

California Visitors Here

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Heil and daughter, Patty and Sally Graves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Graves are here from their homes at Burbank, California, to visit with the relatives and old friends for a short time. Mrs. Heil is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rummel and Mr. Heil has many relatives here that they will visit during their stay. This is the first visit some four years and is being much enjoyed. Mr. Heil is engaged with one of the large aircraft companies on the west coast.

They report that Mr. Graves, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graves, who was in the Journal plant as a linotype operator prior to going to California, is now back in the newspaper business, and is engaged in working on weekly newspapers in Burbank and Eagle Rock. He enjoys the old line of work after the war years spent in the aircraft activities.

Funeral of Henry Gaebel Held Monday

The funeral services for one of the long time residents of the Louisville community was held on Monday afternoon at the Trinity Lutheran church in Lincoln. Mr. Gaebel had died Friday night at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln following an illness and failing health for some time. He suffered a stroke on Sunday, May 29th, while attending a picnic in Lincoln with his wife and was taken to the hospital where he passed away.

Mr. Gaebel has lived in Lincoln the past two years, being taken there following an auto wreck that had hospitalized him for some time.

Obituary
Henry C. Gaebel, son of Charles J. Gaebel and his wife Mary nee Gakemeier, was born on a farm near Louisville, Nebraska, April 8, 1886 and died at Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln, Nebraska June 17, 1949, after a serious illness of three weeks. He had attained the age of 62 years, two months, and nine days.

He was baptized in infancy by the Rev. J. T. Catenhusen and made a member of Christ's church on May 16, 1886. After being instructed in this faith, he was confirmed April 8, 1900 by the Rev. G. Jung. At the age of 25 years he was united in marriage to Dora M. Stohmann on August 16, 1911 by the Rev. Theo. Hartmann. God blessed this union with two sons and two daughters; one child was still-born. His wife preceded him in death in 1945; also two sisters and a brother preceded him. In October 1947 Mr. Gaebel was joined in matrimony to Martha E. Stohmann of Lincoln, Nebraska.

Mr. Gaebel spent most of his adult life on a farm just east of Immanuel Church. Here as a farmer, friend and neighbor he became widely known in the community around Louisville. About two years ago he left his farm and made his home in Lincoln where he passed away.

It was in his church, however, that he found his greatest joy. He became an active voter soon after becoming of age and served his church willingly whenever called upon in various offices, especially as an elder for 22 years. When he moved to Lincoln his first thought was to resign here, so he might become active as a voter in Trinity Lutheran Church. Now that he has finished his service here, God has translated him into the Church Triumphant.

The departed began to notice failing health coming on some months ago. In spite of all medical aid his condition became worse. Three weeks ago he suffered a stroke, from which he could not recover and passed away last Friday, thus being relieved of all sufferings by our gracious Lord Jesus.

Mr. Gaebel leaves to mourn his death his wife, Mrs. Martha Gaebel of Lincoln, Neb., his daughter, Mrs. Lenora Ragoss, and Mrs. Verla Schliebert, his sons, Charles and William of Louisville; a sister, Henrietta Gaebel, and a brother, Fred, also of Louisville.

VISIT IN IOWA

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Carmack have returned from a ten days visit at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Finch of Ames, Iowa, where they enjoyed the pleasure of visiting their daughter-in-law and granddaughter, Mrs. Carl Carmack and Kristen Lynn of Chicago, Ill., as well as other relatives.

Between 12 and 14 million baby chicks are hatched each year in Washington state.

25th Wedding Anniversary

The twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gaines was celebrated by a surprise tendered by a group of the friends on Monday evening, June 20th, although the anniversary will not be until the 21st.

There were 14 present at the Gaines home and a very delightful time was spent in visiting and enjoying the passing hours. At a suitable hour refreshments of ice cream and anniversary cake was served to the members of the party.

Fat Cattle Up on Light Supply During Week

Fat cattle gained up to a dollar, in instances more, Monday and Tuesday at Omaha. Receipts were trimmed to 10,500, highest Monday—Tuesday cattle run since May, 1948, as shippers sought to align live supply with narrowed dressed meat demand and retrieve last week's steep price losses of $1.00-$1.50. Slaughter steers, yearlings and heifers Tuesday at Omaha bulked $24.00-$26.25, with steers to $28.00. The peak price steers were 1081-pound Wyoming, Nebraska steers weighing 1402 scored $27.00. Cow trade was spotty—steady to 25-50c up, canners and cutters $13.00-$15.50, beef to $18.50, a few to $19.00, $19.50. Bulls cleared at $18.00-$19.50, good vealers at $24.00-$26.00. Stocker and feeder cattle and calves sold weak to 25c and more lower, mainly at $21.50-$24.00, cows with calves at side $16.40, the calves $28.50, other steer calves to $26.00, heifer calves $24.25. Hogs Monday advanced 50-75c but Tuesday were unevenly steady to 50c and more off, the full break on heavy sows. Butchers weighing 180 to 360 sold at $16.50 to $21.25, a few at $21.50, and sows at $14.00-$18.00, and extreme heavies $13.50, stags $10.00-$14.00. Fat lambs Monday were 25c off, $25.00 the top, but Tuesday were 25-50c up, fed California springers, first of the season, $25.75, and native spring lambs $24.00-$25.00, quotable peak $25.50. Slaughter ewes were steady, $5.50-$8.50, quotable top $9.00. Medium to just-good spring feeder lambs brought $23.00, and Idaho yearling breeder ewes $22.50.

Harry Kasten, 9 heifers, wt. 807, $26.00.
Franklin Wehrlein, 18 steers, wt. 1027, $26.25.

Christ Church Has Annual Picnic

The members of the Christ Evangelical Lutheran church, on the Plattsmouth-Louisville road held their annual picnic at the surrounding church yard on Sunday, June 19th.

In connection with the morning service a report on the mid-west Lutheran synodical convention was given by Jake Kreager who went as a delegate. This report was very interesting and enjoyed by the rest of the congregation who could not attend.

Everyone brought along well filled baskets and a delicious picnic dinner was enjoyed by all. The afternoon was spent in visiting and playing ball and pitching horseshoes.

The Sunday school teachers had planned many interesting contests and games of various types. These proved to be very entertaining for the members of the different classes and prizes were awarded to the winners of the numerous contests.

Ice cream and cake were served at the close of a very pleasant and enjoyable day.

Plattsmouth VFW Attends State Meet

The department encampment of the V.F.W. and its Auxiliary was held at the Fontenelle Hotel in Omaha June 12, 13, 14 and 15th. The V.F.W. held their meeting in the assembly room, and the ladies held their meeting in the ballroom of the Fontenelle.

The meeting of the V.F.W. was presided by Department Commander Larry Gaughen of North Bend, National Junior Vice-Commander Charles C. Rolls gave an inspiring talk on service to veterans and their families and the benefits that could be derived there from.

A joint session was called by Commander Larry Gaughen, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary, the meeting was informal, and began with the introduction of the Assistant President, Mrs. Rose Simon. Mrs. Simon in turn introduced Delores Marsh who presented a flag to Mayor Glenn Cunningham for the city of Omaha.

Prizes were awarded to the essay winners, the winners and awards are as follows: 1st prize to Irene Frederickson Cozad $25; 2nd prize, Lois Bailey Stromsburg, medal and $15; 3rd prize to Elaine Smithberger, Stanton, Neb., $10. These three winners were chosen from the 195 essays submitted on the theme "My Part in America's Future."

E. H. Wescott Home Scene of Gathering

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wescott, (Sunnyside) to the old timers, is the scene of a very happy gathering for the next few weeks, as Wednesday Mrs. Perry H. Murdick and children, "Tad" and Katy Lee, arrived from Grand Haven, Michigan for a stay at the Wescott home. Mrs. Murdick is the former Helen Wescott, daughter of the family, and with the children is enjoying the usual yearly visit back home.
