

Weeping Water

Mrs. Thomas Murty

The Jolly Health 4-H Club held their Achievement Day program Tuesday afternoon at the home of their leader, Mrs. J. M. Ranney. Six members of the club were present, and their mothers and grandmothers were their guests. The class completed their first year of Keep Well study, and they reviewed their pledge, their club song, their club motto, and displayed their colors and their emblem for the guests. Peggy Boardman presented their "Keep Well" problems; Ruth Jones discussed the right and the wrong kind of shoes which should be worn. Alice Marie Wiles gave a fine talk on the subject of "Posture" and Beverly Ann Miller and Ruth Ann Herman illustrated the correct way to make a bed and also the care of a bed. Mayvonne Johnson talked about "Good Sleeping Habits." The program closed with their "Thank You" song, after which Mrs. Ranney presented certificates to the leader, the assistant leader, and to each member, as well as to the club. The club members then surprised their leader with the gift of a beautiful flower holder. There was a display of the Health booklets which the club had made during the year, and a delightful lunch of several varieties of sandwiches, cookies and fancy cakes were served with coffee or orange juice.

Again was the usefulness of the large auditorium proven Tuesday evening when the Order of the Rainbow Girls, No. 5, held their open installation of officers with more than one hundred visitors seated against the north and south walls. A large delegation came from Elmwood and the vicinity of Eagle. Six were present from the Springfield chapter. Visitors were present from Nelawka, Elmwood and Avoca. Beverly Bonner, Worthy Advisor, welcomed the guests, and Margaret Knabe presented the American flag. Evelyn Lauritzen presented the Rainbow flag. William Hobson, Rainbow Dad, introduced the installation officers. Beverly Bonner was the installing officer, and Shirley Doty was the installing Marshal. They first installed Carolyn Kunkel as the new Worthy Advisor for the coming months and her twenty assisting officers. Two special musical numbers were enjoyed. They were a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer," by Malaine Wright and a flute solo, by Dorothy Kunkel. The Worthy Advisor's mother, Mrs. L. N. Kunkel was taken forward and introduced and presented with a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Ruth Norris, Mother Advisor, presented merit stars, and the members of the advisory board were introduced. They are Ray Norris, William Hobson, Mrs. Lella Fernbaugh, Oscar Domingo, Mrs. Richmond Hobson, Mrs. A. C. Petersen and Clifford Cooper. The auditorium was profusely decorated with spring flowers. These combined with the rainbow colors of the evening vows made a delightful picture long to be remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Day had as their dinner guests Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hugh Hanahan and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd P. Wolcott.

Another of their delightful "Family Night Dinners" was held at the Methodist church Monday evening with about one hundred guests present. It was also a reception for new members. After a bounteous basket dinner, they were entertained with a musical program opening with a number by the boy's robed choir.
