'Honor the Dead, Don't Join Them', Says Council

"Honor the dead, don't join them" is the word of advice to Nebraska motorists from the Nebraska Safety Council today.

The Council reported that Memorial Day in Nebraska will create a serious traffic problem since the holiday is on Monday. This will give most workers a chance for a lengthy motor trip.

In 1947 there were three persons killed in traffic mishaps while in 1948 there were two victims. The Council urged the co-operation of every driver and walker to cut the score this year to none.

The State Safety group asked motorists who must drive over the week end to do so with the utmost of caution, common-sense, and courtesy.

Former Residents Visit in City

Tuesday a group of former residents of Plattsmouth were here to spend a few hours looking over the city and the territory south of here. The group comprised Tom and John W. Seagraves of Omaha and Joe Seagraves of Woodward, Iowa.

The family resided in the vicinity of Rock Bluffs for a number of years, two of the brothers moving away years ago and John six years ago. Joe states that when he was a boy going to school they were building the Hotel Riley, now the Hotel Plattsmouth. Tom Seagraves is now employed at the Doctors hospital at Omaha.

Youth Cashes In
Huntington, W. Va. (U.P.)—Boys have been charging from $1.50 to $2.50 an hour for cutting grass. And, one irate citizen complained, "that doesn't include the trimming." One father said his own son charged him $1.00.

Weeping Water High School Commencement

The Weeping Water high school auditorium was filled to capacity, Friday evening for their graduation exercises, when twenty-six seniors completed their high school course of study. Robed in maroon color, with hats to match, they made an impressive sight, grouped against a background of gray. Tall baskets of spring flowers were arranged around the front of the platform. An instrumental ensemble, under the leadership of L. A. Malstead, opened the program with the professional "Pomp and Circumstance." Invocation was by Rev. John C. Pryor.

Caroline Kunkel and Allen Hansen tied for Salutatorian, and each welcomed the guests. Malaine Wright delighted the audience with a vocal solo.

Supt. R. C. Porter introduced W. J. Houser, County Superintendent of Douglas county, who gave the address, with his subject being "What Next," "Democracy," he said, "is the worth of the individual. Our real challenge is that this way of life did not come by chance, but by hard work on the part of our ancestors. Present conditions demand that we learn to live together. He advised the class to develop a will to work. Have confidence in yourselves, that you can do the work alone. Know what you want. Have self confidence enough to get the job. There is no such thing as one right for any individual."

C. V. Wallick, Chaplain of the American Legion, presented citizenship awards to Dixie Applegate and John Newham, of the junior high school, and to Shirley Doty and Charles Wallick, of the senior class.

Supt. R. C. Porter presented the Daughters of the American Revolution History award to Benjie Olive of the fifth grade, and to Clyde Rice, he presented the plaque, which represented a four-year scholarship at any Nebraska church school. To Caroline Kunkel and Allen Hansen he presented medals for scholarship. An award for citizenship and perfect attendance went to Dwight Wiles. Good Fellowship award to Richard Garrison. Scholarship for Commercial College, Betty Jacobson. Supt. Porter also noted the fact that there were five Eagle scouts in this year's class.

F. J. Domingo, President of the Board of Education presented the diplomas, after which the girls' sextet sang one number. They were Dorothy Kunkel, Melaine Wright, Janet Christensen, LaVon Kuhring, Shirley Appling and Eleanor Lindsey. Valedictory, Clyde Rice. Benediction by Rev. Paul J. Walker; Recessional. Estimated attendance was 560.
