Permanent Youth Council is Formed

Sunday evening the young people of the Christian, Methodist and Evangelical churches met with the Youth group of the Presbyterian church to form a permanent youth council. The following officers were elected: President, Manfred Moritz; Vice-President, Audrey Dow; Secretary, Shirley Humercik; Treasurer, Joan Cecil.

The Rev. Charles Tyler, pastor of the Hillside Presbyterian church of Omaha, delivered a most inspirational address on "Racial Relations." All that the colored race asks, he said, "is the privilege to develop to the utmost, the intellectual and moral powers with which the Lord has endowed them," a privilege due to every human being. The Rev. Tyler has a keen appreciation of humor and proved himself an able speaker. He brought with him several of the young people of his church. At the close of the meeting the young people enjoyed a social hour, during which delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. T. I. Friest, Mrs. Edgar Glaze and Mrs. W. H. Schmidtmann.

Wedding at Court House Saturday

On Saturday forenoon at the office of County Judge J. A. Capwell was held the wedding services for Miss Mary Ruth French of Omaha and John D. Place of Milford, Iowa.

The wedding services were read by Judge Capwell and the witnesses of the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Fehlcker, of Omaha, friends of the young people.

Following the wedding the bridal party returned to Omaha to enjoy the bridal reception. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cutting and family of Omaha were guests here this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. G. Eiting.

Cass County Salon of 8 & 40 Instituted

Tuesday evening at the club rooms of La Societe des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux, Cass County voiture No. 1218, a new salon of the 8 and 40 society was instituted in this city in a very colorful and interesting ceremony. The new group has been designated as Cass County salon No. 441 and is the first organized this year in the northwest district of the United States.

The main hall of the club rooms had been very attractively arranged and decorated for the occasion with settings of green and white in keeping with the St. Patrick's day theme.

The serving table was arranged with colorful display of green and white, white tapers tied with green ribbons being used, and the table centered with a large bouquet of white carnations.

The smaller tables at which the members were seated for the luncheon that followed the installation, were arranged with white tapers and at each table a red rose vase was placed. These with the glittering silver, crystal and china made a most attractive picture.

The new salon was instituted by Mrs. Vesta Thomas, la chapeau departmental, of Nebraska City, who was assisted by many of the state officers and a large group of distinguished members of the organization from over the state. Cornelia Dodds, la secretaire cassiere, was present to assist in the organization of the new group.

The new salon electing the officers for the ensuing year the following:

La Chapeau—Mollie C. Gobelman.
La Demi-Petite Chapeau Premier—Alpha Mauzy.
La Demi-Petite Chapeau Deuxieme—Mary Nelson.
Secretaire Cassiere—Agnes Walling.

La Sureintendant—Helen Gayer.

La Consierge—Vera Lewis.

La Archivise—Martha Cuthrell.

La Aumoirer—Sophia Wolever.

Each of the members of the new salon were presented with a large and beautiful red carnation by Mrs. Thomas as a part of the installation ceremonies.

Following the installation of officers the members of the group were served a very delicious luncheon arranged by the local group.

Many of the distinguished visitors present were introduced and gave short remarks. The salon is a part of the American Legion Auxiliary and composed of those who have served in the organization for a number of years and have held offices in the organization or performed outstanding service in the past years.

Among the visitors here for the occasion were: Mrs. Vera Boxer, Palaside, Nebraska, president of the Nebraska American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Evelyn Mitchell, Exter, Nebraska, past president; Dorothy Sutton, Lincoln, secretary of the Nebraska American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Esther Jersperon, Lincoln, departmental chapeau passe; Mrs. Carol Mortenson, Ord, national chapeau passe; Mrs. Mary Dana, Lincoln, departmental chapeau passe; Mrs. Garnet Berenberg, Omaha, departmental chapeau passe; Cornelia Dodds, la secretaire cassiere; Ruth Jensen, Mable Ainson, Omaha, departmental constitution and by-laws committee; Marguerite Bosch, Marie Bohde, Omaha; Rose Golding, Blanche Kittrell, Fern Stage, Lora O'Hara, Mary Dana, Leah Bail, Lincoln; Clara Zastera, Syracuse; Iman Speckhals, Fern Mendelson, Nebraska City.

Camp Fire Girls to Celebrate Birthday

Each year Camp Fire girls celebrate the birthday of their National organization in the middle of March.

Girls in Plattsmouth will attend church as groups on Sunday, March 20. Each year Protestant girls attend church in turn, this being the Methodist church. Catholic girls attend one of their churches in a group.

Birthday week also brings the Grand Council Fire of the year at which the girls pass their ranks and receive their various honors.

This year due to weather and road conditions the Plattsmouth groups have postponed their Council Fire and Birthday pageant until April 7. To be held at the Central school building.

More than 60 girls between the ages of seven and sixteen will take part in both the Council Fire and pageant which tells "The Story of Our Flag." Camp Fire girls learn and have fun by doing things together. Watch for their exhibits and attend their Pageant and Council Fire.

Junior Woman's Club Names Vera Lewis President

The Plattsmouth Junior Woman's club had a very large and interesting meeting at the club rooms of La Societe des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux, Monday night.

The meeting was presided over by Miss Shirley Jacobs, president, with a most interesting business session that embraced the election of the officers for the ensuing year. The following were chosen:

President—Vera Lewis.
Vice-President—Shirley Mayabb.
Secretary—Donna Rhoden.

Treasurer—Naomi Day.
The program of the evening was most delightful and presented by a group of the young people. The program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Alta Reade, dramatics teacher and Mrs. Jean Lockin.

The members of the dramatics class of the high school gave a number of very interesting sketches. Alice Ann Reade, Bonnie Meisinger, Glenda Arnold, Marilyn Stoeber, Patty Mason, and Shirley Humercikhouse were credited in short skits. Tom Carneal was heard in the dramatic reading, "Penny," Darleyn Spangler presented a humorous reading "A Lady on the Pullman."

The pupils of Mrs. Lockin were presented in dancing numbers, Jo Non Albin, Jeanine Newton, Wayne Lewis, Marilyn Arundel, Danny Lockin and Janet Campbell presenting this feature of the program.

The evening was closed with the serving of refreshments arranged in the St. Patrick's day motif, by the committee in charge that comprised Mrs. William Nelson, Doris Atkinson, Beverly Baker, Elaine Mussack, Auretta Weiden, Elaine Standler, Eleanor York, Mrs. Alta Reade, Jean Lockin, Naomi Owens, Joan Minor, Alvina Zastera.

Local Ladies Enjoy Trip to Southland

Misses Mary Phyllis Soennichsen and Phyllis Kehne, are enjoying a very delightful time in the deep south and the Gulf coast country. They departed Sunday by train for Chicago, where they enjoyed a stay of several hours in sightseeing, later leaving by plane for Tampa, Florida, where they will enjoy the sights of that well known west Florida coast city and later going onto Miami, Florida, one of the most attractive of the southern resort cities and enjoying the gay and interesting life of the winter resort.

They also are expecting as a part of the trip to have a voyage to Havana, Cuba, to enjoy the sights of that ancient city and its cosmopolitan life which makes it one of the show places of the western continent.

Mrs. Lois Bestor and Children Here

The members of the Bestor and Troop families had a very pleasant and unexpected surprise given them Tuesday when Mrs. Lois Bestor and children, "Butch", Kathleen and Billy, arrived from the west coast where they have been making their home for the past few years.

They are now living at Empire, Oregon, not far from their former home at Coos Bay, Oregon, where the husband and father, Robert H. Bestor, is employed. This is the first visit of the infant son, Billy, to Nebraska as he was born at Coos Bay.

The family will visit the relatives and friends in this city and at Nebraska City, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Troop, parents of Mrs. Bestor. The visit is one that has brought a great deal of pleasure to the members of the families.

Popular Young People Married Early Tuesday

The wedding of two of the popular and well known young people of the city occurred on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the chapel of the St. John's church, when Miss Betty Jean Vroman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O. Vroman, became the bride of Charles Eugene Ault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Ault.

The marriage service was very quiet, but fittingly impressive as the marriage lines were read by Father John Kelly, assistant pastor of the St. John's church in the presence of a few of the relatives.

The bride wore as her wedding gown a street suit of blue with brown accessories, wearing a corsage of bride roses. She was attended by Miss Joan Ault, sister of the groom, who wore a gray dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. Ault was attended by an old friend and associate, Bernard Jackson.

Following the wedding the bridal party motored to Omaha and from there will go to Chicago for a short honeymoon before returning to Plattsmouth where they will make their future home.

The bride is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1940 and in the past few years has been engaged in Florida and Chicago in the employ of the Delta air lines.

The groom is a graduate of the class of 1936 of the Plattsmouth high school and has long been an active figure in the athletic life of the community from his early school days to the present time. He was a member of the Eagles baseball team here for a number of years, but this was stopped by his enlistment in the United States army air corps where he spent three years, a part of this service being in the India Burma-China theatre of warfare. Since his return home he has been engaged in the employment at Offutt Field near this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Naeve of Lincoln were here Sunday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Naeve, parents of Fred. Both Fred and wife are now engaged with the Western Insurance Adjustment Co., and like their work fine.
