Mrs. Henry Maseman
Journal Correspondent

Fred Gullner of Chicago has been visiting his parents this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rudge visited her mother, Mrs. Place Sunday evening.

Neighbors came with well filled baskets to the home of

Mr. and Mrs. John Berner, Sr. and Pauline for a farewell. They will soon move to their new home in Otoe.

A very nice crowd attended the belated polo auction sale Saturday evening. A nice sum was received from cakes, coffee and lunch served several weeks ago but the night was so bad the auction was postponed until last Saturday.

The Sunday Evening Supper club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Norris in Weeping Water.

A shower was held Tuesday for Mrs. James Hawk, the former Emma Drury in the church parlors. The bride received many very nice gifts. The Valentine cards were carried out in the buffet lunch. The table was covered with a white cloth on which red hearts were pinned. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Edward Nelson and Mrs. Lester Heebner, consisting of jello, angel food cake, assorted cookies and red nut baskets with white cupid and arrows and

This was one of the newest buildings of Plattsmouth in the early nineties when Mr. Soennichsen was starting on his long business career. It was built for the Anheuser-Busch Co. of St. Louis, Missouri, and when first opened was in charge of J. J. McVey with Budweiser, later this being occupied by Philip Thierolf for many years. Later the Budweiser was operated by J. E. McDaniel. It is now the headquarters of A. B. Rogers, mayor of the city.

Values Up Sharp on Short Supply Monday at Omaha

Livestock values rocketed sharply higher on abnormally tight supply Monday at Omaha. The turn to shorter runs began the previous Tuesday and through the rest of the week brought about mild price recovery but Monday's runs, not only at Omaha but the country over, were down by more than half, cattle supply at 12 markets down from 91 to 26 thousand. Price reaction was similarly drastic. Slaughter steers, yearlings and heifers Monday at Omaha sold $1.00 to $2.00 higher, numerous sales as much as $3.00 over the previous Monday, some heifers up $4.00. Steers and heifers Monday sold at $18.00 to $24.00, quotable steer top around $26.00. Cows were 50c-1.00 or more up, canners and cutters $13.00-$15.00, beef cows to $17.00. Bologna bulls sold to $18.50, beef to $19.00. Vealers held at $20.00-$30.00. Stockers and feeders were $1.00 and more up at $18.00-$23.00. There were steer calves to $23.00 and stock cows at $15.25. Hogs were $1.00-$1.25 higher, butchers $18.75-$21.00, sows $16.50-$17.00. Fat lambs gained 25-50c, clearing bulk at $23.00-$23.50, two loads $23.75. Slaughter ewes were up 25c, pulp-foes $11.75-$12.25, common to medium, $9.50-$11.00. Feeder lambs were 10c scarce for a test of trade but quotable to $23.00 or better, among recent sales at Omaha for shippers from this area.

Guy H. Wiles, 1 steer, wt. 1100, $20.00; 2 heifers, wt. $70, $18.00; 1 bull, wt. $80, $17.00; 2 cows, wt. $35, $15.00.
C. C. Cross, 23 hogs, wt. 306, $17.00.
Dick Livingston, 9 heifers, wt. 718, $22.00; 1 steer, wt. 780, $20.00; 30 hogs, wt. 238, $20.75.
Tritsch & Meisinger, 32 steers, wt. 1221, $18.75.
John F. Krivodlavak, 21 hogs, wt. 226, $19.00 (Feb. 3 top).
Leo Thimgan, 8 hogs, wt. 310, $18.50; 1 sow, wt. 535, $14.00.
Howard Philpot, 31 hogs, wt. 272, $17.75.

Monkey Across the Sea

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (UP)—A monkey has been flown from here to England. It was sent by plane as a gift from the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, a teachers' organization, to Littleover County school in Derby, England. Miss Olive Smith, an instructor there, is an exchange teacher from a Springfield school.

The Boston Massacre occurred in 1770 when British soldiers fired on a mob that was snowballing them on King (now State) Street, Boston.

Frank Woolworth developed the idea for his stores at Watertown, N. Y., from a "five-cent" table in the store at Moore & Smith, during country fair week.

THE year 1948 was an excellent one for the handsome Gordon MacRae, ABC singer... He landed a good radio show, made his screen debut and cut some good records—Capitol ones, in more ways than one...

G. MacRae

Keep your eye on this fellow in 49—he has a bright future... Una Merkel, the "Adeline Pardo" of NBC's "Great Gildersleeve," hopes to get time off from her radio schedule to visit relatives in Atlanta, Ga.
Lionel Barrymore, that formidable, shaggy-browed gentleman, who has for over 30 years been a part of theater tradition, will once again be heard in one of his finest roles, that of the mayor in "Mayor of the Town" which will make its debut on the Mutual network on January 2... Ever since the show first hit the airwaves over four years ago, it has proved a must on the listening schedule of people who sit on the receiving end of the loudspeaker... Together with Agnes Moorhead, who plays "Marilyn," and young Conrad Binyon, who portrays "Bitch," the mayor will be on hand next week to welcome you back to his town.

PLATTER CHATTER

CAPITOL: A fine new album released for children is Walt Disney's latest screen effort, "So Dear to My Heart," with the original film cast... Featuring lovable Bobby Driscoll, this should be a great favorite with the young set... Dean Jagger has cut his first serious record and it's a honey... One side has the new and already popular "Tarra Tarra Tarra" which he does in a slow mood with "Once in Love With Amy" on the flip side.

VICTOR: Beep fans are going to welcome a new album featuring the jump music of Dizzy Gillespie, Kenny Clarke and Coleman Hawkins... Most of the music is original and it's done in furious fashion... Vaughn Monroe has a new album out that by far surpasses anything he has ever done on wax... Some favorite songs of yesteryear, such as "Begin the Beguine," "Without a Song," "Because" and "Whiffenpoof Song," are interpreted by the baritone in his rich and pleasing voice.
