and while the lights were placed on the new state executive he advanced and received the butter from C. C. Wescott, President of the Chamber of Commerce.

Later a still picture was taken of the event in the office of the governor and at which there was present Mr. Wescott, E. H. Spangler, treasurer of the creamery company, Senator W. B. Banning of the second district, Representative Troy L. Davis of Cass County, H. A. Schneider, L. R. Snipes, J. M. Teegarden, George Jackson, secretary of the Nebraska State fair, Dean Burr of the college of agriculture of the University of Nebraska, W. P. Davis of the state college and the speaker here at the creamery opening, and Jean Spangler, local boy and one of the outstanding students at the Nebraska state agricultural college.

The Cass County Co-operative Creamery is known as The Plattsmouth Creamery, producers of Casco Butter, Buyers of Cream, Eggs and Poultry.
