Christian Church Group Has Meeting
Wednesday afternoon the members of the Christian church Aid Society enjoyed a very pleasant meeting at the church parlors with a fine attendance and a great deal of interest shown.

The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. Ward Schade. A very interesting program was given by the young folks of the church in the afternoon. Donnie Freeburg was heard in two very delightful piano-accompaniment numbers as well as a piano solo. Jane Thimman gave two piano selections, "I Journey Through the Arctic" and "Andante from Surprise Symphony. Loren Swiney and Van White gave a vocal duet, "Faith of our Fathers" with Mrs. Richard Schade as the accompanist. Sarah Thimman gave two numbers on the piano, "Over the Prairie" and "How Many Miles to Boston." Laura Swiney gave a piano selection, "The Old Rugged Cross." Charlotte Hitt gave a recitation, "The Swing," that was much enjoyed. Mrs. Richard Schade gave two numbers, "I'm a Pilgrim" and "Father Time."

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

Safety Illustrated
Cincinnati, O. (AP)—Artist Paul Bogosian was so busy drawing safety cartoons at a safety show that he forgot he was standing on a platform several feet above a stage. He stepped back and fell to the floor with a large crash. The only injury was to his pride.
