Resumes Activities at Register of Deeds

Miss Audrey Dow, deputy in the office of Register of Deeds Lucille Horn Games, who has been recovering from the effects of a recent throat operation, has been feeling so much improved that she has been able to resume a part of her activities at the office. It will be sometime before she is able to carry on all of her work as it will be necessary to have treatments for sometime yet.

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly and daughter, Comma Ann, arrived Monday from El Monte, California, called by the illness of Mrs. Kelly's mother, Mrs. Anna Taylor at La Platte. They plan to leave by the first of next week for their California home. The Kellys are former Platts-mouth residents and always enjoy visiting with the folks in the "old home town."

Bornemeier-Buell Wedding at Elmwood

Before an altar decorated with calla lilies, ferns and candelabra, occurred the wedding of Miss Phyllis Jean Bornemeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bornemeier, and Merle Richard Buell, son of Mrs. Floy Buell and the late Mr. Charles Buell, at the Methodist church at Elmwood, on Sunday evening, April 3rd.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. E. F. Haist in the presence of a large concourse of relatives and friends.

The candles were lit by Maxine Schlanker.
The wedding music was played by Joan Backemeyer, pianist, and Eugene Pratt at the pipe organ. Raymond Cook, of Platts-mouth, a cousin of the bride, sang "Because," "I Love You" and the "Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied by Miss Backemeyer. Mr. Pratt played the "Lohengrin Wedding march."

The bride was given in marriage by her father.
The matron of honor was the groom's sister, Mrs. Elmer Ross. Junior bridesmaids were Ellen Marie Stolz and Dianne Cook. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Frances Arnold Pratt, dressed in rose taffeta and Miss Norma Jean Schick, gowned in orchid chiffon.

The bride had chosen white satin as her wedding dress with lace yoke. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a beautiful tiara. She wore a string of pearls that had belonged to the late Ella Atchison, and ear rings, a gift of the groom.

The ring bearers were little Ronnie Lindgren and Susanne Cook.
George Buell served his brother as best man. Ted John, Elmer Rosa, Vernon Bornemeier and Keith Schmidt served as the ushers.

A reception was held in the basement of the church with 300 guests. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Morris Mendenhall and Mrs. Joan Cook Lindgren. The cake was four-tiered topped by a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Darrell Pyle, sister of the groom, served the decorated individual ice creams. This with cake, coffee, nuts and mint wafers furnished the refreshments. Mrs. Wesley Cook poured.

Miss Rosemary John had charge of the guest book, presiding at the gift table was Mrs. Harvey Bornemeier. Mrs. John Hay and Mrs. Willard Bornemeier.

The bride graduated from the Elmwood high school in the class of 1948. She will be remembered as the one of the school who had the honor of a week in Chicago, at the 4-H club congress, having won the first place in the state as clothing judge. She attended the University of Nebraska school of economics the first semester this year.

The groom is an exemplary young man who graduated from the Murdock high school in 1942. Since that time he has managed his mother's farm between Murdock and Elmwood.

After a short wedding trip the happy couple will be at

Jane Hobson Has Great Reception at Her Concert

Jane Hobson, one of the most outstanding of the modern artists of the concert stage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boedecker of Murray, was given a great reception on Wednesday evening as she appeared in the third and final concert of the Community Concert association, at the Nebraska City high school auditorium.

Fresh from her recent tour of the Pacific coast and the southwest, the talented artist, has enjoyed a few days at home before her concert at Nebraska City.

Her numbers presented offerings in Latin, English, German and French given in her usual artistic manner and drew repeated encores from the delighted audience. In her offerings were "Ave Maria," "Cradle Song," "In the Silence of the Night," "Think of Me" and "De Massus" and de Missus," all very beautiful in their rendition.

Everett Roubesh served as the accompanist for Miss Hobson and added to the program with two piano solos, "Reflection in the Water" and "Ritual Fire Dance."

Miss Hobson, who is better known here by her name, Flora Jane Boedecker, was most signally honored in embarking on the concert stage to be chosen by Toscanini and Stokowski as soloist in their offerings, decided to make the concert stage her future instead of continuing her career as a musical instructor in college that had been tendered her.

Attending the concert from Platts-mouth were: Mr. and Mrs. Pearl S. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walling, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Wiles, Frank A. Clodt and daughter, Miss Maxine Clodt, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Nielsen.

A very large number from Murray were at the concert to take advantage of the opportunity to hear their native daughter in her very successful tour of the west.

Ralph Hild Wins Honor in Contest

Ralph Hild, University of Nebraska, Ag College freshman, from Platts-mouth, Nebraska, took second honors in the swine showing in the Fifteenth Annual Junior Ak-Sar-Ben Showman-ship contest held at the State Fair Grounds on March 26, 1949. Ralph showed Compound Interest, a Hampshire barrow. Ralph is a freshman in the college, and is affiliated with Farm-House fraternity.

The Junior Ak-Sar-Ben show, which is sponsored by the Block and Bridle Club, animal husbandry honorary, is held each spring. All of the livestock used is the property of the University of Nebraska and the participants must be students in the university to qualify for competition.
Grand Champion of the show was Bob Beck, Fremont sophomore, who also showed a Hampshire barrow.

home on a farm northwest of Alvo.
Rev. E. F. Haist presented them with a fine bible among the numerous gifts.

An average farm will use about 2,000 board feet of lumber each year.

Help Celebrate Birthday in Omaha

Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan were in Omaha Sunday where they assisted in the celebration of the birthdays of William Hartline and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Altman of Ralston. The birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hagen. The evening was spent in playing cards, dancing and shuffle board. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all of the members of the group.

To make a gallon of maple syrup it takes from 45 to 50 gallons of sap.

The grasshopper jumps a height of more than 100 times its own length.
