New Utility Model Designed for Farm Work or Pleasure

The advent of the new lower-priced Kaiser Traveler marks the first time that an automobile has been created expressly to meet the transportation and light hauling needs of rural America.

To all appearances a conventional four-door sedan, the new type car was designed to give rural and suburban residents maximum usage day and night. Sundays and holidays—as a family car and as a light cargo unit.

With seats in place, the Traveler is a full sized six-passenger sedan; with the rear seat cushions folded, there is a maximum of 130 cubic feet of cariage capacity for a variety of farm loads normally handled by "pickup" trucks or trailers.

For many farm operators, ownership of one of the new utility models virtually eliminates the need for a specialized light cargo vehicle.

The Traveler delivers for $2,088, plus transportation to Corner and Son, local K-F dealer.

Out of 60 distributors in the U. S. only five have been chosen to distribute these automobiles for the first 40 days after which all the others will be supplied. Corner and Son have been fortunate to be included in one of these distributorships. They will be able to deliver one of these new Travelers to a buyer within one week.

A preview showing of this new car will be held at their place Friday and Saturday, April 22 and 23.

R. W. Knorr and Wife Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr, who have been visiting in California for the past few weeks, returned home Friday to resume their usual activities here at home.

They left here on February 1st and escaped a great deal of the intense cold and snow that has prevailed in this area since the first of the year.

On the way to the coast they made the trip by the southern route and found that not too pleasant at the start, but after a few days they found more pleasant weather conditions and the going not bad.

Their destination was Arcadia, California, where they have residence property, but as they have that leased, spent most of the time visiting with relatives and friends. On their arrival at Arcadia, to visit at the home of a cousin of Mr. Knorr, they found Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson of this city there and had a real home town reunion. They spent a great deal of the time at Los Angeles at the home of Bert Knorr, a brother of Mr. Knorr, a week at Richmond, California, with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Panzer, the former brother of Mrs. Knorr.

The weather in California was quite chilly, it being the coldest winter on the coast in many years.

On their way home they came by the northern route and hit a blizzard at Medicine Bow, Wyoming, that delayed them a short time and at Ogallala, Neb., they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Byron Peterson, the latter being a niece of the Knorrs.

Visit Here With Mrs. F. R. Guthmann

Charles F. Guthmann of Boise, Idaho, and Paul Lempe of Los Angeles, California, have been here this week visiting at the home of Mrs. F. R. Guthmann and daughter, Miss Minnie. They came here due to the illness of Mrs. Guthmann and who is now reported as being much improved in the last few days. Mr. Guthmann is the oldest son of the Guthmann family and Mr. Lempe, a nephew of Mrs. Guthmann, whom she reared from early childhood.

MRS WILES IS HOME
Mrs. William H. Wiles returned home Wednesday from the Clarkson hospital at Omaha. She is feeling very much better and it is hoped will soon be fully recovered.

VISIT IN CITY
Mr. and Mrs. James Riddle of Boston, Mass., enroute to Omaha stopped in this city Thursday morning to see Mrs. Riddle's cousin, Mrs. Amos Blackledge and Mr. Blackledge.

Miss Thelma Olson spent the Easter week-end with her mother Mrs. T. E. Olson and with her brother and sisters. Thelma is now employed in Kansas City, Missouri. She was formerly a member of the Journal staff.

Mrs. Eldon Gottula and little son of Lincoln, are here to spend a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feldhausen.

Observe Forty-Ninth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Porter of this city on Tuesday, April 19th, very quietly observed their forty-ninth wedding anniversary at the family home in South Park.

They were married on April 19, 1900, at Murray, where they were to make their home. The wedding was performed by Rev. T. K. Surface, then a minister of the United Brethren church, and was attended by a few of the relatives and old friends.

One of the guests as recalled by Mr. Porter, was Miss Gertrude Long, now Mrs. George E. Nickles of Murray. They have made their home in Cass county since their marriage and their family has grown up in this community.

In honor of the anniversary on Tuesday evening a number of the relatives came in to surprise the parents and grandparents, bringing with them a fine wedding cake and the makings of a delicious luncheon. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Poyer, Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kahn, Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Porter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Porter and family, Mrs. William Oliver. The parents also received a call from their son, Claude Porter from Sutherland, Oregon.

Funeral Service for Edward Jay Boedeker Held

his sudden passing. Ed was a man of positive convictions and clearly contended for what he believed just and right, but kindness and modesty in the assertion of his own accomplishments were the natural expressions of his character. Regardless of his own interest, he considered the well being of others. He was generous in his dealings, a sincere and devoted husband and father, a good neighbor and a true and trusted friend to all who knew him. Having been reared in the belief that the way of Christ was the only way of life, he tried in his quiet manner to obey the teachings of the New Testament. He was a member of the Weeping Water Methodist church.

Preceding him in death were his parents, his brother, Frank, and an infant sister.

He leaves to mourn his untimely passing, his wife, Vivian, his daughter, Mrs. John Jochim, one brother, Dewey Boedeker, many other relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral rites were held at the Methodist church, Weeping Water, Nebraska, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, April 18, 1949, and were largely attended by sorrowing friends and relatives.

Rev. Paul W. Walker of the church officiated. Mrs. Richard Lauritzen was soloist singing, "The Lord's Prayer," "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" and "Abide With Me," with Miss Maude Moulton, accompanist.

The casketbearers, all cousins of the deceased, were Glen and Charles Boedeker of Murray, Nebraska; Forest Brunson, Louisville, Nebraska; Glen and Ellsworth Kenke, Spencer, Nebraska; and Wilson Wenke, Norfolk, Nebraska. The body was laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery, Weeping Water, Nebraska, with Hobson funeral home in charge.

Social Workers Flower Club Meets

The Social Workers Flower club held their April meeting at the home of Mrs. James Liepert, who was assisted by Mrs. Frank Lepert and Mrs. Joe Sykora, as associate hostesses. The home was very attractive with varied colored flowers and decorations.

The song of the month, "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung as a duet by Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger and Mrs. Ruel Sack, the members of the club joining in on the chorus.

After the business meeting the time was spent in visiting. The May meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Ruel Sack with Mrs. Fred Spandler and Mrs. Ralph Doud as associate hostesses.
