Cattle Values Rebound Tuesday at Omaha Market

Rebound fat cattle values featured Omaha livestock trade Tuesday. The upturn was largely 25-50c, occasionally 75c, for full recovery of Monday's losses, in instances more. Price range was $20.00-$25.00, with 1148-pound steers topping at $26.00. Heifers sold to $24.00, quotable to $25.00. Heavy beef cows only steady, but other cows Tuesday strong to 25c or more up, canners and cutters $14.50-$16.75, beef cows $17.00-$19.50. Bologna bulls sold to $20.50, beef bulls to $19.50, vealers to $30.00. Stockers and feeders were strong to 25c or more up, most sales $22.00-$24.00, feeder steers $24.50, stock steers $25.00, and steer calves $26.00-$26.75. Tuesday's cattle run at Omaha was 6,000, hogs 5,000, in each case halved from Monday, when Omaha ranked as biggest of the major markets. Hogs Monday were $1.00-$1.50 lower, dropping prices to lowest point since mid-February. Tuesday trade was mostly steady, the top and some heavies, however, 25c off and some 240-300-pounders 25c up. Butchers cleared at $17.00-$20.25 (Monday's peak $20.50), sows at $16.00-$17.00, stags $12.00-$15.00. Fat lambs Monday broke $15.50-$16.50 to be stopped at $30.00, following last week's new all-time high of $31.60. Top lambs Tuesday were steady, again $30.00, but medium to just-good kinds at $23.00-$29.50 looked 25-50c lower. Slaughter ewes skidded 25-50c to sell at $9.00-$13.00. Shearing lambs Monday were steady—again to the record $29.00; Tuesday steady to 50c off at $28.00, $28.50.
E. M. Lanning, 18 hogs, wt. 274, $20.25.

John E. Renner Laid to the Last Rest

John Emmanuel Renner, better known as "Jake," was born February 12th, 1850, at Mount Vernon, Missouri. With his parents, Allen and Martha Renner, he moved to Wilmington, Kansas, when he was a small child, and grew to manhood at Wilmington. May 10, 1902 he was married to Lena Margaret Hinch. To this union were born six children, Pearl, Blanche, Elsie, Robert, John and Floyd. John died in infancy.

In the year of 1907 Mr. and Mrs. Renner moved to Nebraska, and settled at Plattsmouth, where he worked in the railroad shops until 1910, when they came to Weeping Water, where they farmed until 1920 when they moved into town. Here he worked in the quarries until about fifteen years ago, since when he has done carpentry work and masonry. Death came suddenly while he was asleep, Tuesday night, March 29, 1949, at the age of 69 years, one month and seventeen days. It was the way that he had always expressed the desire to go. He is survived by his wife, Lena; three daughters, Mrs. Herbert Ward, Omaha; Mrs. John Ward, Louisville; Mrs. Tony Boardman, Weeping Water; and two sons, Robert, of Weeping Water and Floyd, of Louisville. Three sisters, Mrs. Eva Finney, Bakersfield, Calif.; Mrs. Maude Miller, Admiral, Kansas; and Mrs. Mattie Spidell, Plattsmouth. Twelve grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Christian church at Weeping Water with Rev. J. S. Wolf in charge of the service. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Jesse Livingston, Cyrus Livingston, Harrison Livingston and Harold Harmon, accompanied by Mrs. Harmon. Pall bearers were Wallace Philpot, Bert Philpot, Sam Rector, Perry Rector, Elwood Miller and Basil Little. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery, with Hobson Funeral home in charge of all arrangements.
