Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Malcolm Pollard of Nehawka announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Imogene, to Clayton Bruce, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Raymond Bruce of Baden, Pa. Miss Pollard graduated from the National Business Institute of Lincoln in 1944 and was an outstanding 4-H member, receiving state and national honors and a scholarship to the University of Nebraska home economics department.

Dorothy Imogene Pollard

For the past four years she has been employed as secretary in the office of Senator Hugh Butler in Washington, D. C. Mr. Bruce received his B.S. degree from the University of Pittsburgh and is now attending George Washington university college of medicine. He is serving his internship at Gallinger Municipal in Washington, D. C., and is a member of Nu Sigma Nu, Phi Chi and Phi Beta Kappa. The wedding will be August 7.

Attend Nebraska Annual Roundup

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis were in Lincoln where they attended the annual Nebraska university roundup, a part of the closing exercises of the State University, always a very colorful event. Mr. Davis was a member of the class of 1909, one of the honor classes this year, sharing honors with classes of 1889, 1899, 1919, 1929, 1939, at the annual get together. Mrs. Davis also enjoyed with the husband, the many social events that marked the day with the colorful campus gatherings and the fraternity and sorority entertainments.

Accidents after dark during 1948 took the lives of 18,400 persons and injured 640,070 throughout the nation, the Street and Traffic Safety Lighting Bureau reported.

Young People Married at Holy Rosary

Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Holy Rosary church at 16th and First Avenue, occurred the marriage of two of the popular young people of this city, Miss Alice Belle Gradoville, daughter of Mrs. Ivan Gearhart and Mrs. Lowell Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Hopkins, Sr.

The church was attractively arranged with the bright colored flowers of the early summer season.

The marriage was performed by Father Edward C. Tuckek, pastor of the church and witnessed by the members of the families of the young people and a few close friends.

The bride wore a street gown of aqua blue with white accessories, her flowers were a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Delores Frazier, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing an aqua blue street dress with white accessories and a corsage of Talsman roses.

Edward Frazier attended Mr. Hopkins as the best man. Following the wedding the members of the bridal party and the two families were entertained at a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ivan Gearhart, 12th and 4th avenue.

Mrs. Hopkins is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1948 and has since been engaged at the Stylecraft plant in this city.

Mr. Hopkins attended the Plattsmouth high school and later entered the naval service in World War II, serving until the close. He is at this time employed at the Plattsmouth post-office.

Elizabeth Marie Meisinger Graduates

Lincoln, Neb. (Special)—Miss Elizabeth Marie Meisinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester W. Meisinger of Plattsmouth, was included among the 158 seniors who received degrees in connection with Sixtieth annual commencement exercises at Nebraska Wesleyan University Tuesday, May 31.

Miss Meisinger received a Bachelor of Arts with a major in English and Education and a minor in the commercial arts.

Hurst R. Anderson, President of Hamline University, St. Paul, Minn., delivered the commencement address and Chancellor John L. Knight conferred the degrees.

Miss Meisinger plans to be married sometime during the summer months. She will teach next fall at Mullen, Nebraska.

While attending Nebraska Wesleyan Miss Meisinger has been active in Cardinal Key, Theta Alpha Phi, Panhellenic Council, Plainsman staff, COG's, Pi Gamma Mu, Plainsman Players, and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She is affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

Miss Meisinger is the reigning queen of the King Korn Carnival being crowned in September, 1949.

Keller-Wiles Wedding Held Wednesday

Wednesday, June 1, 1949, at their future home south of Plattsmouth, Miss Claudene Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Keller, and Mr. H. Emerson Wiles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wiles were united in marriage. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed at four o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. E. C. Williams of the First Methodist church officiating. Only members of the immediate families were present.

Baskets of white gladioli were used as decorations for the living room where the rites were performed. Preceding the lighting of the vows, Mrs. Edward Wiles sang "Because" with E. Hilt Wescott as accompanist, he also playing nuptial music throughout the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white two-piece suit of Bakola material, white accessories and a red rosebud corsage. She also wore a gold and brilliant necklace, a gift of the groom.

Miss Dorothy Cappell, her bridesmaid, wore an aqua summer suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The groom was attired in a marine blue suit while his attendant, Wynne Babbitt, wore a brown suit.

Mrs. Keller chose a light green and gray figured crepe dress, while Mrs. Howard Wiles wore brown silk shantung. Both mothers wore red carnation corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception honored the newlyweds. In the dining room was a beautiful floral buffet piece of pink and white carnations and snapdragons. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and had a two tiered wedding cake as a centerpiece, flanked on either side by tall white lighted tapers.

The bridal party enjoyed a dinner at the Blackstone Hotel in Omaha, following which Mr. and Mrs. Wiles departed on a short trip.

Claudene graduated from the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1946 and attended Doane College for one term. The past two years she has been employed in the stenographic department of the Mutual Benefit Association at their Omaha offices.

Emerson was graduated from the local high school in 1947 and attended Omaha University the past year where he was a member of Phi Kappa Delta fraternity.

Brubacher-Kugler Nuptials Held at Murray

The United Presbyterian church at Murray was the scene of a very lovely wedding service on Sunday, June 5, at 4 o'clock candlelight service, for Miss Beverly Ann Brubacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brubacher of Murray and Mr. Edgar M. Kugler, son of Mrs. Ida P. Kugler, of Creston, Nebraska.

The church was very attractively arranged with baskets of pink carnations and white snapdragons, as well as a white trelis covered with ferns.

Preceding the ceremony, LeRoy Yanney, Lincoln, classmate of the bride and groom sang, while the nuptial music was played for the ceremony by Bill Ericson.

The wedding was attended by 250 guests. The marriage service was performed by Rev. Roy P. Morris, pastor of the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. G. E. Brubacher.

The gown of the bride, white satin, was fashioned with a demure pointed collar, dainty lace extending from the shoulder line to the hemline, accented the yoke and aisle wide train, the bodice fitted smoothly with molding line that offset the fullness of the skirt. The sleeves were long and tapered to points. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held by a pleated satin crown. She carried a white bible with a lavender orchid.

Miss Margaret Smith, of Plattsmouth, attended as maid of honor, wearing pink taffeta with matching headress and gloves. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Wes Rothlentner of Lincoln and Miss Betty Meisinger of Plattsmouth, wearing matching dresses of white taffeta with white headress and gloves. Their flowers were colonial bouquets of pink carnations.

The candles for the service were lighted by Miss Jane Gates of Lincoln and Miss Marilyn Larson of Bellevue.

The groom was attended by Mr. Kenneth White of Plattsmouth, a school associate at Wesleyan.

Ushers at the service were Mr. Wes Rothlentner of Lincoln and Mr. Tommy Cooper of Falls City.

A reception was held in the parlors of the church following the wedding ceremony, assisting in the reception were Mrs. Charles H. Boedecker, Mrs. George Rieker, Mrs. R. W. Tyson, Mrs. A. L. Carper, Mrs. Raymond Lancaster, Misses Maralyann Myers, Elaine Koontz, Mary Phyllis Soennichsen, Norma Spiegell, Ramona Brooks, Anna Mae Tubridy, Mrs. Elmer Tritsch and Mrs. Olin Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Kugler departed on a honeymoon trip to the Black Hills and Denver. The bride wore as her going away gown white gabardine with white accessories. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kugler are members of the class of 1949 of Wesleyan University where they have been prominent in the activities of the University. Mrs. Kugler majored in social science and education. She was active in the chorus, yellers of the brown, Women's House Council, Y.W.C.A. Plainsman Players, Theta Alpha Phi. She is affiliated with Phi Mu sorority.

Mr. Kugler majored in political science and a minor in speech. He was active while at Wesleyan in Phi Kappa Delta, Reta Alpha Phi and the Wesleyan staff.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tschirren was Mr. and Mrs. Don Welch of Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. Welch is a brother of Mrs. Tschirren.

HERE FOR VACATION ... 14 home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vallery. Mrs. Burr Davis, of Wayne, Nebraska, has been here visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vallery. She is accompanied by her children, Jimmie and Sandra Davis, who will spend a part of their vacation here at the home of the grandparents, and at the farm.

Miss Naomi Owens, member of the teaching force of the city schools, with Miss Hannah Doyle, of Omaha, was a visitor in Chicago for a few days with friends.
