George M. Spurlock Retires from Bank

George M. Spurlock, former Plattsmouth resident, has formally retired from his position as a director of the First National bank of York, Nebraska as well as from his active work as a member of the bar in that city.

Mr. Spurlock was born in Plattsmouth where his family had been among the pioneer residents. He graduated from the DuPauw university in 1892 and then returned to Plattsmouth where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burwell Spurlock were residing, and started in the practice of law. He was elected as county judge of Cass county in 1895 and held that office until 1905 when he moved to York to resume his practice of law, the parents having moved to that city to take over the management of the Mothers Jewels Home, sponsored by the Methodist church. He served as county attorney of York county and attorney of the city of York, building up a large practice in that part of the state especially in probate matters in which he was a master.

Mr. Spurlock was honored at a banquet at the Hotel McCloud at York on January 13th. Other guests of the party, arranged by the officials and directors of the First National bank, were Mrs. Spurlock and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Spurlock.

Funeral of Aged Man Wednesday

Wednesday afternoon funeral services were held at the Caldwell funeral chapel on North 7th street for Mark Twain Thompkins, aged resident here, who died suddenly on Sunday at his home on Washington avenue.

Dr. H. G. McClusky of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the services for the departed.

A number of the old friends and neighbors were present for the last rites.

The burial was at the Oakwood cemetery at Weeping Water.

Kenneth Schmitt in the Snow Fields

Kenneth Schmitt of this city, a member of the local staff of the U. S. Engineers, is among the engineering force that have been sent into the north and west portions of the state to help get the highways open for travel and opening up the homes isolated by the heavy snow.

An Appreciation for Their Support

We wish to express to the people of Plattsmouth and Cass county, the appreciation felt for their splendid support, funds and personal activities during the campaign of the March of Dimes. Their efforts will result in many unfortunates being aided in their great struggle against the dread infantile paralysis. Their aid will long be remembered.

Henry J. Donat, Chairman for Plattsmouth.

URGENT FIREMAN SUPPORT

The members of the Plattsmouth fire department are urging all friends to support the activities of the Murray department by patronizing the bake sale sponsored here for Saturday, February 12th.

Street railway mail cars were used in some cities for several years, but were supplanted by trucks after automotive vehicles became practical.
