Poppy Sale Proves A Great Success

The sale of memorial poppies sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary in this city, proved a very great success and a sum of $565 will be realized as the result of the effort of the ladies and the young folks that assisted in the conduct of the sale.

The salesmen were out early in the morning with the poppies that were made by patients at the U. S. Veterans hospitals over the country and these met with ready sale by those who wished to do their part in remembrance of those whose lives are now embraced within the walls of a hospital.

Stock-Gaebel Wedding Held at Murdock

Miss Joyce E. Stock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stock of Murdock, became the wife of Lee Rau A. Gaebel of Louisville Sunday evening, May 1st, 1949, at the Evangelical United Brethren church at Murdock.

The double ring ceremony performed by Rev. C. E. Nichols, pastor of the church took place at 7:30 in the presence of about 175 guests before an altar decorated with baskets of gladioli and garden flowers. Miss Clarice Gaebel, sister of the groom and Miss Lucille Karkland, friends of the bride, dressed in white formals, lighted the candles.

Verle Stock, cousin of the bride, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Ruben Stock, organist, played a prelude of sacred selections before the ceremony and then as she began Lohengrin's Wedding March, the bride entered with her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a dress of satin made with a sweetheart neckline and a three-yard train. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a sweetheart tiara of net trimmed with lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Lucille Gaebel, sister of the groom was maid of honor, wearing a colonial styled dress of lilac made with a hooped skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The bridesmaids, Miss Faith Rieke and Mrs. Delmar Denison, both of Lincoln, wore gowns similar to that of the maid of honor, only of yellow. Their bouquets were of daisies. All wore sweetheart headresses of net.

Arlo Stock, brother of the bride, was best man. Lloyd Braack, brother-in-law of the groom, and Marcus Stock, cousin of the bride were groomsmen. Ushers were Richard Stock, brother of the bride, Virgil Stretch, cousin of the bride, both of Murdock, and William Gaebel, cousin of the groom. All of the men wore boutonnieres of carnations. Charles Eckery, cousin of the bride was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a dress of pink crepe with brown accessories. Mrs. Gaebel, mother of the groom, wore navy blue floral silk with navy accessories. Both wore corsages of gardenias with red rose buds.

After the ceremony the bride's parents gave a reception for the guests in the church parlors. Refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Mrs. Lloyd Braack, sister of the groom, cut and served the cake and Dorothy Wendt poured the coffee. Waitresses were the Misses Letha Brunkow, Lillie Klemme and Marilyn Schmidt, all of Murdock. Mrs. Betty Solih had charge of the guest book.

The young couple left for a short wedding trip, the bride wearing a lavender suit with white accessories and a lavender orchid.

They will be at home in about two weeks at the home of the groom's parents, where Mr. Gaebel is engaged in farming.

Wesleyan Group Entertains Here

The Nebraska Wesleyan University road show made Platts-mouth a visit on Sunday and while here were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry White, whose son, Kenneth White, is a member of the group of entertainers.

The party arrived in the city at 1:20 and enjoyed the afternoon in visiting at the attractive White home on high school hill. They were joined here by Miss Beverly Brubacher, of Murray, May Queen at Wesleyan, and the fiancée of Ed Kugler, member of the Plainsmen cast, Mrs. Allan White, Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Williams and daughter.

The group, some seventeen in number, were entertained at a lovely 6 o'clock dinner at the White home, later going to the First Methodist church where at 8 o'clock they presented the playlet, "Clean Beasts by Seven," a delightful religious drama that was most delightfully presented by the cast. Those attending felt amply repaid in the artistic presentation by the members of the group.

Visiting With Texas Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Major I. Hall have been enjoying a visit of several days with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dick S. Hall and baby daughter at Borger, Texas. They made the trip by car and enjoyed the trip very much and taking in the many places of interest in that section of the country.

Sgt. and Mrs. Dwain Snyder entertained at dinner Sunday for Mrs. Paul Jones.

Talented Norse Girls

The above are the two charming exchange students from Oslo, Norway, who are studying at Midland college, Fremont, and were here the past week as guests at the Rotary Ann tea, given by Mrs. J. Howard Davis and Mrs. Orville Nielsen at the Nielsen home. They also appeared at the program of the Rotary club, Miss Kari Bjerke, seated at the piano, is an accomplished musician and gave several selections for the guests, while Miss Berit Fokstad, her companion spoke very delightfully of life in their native land and the customs and habits of life of the Norse people.

Junior Woman's Club Banquet Monday Night

In a beautiful May Day setting, the Junior Women's Club held their annual banquet at the Methodist church, Monday evening, May 9.

The members and their guests were invited into the beautifully decorated dining room by the committee in charge. The decorations were profuse and lovely, reflecting much credit and work to the committee composed of Vera Lewis, general chairman; June Vallery, program chairman; Marjorie Amato, Rachel Grove, Irene Furse, Ruth Ann Davenport, Mildred Arn, Marie Horn, Louise Keiderling. The tables were decorated with two beautiful May poles and a center piece of spring flowers. Nougats with rose buds in pastel colors served as the program and menu. The room was decorated in the beautiful pastel colors, with six May poles to blend with the tables.

The menu was:
Fruit Cocktail
Baked Ham Parsleyed Potatoes
Whole Kernel Corn Lime Salad
Rolls Jelly Butter
Strawberry Short Cake Mints
Coffee

The dinner was prepared by the Glensers circle of the Methodist church and was very delicious.

Mrs. June Vallery, program chairman, introduced the guests, Mrs. L. B. Dalton, second vice-president of first district; Mrs. Delbert Lindsey of Union, county president; Mrs. Kent Balfour, Nehawka, county secretary; Esther Donat, county vice-president; Mrs. L. W. Egenberger, district treasurer; Sophia Wolever, retiring resident of the Senior Women's Club; and Mrs. Philip Hirz, in-coming Senior president.

Past Presidents present were: Mrs. Esther Donat, Wilhelmina Henricksen.

Mrs. Vallery presented Shirley Jacobs, who extended her thanks to all the members for helping make her year a success. Shirley presented gifts to the Vice-President, Mrs. Friesl, Secretary, Louise Huebner and Treasurer, Norma Spidell.

Mrs. L. B. Dalton, Second Vice-President, installed the officers for the coming year. They were as follows: Vera Lewis, President; Shirley Mayabb, Vice-President; Naomi Day, Treasurer; Donna Rhoden, Secretary.

The rest of the evening the ladies were entertained by a fine radio program. June Vallery was in charge and the following high school boys took part in the delightful program: Commercial announcers, Ray Hild, Manfred Moritz; news broadcaster, Gary Hild; Cousin Prunetta and Her Setting Up Exercises, Ella Thun; Master of ceremonies in the selection of the Queen of the May, Dick Gerbeling and his assistant, Cyril Kocian. Five ladies were selected from the audience by having submitted the best wishes. From these, Miss Norma Spidell was selected and crowned queen of the May. The queen
