Plattsmouth Credit Breakfast Club

The Plattsmouth Credit Woman's Breakfast club held their meeting on Tuesday evening at the main dining room of the Rainey Coffee shop with a very pleasing number of the members in attendance.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Louis Ward Egenberger, the club president, with Mrs. F. P. Busch in charge of the program of the evening. The lesson was "Accepting and Declining Applications," a part of the study of handling credit applications.

One special feature of the evening was the special treat that was afforded the members by Mrs. Egenberger and Mollie Gobelman as a part of the delightful dinner.

Students Show Excellent Work

The windows at the St. John's hall has a very interesting showing of the work of the young students at the St. John's parochial school. The work is along the lines of vocational training with wood, leather and other materials made into handsome and attractive articles. The exhibit is a fine showing for the young people and their instructors.

Local Young Men Visit Training Camps

A group of Plattsmouth young men, comprising Charles E. Ault, Bernard Jackson, William Gochenour, Merle Shyrook and Sgt. John Howe, of Offutt Field, returned this week from a few days visit in Florida enjoying a lookin on several of the big league baseball teams at their spring training.

They made the trip by plane, leaving Offutt Field on Saturday and reaching their destination, Tampa, Florida, the same day.

The group were delighted to find fine summer like atmosphere prevailing at Tampa and all through that section of Florida.

The boys journeyed to St. Petersburg, where the New York Yankees, St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Reds and the Omaha Cardinals are in training at this time. "Chuck," who is an ardent baseball fan, had the pleasure of seeing all of the big name stars of St. Louis and the Yankees in action and showing a taste of what may be expected later in the season.

The group returned by plane Tuesday from the southland.

Golden Wedding at Masonic Home on Friday

Friday the infirmary building of the Nebraska Masonic home in this city was the scene of a very pleasant observance of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lute M. Savage who have recently come to the Home to reside.

Mr. Savage is one of the well known figures in Nebraska Masonry, serving for a great many years as the grand custodian of the Nebraska grand lodge of the A. F. & A. M. of Nebraska until his retirement due to ill health and since that time with Mrs. Savage they have made their home in this city.

The observance was held in the large and attractive ladies living room of the infirmary where the settings had been most charmingly arranged.

The serving table was attractively arranged with a large lace table cloth made in Canada, centered with the three tiered wedding cake that was decorated with pink rosebuds and gold leaf. White candles were also used on the tables, these being tied with gold ribbon and yellow jonquils also carried out the golden wedding theme.

Mrs. Lenora Cook cut and served the cake while Mrs. Ralston, daughter of the honorees, assisted by Mrs. W. F. Evers, served the ice cream arranged in small cups that had on them the 50 wedding anniversary theme. Tinted wafers and mints were also used in the refreshments.

A short program was enjoyed that comprised a talk by Dr. Thomas Nevin of Omaha, former pastor of Mr. and Mrs. Savage. Raymond C. Cook delighted the members of the group with three appropriate songs, "Because," "At Dawning" and "Love's Old Sweet Song," while members of the party joined in the group singing of "Put On Your Old Gray Bonnet" and "When You and I Were Young Maggie." Mrs. Roy O. Cole served as the accompanist for the program.

Union Meeting of Youth Group

At the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening at 5:30, there will be a union meeting of the youth groups from the Methodist, the Evangelical and the Christian churches with the Presbyterian group. A luncheon supper will be served, after which a devotion of singing of songs. There will be a special treat in the presence of the Rev. Charles Tyler, pastor of the Hillside Presbyterian church of Omaha; which is a Negro congregation. Rev. Mr. Tyler is one of the popular leaders of the Summer conference for young people at Blair and he will bring some of his young people with him. A large attendance is expected.

St. Louis was founded by Pierre Laclède Liguist and Auguste Chouteau as a fur trade post.

Eagle Auxiliary Installed Here on Sunday

Sunday afternoon, March 6, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles was instituted in this city with 66 of the 73 charter members being initiated into the order. The local group will be the auxiliary of Aerie No. 365 of this city and start under the most auspicious circumstances.

The charter for the auxiliary was delivered by Lowell L. Burritt of Akron, Iowa, deputy of the national organization.

The initiation of the members and the starting of the body was in charge of the officers and drill team of the auxiliary of North Omaha Aerie No. 38 who put on the work in a wonderful manner.

The officers selected by the local body for the ensuing year were as follows:
Madam Past President, Mrs. Ella Thun.
Madam President, Mrs. Dorothy Janacek.
Madam Chaplain, Mrs. Esther Donat.
Madam Secretary, Alice Gradoville.
Madam Treasurer, Mrs. Betty Gerbeling.
Madam Conductor, Mrs. Irene Smith.
Madam Inside Guard, Mrs. Martha Williams.
Madam Outer Guard, Mrs. Hazel Fitch.

Trustees, Mrs. Hulda O'Donnell, Mrs. Pearl Beins, Mrs. Ruby Gochenour.

Following the degree work of the afternoon the members of the Auxiliary had a most delightful treat afforded them as the members of the Eagles had prepared and served a wonderful luncheon that all enjoyed very much.

The evening closed with a dancing party and the new fraternal group was launched in most pleasant settings for a long and successful career.

Young People in Day of Prayer

Young people of the Plattsmouth Council of Churches held their World Day of Prayer service Sunday evening at 5:30 at the St. Paul's Evangelical church.

The theme was "The Lord Is Thy Keeper."
Miller Hurst of the Methodist church served very efficiently as leader. Richard Sack of the Christian church led in prayer.

The hymns were led by young people from the Evangelical Methodist and Presbyterian churches under the leadership of Miss Mary Kramer. Clementine Woster served as accompanist for the service and also for Elizabeth Painter, who sang "My Task."

The radio broadcast, "World Day of Prayer on the Air" described some of the work being done by the Home Missions council in our own land, and that of the Foreign Missions conference in India and China. This part of the service was presented by the young people of the Christian church directed by Miss Audrey Dow. The announcer was Charles Sack. Other participants were Raymond Hitt, Barbara Myers, Richard Sack, Nelson Hovel, Cora Lee Hitt, Barbara Potts, and Bonnie Myers.

There was a very attentive audience representing each of the churches. The offering of $7.00 was added to that of the other services to be used for work overseas and at home.

Woman's Club Meets at Heinrich Home on Monday

The Plattsmouth Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. W. L. Heinrich on West Main, Monday evening, with a very large number in attendance.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Sophia Wolever. Mrs. Glen McClure led in the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Mrs. Etta Gorder bought the spiritual message for the devotional period. Chief items of business transacted by the club was election of delegates to attend the State Meeting of the N.F.W.C. at Norfolk, on March 24th and 25th. Mrs. Wolever will represent the local group as first delegate with the vice-president, Mrs. Christie Hickey her alternate, and Mrs. Philip Rihni was elected second delegate with Mrs. Alpha Mauzy as her alternate.

The members also voted $5.00 as a gift to the local Red Cross drive which will begin soon.

The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Louis Hansen and will be election of officers. Mrs. Glen McClure, Mrs. Fred Feldhausen and Mrs. Harry Walters were named as a nominating committee to present names for next year's officers for the club's election.

Mollie Gobelman was program leader. This was the club's Lenten meeting, and in keeping with this theme, Mrs. Gobelman introduced Rev. E. C. Williams, pastor of the Methodist church, who spoke on "The Bible." He gave a very fine history of the origin and meaning of "The Bible," speaking of it not as a "book" but rather as a life story, one that is applicable even to the confusion of present day times. His presentation of the world's "best seller" was very ably given and listened to with the keenest interest and appreciation.

Following a social hour a committee composed of Mrs. W. A. Swatek as chairman, assisted by Mrs. L. D. Hiatt, Mrs. Luke Wiles, Mrs. J. E. Wiles, Mrs. Anna Wiles, Mrs. L. B. Dalton, Mrs. E. H. Wescott and Mrs. R. W. Knorr, served refreshments in which the St. Patrick's motif was cleverly carried out.

Thirty members and one guest, Mrs. A. H. Blackledge, enjoyed the hospitality of the Heinrich home.

INKLERS CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Robert Cappell was hostess to the Inklers Club on Wednesday evening. Miss Laura Meisinger was a guest. In the playing Mrs. Frank Schiele won first honors and Mrs. Frank Claid, second.

Refreshments in keeping with the St. Patrick's motif were served.

OWAISSA BLUEBIRDS

The Owaiassa Bluebirds met at the home of our leader, Mrs. Howard Davis, Tuesday evening. We had our business meeting and the girls gave about what it means to be a Democracy and our Flag. Also made plans about going to Joslyn Memorial on March 12 for a Campfire program. We also voted to give $1 to the Red Cross.—Mary Ann Bergmann, Scribe.

Red Cross Receives Appreciative Words

During the past few weeks Mrs. F. J. Knecht, Ashland, chairman of the Cass County Chapter of the American Red Cross has received words of appreciation for the articles sent by the Cass County Chapter to the various hospitals in the United States.

Some of the articles sent were eleven bath robes to the Veterans Administration hospital, Sheridan, Wyoming. These robes are being used in the infirmary ward. The pajamas made by the chapter are now in use in the infirm and older peoples wards in the Veterans hospital, North Little Rock, Arkansas. One hundred bed pan covers were sent to the William Beaumont General Hospital at El Paso, Texas. A shipment of tery wash cloths are in use in the Obstetrics ward in the station hospital at Camp Carson, Colo.

It is urged that we continue the good work by supporting the Red Cross drive which is taking place during the month of March. The goal for Cass county is larger than a year ago.
