

Weeping Water

Mrs. Thomas Murley,
Journal Correspondent

George and David Olive, who are students at the State University, spent the week-end with their mother, Mrs. Emily Olive, and while here, they attended high school commencement exercises, and the Alumni banquet. Saturday evening, George and David have been winning several honors this spring. First it was the Sigma Tau Engineering awards to seniors and to juniors, then the Pi Mu Epsilon award in mathematics, and just last week, two more honors came to them. George received a membership in Sigma Xi, for scientific scholarship, and George and David each won memberships in E A Kappa Mu Electrical Engineering fraternity.

Week-end guests at the R. C. Porter home were Mrs. Porter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Stanley, of Perry, Iowa. Susan Porter accompanied them here for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker, Sr. and their daughter, Mrs. Charles Hansen, went to Lincoln, Tuesday, to make the acquaintance of the two-month-old baby daughter, which the Warren Bakers have adopted.

Guests at the W. L. Meyer home for commencement evening and to attend graduation exercises were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heneger, Mrs. Lella Fitzpatrick, Donna, Arline and Roy, Jr., all of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer, of Avoca; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gade and daughter, Dolores, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rinehart, Lincoln; and Reginald Speak, Louisville.

Miss Phyllis Bates, arrived home Monday from Hartford, Conn. She expects to spend a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Bates, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spangler. She will be accompanied home by one of her schoolmates, who will remain here for the month.

A letter from Mrs. Ralph Keckler says that she and Mr. Keckler are staying at the home of Mrs. George Towle, at 7215 Warin, Hollywood, Calif., and they have been enjoying visits with Mrs. Towle's daughters and sons-in-law. They saw Mr. and Mrs. Bud Rector (Montes Sloan) in Richmond, Calif. They spent Easter week-end with their son, Richard, in San Francisco, and while there attended a flower show at one of San Francisco's largest stores. From there they went to Portland, Ore., enjoying the wild flowers in that section of the country. The blue and yellow lupins were in full bloom and the California poppies and the Skunk cabbage, the dog woods and red buds were also enjoyed. Mrs. Keckler and her sister had spent a day with Helen Wallick, and another day was spent at the Torrance Fleming home, when Mrs. George Towle and her daughter, Mrs. Pauline Swan, and Mrs. Wallick were also guests, so they are enjoying visits with former Weeping Water friends who live in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bundy of Callaway, came by plane to Lincoln, Sunday morning, to attend a pilot's breakfast at the Lincoln airport, where they were joined by their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Maxfield. After breakfast, Mrs. Maxfield and Mrs. Bundy drove to Weeping Water, while the two men came by plane. All spent the day at the home of Mrs. Maxfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rasmussen. Mr. Bundy is a nephew of Mr. Rasmussen.

Mrs. I. L. Markland received a letter, Monday, from Mrs. Torrence Fleming, telling of the death of Mrs. Roy Barrett (Jennie McNurlin), May 18, at her home at 2826 Illinois St., South Gate, Calif. Mrs. Barrett had suffered a heart attack several weeks ago, but was thought to be recovering, when the end came suddenly. The Barrett and the McNurlin families were well known pioneer families in Cass county, and the sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved husband.

Roy Cook came home from the Veterans hospital Sunday, after which he will return for further treatment. He is able to get out into the yard by the aid of crutches, to enjoy the fine spring weather.

Latest report from Jack Hays, who is at the Veteran's hospital, is that he is not improving as rapidly as had been hoped that he would.

If the weather is good, this next Sunday, many of our Weeping Water people will be found at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norris for the annual picnic dinner and afternoon visit, to which all who attend the congregational church, have been invited each year, but the picnics has assumed such large proportions that it now includes all friends of the Norris families who want to pack their picnic baskets and spend a delightful day on the Norris picnic grounds. Mrs. Norris says "all of our friends are invited, this year."

Clarence Norris joined a group of Avoca men, who left for a three-days fishing trip in Minnesota. They left Sunday evening, expecting to return home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolcott, who are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott, expect to leave the latter part of the week for their new home at Huron, South Dakota, where Frank is an engineer for the Missouri-Oaho Irrigation project.

LeRoy Kirk, brother of Mrs. Frank Wolcott, of Grant, Neb., is a guest at the L. P. Wolcott home this week.

Mrs. Ray Norris entertained the Avoca Garden Club, at her home Monday afternoon, when Mrs. William Baier and Mrs. Ernest Emshoff led the meeting and discussed the proper way to care for roses.

Mrs. Addie Wells, of Camous, Wash., and her son, Harry Wells, of Stapleton, Neb., are expected to arrive here the latter part of the week. Mrs. Wells will make an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dwight Cook, near Nehawka, and at Weeping Water.

Mrs. J. M. Ranney went to Blair Wednesday, for a two-days visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lingco.

"EASY DOES IT"

By HELEN HALE

CREAM a can of tuna fish quick-ly by adding to it a can of condensed cream of mushroom soup along with 2 tablespoons of cream and ¼ cup of sliced stuffed olives. Serve hot in a noodle ring for an easy supper.

A nice garnish for a potato salad consists of spreading seasoned cream cheese on thin slices of salmon, then rolling them into a cornucopia. Place these around the platter.

Midged-sized meat balls make an elegant garnish for soup. Dip marble sized meat balls in flour, fry in hot fat and add to hot soup just before serving.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Stuffed Spareribs
(Serves 8)
2 sides spareribs
2 teaspoons salt
4 slices pineapple
8 cooked prunes, pitted
2 large apples, quartered
¼ cup brown sugar
Place one side of spareribs on rack in open roasting pan. Sprinkle half the salt over the meat. Arrange pineapple, prunes and apples over meat. Sprinkle sugar over fruit and place second side of spareribs on top. Sprinkle with remaining salt. Bake in a moderate (350° F.) oven for 2 hours.

Add 1 tablespoon of marmalade to 1 cup of top milk. Serve this over cereal instead of plain milk for a breakfast treat.

Combine bacon and pancakes to get the full effect from this delightful pair. Pour pancake batter over strips of cooked bacon and bake as usual.

Try this new way with pancakes and sausage: Roll a cooked sausage link in a pancake and serve with hot applesauce.

Ever try stuffed lamb chops? Make a slit in the fat side of the whole length of double thick lamb chops, cutting nearly to the bone. Fill with rinsed and drained seedless raisins. Bake or broil the chops.

Mix flaked crabmeat with chopped hard-cooked eggs, mayonnaise and season to taste. Spread on slices of bread which have been toasted only on one side. Top with slices of cheese, then broil until cheese melts. Serve hot.
