

JUST
DIAL
230

Weather Like This Is Rough On Your Clothes

Snowy days . . . smoky days . . . sloppy under foot . . . weather like this is rough on clothes. Remember that dirt and grime chews up the strongest fabrics. Frequent dry cleaning not only makes your clothes last longer, but makes you look better and feel better, too. You get the best in dry cleaning at the lowest prices when you send your work here.

— GOOD CLEANING COSTS NO MORE! — LUGSCH CLEANERS

429 Main Street.

. . . Free Pick-Up and Delivery Service . . .

Phone 230

THE PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA, SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL
PAGE FOUR
Monday, January 31, 1949

Louisville

Mrs. Bessie Core
Sheriff Solomon stopped here a few minutes Friday. He was going to Weeping Water to investigate the breaking of some windows.
Willard McShane, of Lincoln, spent the week end at home. He is working in the Bill Room at the state capitol, while the legislature is in session.
Frank Dall was in Louisville on Saturday. Frank was former-

Cass county surveyor and resigned last fall to resume his studies at the University of Nebraska.

Rev. Melvin H. Meyer was in Kansas last week and while there went to St. Joseph, Mo. on business in connection with the new stained glass window to be put in the Immanuel Lutheran church, of which he is pastor.

Robert Stander was attending to business in Omaha on Tuesday.

Louis Lau was confined to his bed by illness early this week. Willard McShane came from Lincoln on Saturday to spend the night and Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McShane.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Blair returned home Sunday from their six weeks winter vacation which took them into Florida.

Fred Schoeman, of Compton, Calif., writes they have been having snow and cold weather.

Miss Betty Salberg was an Omaha visitor Tuesday.
Mrs. Ernest Kreider has returned home after three weeks spent in an Omaha hospital.

Saturday night the power company had trouble caused by freezing rain. It was reported to be the worst in 35 years. But no trouble was reported in our city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Reichart who had their farm sale last week are moving to Louisville, where they will live in the Schlater property temporarily.

The American Legion will hold an open meeting on its next meeting night, February 17th at the Legion hall. Every member is asked to bring some friend, a non-member to come with him. Dept. Adjutant Patterson and State Service Officer Elmer Webb of Lincoln have promised to be here for this important meeting.

Fred Huff entered the Veterans hospital at Lincoln last week for treatment of his hand.

Mrs. Wayne Gess was reported ill for a few days this week.

Dave Zier's little daughter had the misfortune to fall down stairs last Saturday with a pencil in her mouth. The pencil punctured the roof of her mouth and was very painful. She was attended by Dr. H. W. Worthman and is reported to be improving.

Floyd Eastridge was in Omaha on business Monday.

Mrs. Emil Hier and Mrs. Jack Matthews were shopping in Omaha last Friday.

Mrs. J. R. Mayfield suffered a broken wrist when she fell on the ice at her home southeast of town last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gess have purchased the "Dew Drop Inn Cafe" from Mr. and Mrs. Chester Proctor. Mr. and Mrs. Gess are not new to the cafe patrons here as they worked on the night shift at Fritz's cafe several months ago.

Mrs. Bertha Kelly and son, John, of Omaha, were weekend guests at the Ed Stander home. On Sunday they went to the home of Mrs. Francis O'Brien.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Searles, of Beaver Creek, South Dakota, came Friday for a week's visit with Mrs. Searles parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Van Overbeck. Mr. Searles will farm his father's place in South Dakota.

A party was held at the Parish hall in Manly, Friday evening of last week. $71.00 was raised for the polo fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Lando Baker, of Cedar Creek are the parents of a daughter, born at an Omaha hospital, Friday, January 21.

Louisville schools were closed three days last week on account of the snow storm.

Joan Franke, of Cedar Creek, and Jesse Sell, Jr., were home from Lincoln to spend the week end.

Henry Schoeman is up and around the house again following his recent illness of more than a week.

Mrs. Ted Stratton was unable to make the drive out to the Dutch academy school Monday due to bad roads.

Mrs. Nessen has received acknowledgement of the recent donation of $12.00 made by the Rebekah lodge here to the cancer fund.

The Lyman-Richey company has been having some of their men take out an old dragline, which they left here when moving down the river several years ago.

Joe Zastera, Jr., and Miss Ann Inman, students at Lincoln, visited over the week end with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hauschildt and Mr. and Mrs. Jule Bourelle drove to Millard, Saturday evening to attend a dance. When they started home they found the brick pavement so icy they went back to Millard and came home on the gravel road.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gauer were among those who helped Elmer Hennings celebrate his birthday at his home in Avoca on Friday evening.

Due to the storm and bad roads the games party that is held every Wednesday at the Legion hall was postponed until February 2.

Mrs. Harold Ahl returned last week from the Clarkson hospital in Omaha, where she underwent surgery. She is recovering very nicely.

"Lucy" Heil, who was burned in an explosion about two weeks ago at his garage is improving.

Avoca

Mrs. Henry Maseman
Journal Correspondent

Mrs. Ruby Drury announces the marriage of her daughter, Emma, to James Hawk of Independence, Missouri, on Saturday, January 15. Mrs. Hawk is a graduate of the Avoca high school and recently has been employed at Independence. Mr. Hawk works for the Power Co. of Independence where the couple will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gunn announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois, to Raymond Wellman, son of Fred Wellman of Syracuse. There has been no date set for the wedding.

School was dismissed Friday on account of drifting snow.

Miss Lorena Stubbendich has returned from the hospital and hopes to be able to teach soon.

Ladies Aid met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Fred Marquardt with Mrs. Caroline Marquardt assisting. In spite of the snow there was a good crowd. Mrs. Wm. Berger led devotions. Mrs. Berger reported she would buy a picture with money sent them for flowers for her brother's funeral.

W. M. Kicker, truck mail carrier, was able to get to Avoca Thursday evening, but slipped into the ditch between Avoca and Otoe.

Merle Tressler worked most of the night with the town drag trying to keep the roads open Thursday evening.

A night course in "Institutional on the Farm Training" in agriculture is to be offered at Avoca high school starting next Tuesday evening. Clair W. Wulber, Supt., announced. The instructor will be Dwight Baier, who has been added to the faculty. The class is to meet every Tuesday and Thursday evening at 8 o'clock for three hour sessions. Lewis Klein, State Supervisor of Agriculture education, will attend the opening session to discuss the program and help start it. Veterans who are interested and who still have eligibility left for training under the "GI Bill of Rights" may obtain information or enroll through Mr. Wilber.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Neumeister moved last Saturday to the Straub property which was vacated by the Cooper family east of Avoca.

Mr. and Mrs. William Peters observed their 66th wedding anniversary Monday at their home northeast of town.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wolff returned Sunday evening from Excelsior Springs, Missouri.

Larry Olewine is spending several days this week at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gollner, Northern Natural Gas Co., unloaded 55 cars of 24-inch gas pipe here recently to be used in building a loop line between Palmyra and Plattsmouth.

Cass County Extension Notes

4-H Leaders Banquet
February 10—Elmwood

Highlights of the 1949 4-H banquet to be held at Elmwood, February 10, include the County 4-H Public Speaking contest, a talk by a capable speaker from the State Game, Forestry and Parks Commission, (either Mr. Roy Owen or Mr. Paul Gilbert), an inspirational talk by Mrs. Dorothea Holstein, Assistant State 4-H leader, and musical numbers.

This is the first outstanding program on the 4-H calendar in 1949. It promises to be an event 4-H leaders and committee members will enjoy and appreciate.

Weed District Meeting Postponed

The annual meeting of the Cass Noxious Weed District, scheduled for Friday, January 28th, was postponed because of the snow storm. The new date for the meeting has not been set, but will be announced.

Clarence Schmadeke,
County Agricultural Agt.

John Chamberlain
Writes From Guam

John Chamberlain, former Journal employee and now a member of the U. S. Navy, writes that he has finally arrived at his new home for the next two years. He is now located at a transmitter station at Barragoda, Guam.

John states that it is a small station up in the mountains, an isolated spot but a good base. The climate, he reports, is swell, although they have quite a lot of rain. He adds, "If you like coconuts, join the navy and come to Guam. It sure seems funny to look up and see nothing but coconuts around you."

Walter H. Harold R.
Smith & Lebens
Attorneys-at-Law
Donat Bldg. - Plattsmouth

Real Estate
LOANS!

4 1/2 Percent Interest
Charge Reduced
for each monthly payment.

Plattsmouth Loan
& Building Ass'n.

Buy the Best - Get . . .
SEALTEST ICE CREAM

Flavors of the Month:
TOASTED BUTTER PECAN, BUTTER BRICKLE,
PEPPERMINT STICK, FUDGE ROYAL,
STRAWBERRY, VANILLA.

Strawberry and Raspberry Tarts . . . 15c
Shmoo Kow Ice Cream Bars . . . 10c

SCHREINER DRUG

ATTENTION ALL FARMERS!

You and your family are invited to our

Big JOHN DEERE DAY

Everything's Free

See
The Sugar
Plum Tree

starring

BILLIE BURKE
DON WILSON

with
LEE
'LASSES'
WHITE

plus

SEVERAL INTERESTING
AND EDUCATIONAL
PICTURES ON JOHN DEERE EQUIPMENT AND
MODERN FARMING
PRACTICES

ADMISSION BY TICKET ONLY

If you don't have tickets or need more, ask us for them

AT V. F. W. HALL—1:00 p. m.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1949

Stander Implement

JOHN DEERE FARM MACHINERY . . . G. E. APPLIANCES
Phone 4178 Plattsmouth

ONLY Hinky-Dinky Offers E. V. T. MEATS

E. V. T. (Extra Value Trim) Offers Maximum Value!

HERE'S WHAT E. V. T. MEANS

When You Buy a

SIRLOIN STEAK

This Sirloin Steak
Regular Trim
1 lb. 1 oz. would cost 74c
E. V. T. Trim
14 oz. Cost 61c
Your Savings
3 oz. Waste 13c

The illustration shows how Hinky-Dinky's E. V. T., Extra Value Trim, saves you money when you buy a Sirloin Steak. When you compare meat prices, remember that Hinky-Dinky prices are ALWAYS on E. V. T., Extra Value Trim, meats. You save what you ordinarily would pay for waste and inedible fat and bone. Shop at Hinky-Dinky for maximum savings.

Hinky-Dinky
GUARANTEE

Remember, every cut of meat purchased by you at Hinky-Dinky must satisfy you, or your money will be cheerfully refunded. You are the only judge.

Hinky-Dinky's E. V. T. (Extra Value Trim)

U. S. Grade Good Corn-Fed Beef

SIRLOIN STEAK . . . lb. 69c

E. V. T. MEANS EXTRA VALUE TRIM!
Hinky-Dinky Meats are Trimmed Before Weighing

YOU SAVE THE DIFFERENCE

HINKY-DINKY