Plattsmouth Lady Given High Honor
Mrs. A. E. Johnson of this city, past district president of the Rebekah order and past state manager of the girl's clubs for the state of Nebraska, of the Rebekahs, has just returned home from a week spent in South Dakota as a guest of the grand assembly of the Rebekahs.
The meetings were held at Sturgis and opened on last Sunday with a very large attendance of the ladies from this part of the west.
Mrs. Johnson was invited to participate in the organization meetings for the girl's clubs, the Theta Rho, that has been so very successful in Nebraska, and in whose organization Mrs. Johnson has had a large part. The meetings were most successful in every way and the greatest interest shown by the subordinate lodges.
While at Sturgis Mrs. Johnson and the ladies were guests of the Chamber of Commerce and given the opportunity of a tour of the Black Hills and its wonderful display of natural beauty and charm.

Lightning Causes Much Excitement
Thursday afternoon and evening the lightning caused a great deal of excitement in this city and vicinity as the bolts struck in at least two places that have been reported.
On Main street shortly after 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon the lightning struck the Ruse building at the corner of 6th and Main street, hitting the third floor of the building over Walt's market and as the result several bricks were dislodged from the building and splintered onto the sidewalk below.
No one was injured but the shock was felt by many in the building especially those living near the scene.
The lightning also struck a large barn at the Glenn Perry farm south of Plattsmouth, but fortunately did not cause a fire.
Numerous cases of lightning striking trees and affecting telephone lines were reported during the night.

Circles of St. Paul's Church Meet
The circles of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church held their meetings on Tuesday, June 21st.
Circle No. 1 met at the church parlors with Mrs. Fred Tschirren and Mrs. Robert Tschirren as the hostesses. The devotions were given by Mrs. Orville Muller, her topic was, "Budgeting for Peace." The members joined in the singing of several hymns. There were fifteen members and seven visitors present. At the close of the business meeting a social time was enjoyed climaxed with the serving of refreshments.
Circle No. 2 met at the home of Mrs. Frank Parkening who was assisted by Mrs. Ford Heim, as associate hostess. The devotions were given by Mrs. P. A. Meisinger on "One Humanity." At the close of the business session a contest was given as a social activity. There were ten members and three visitors present. Refreshments were served at an appropriate hour by the hostesses.
Circle No. 3 met at the home of Mrs. Joe J. Stibal with Miss Laura Meisinger and Mrs. E. P. Lutz as associate hostesses. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Fred Lugsch. The devotions were given by Mrs. Werner Kaffenberger. Several of the hymns were given in connection with the devotional message. There were 17 members and six visitors present. After the business of the meeting a contest was held and prizes awarded. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

4-H CLUB MEETS
The Cass County Feeders and the Nehawka Swine Club met at the home of Alice Noell Wednesday, June 15. The meeting was opened with the 4-H pledge. Tommy Johnson presided at the Feeders' meeting and the lesson on "Rope Halters" was given by Hall Pollard, leader. Peter Lutz presided at the Swine meeting and Margaret Ann Knabe, assistant leader, gave the lesson on "Sanitation." James Pollard told about his trips to 4-H Club Week and Boys' State. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Noell. This was the last regular meeting for the club year. Achievement and the Club Tour will be July 24, with a picnic dinner for the member's families at the Tucker picnic ground and a tour to the homes of the members in the afternoon.—James Pollard, News Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Tilson and W. H. Wiles were at Omaha Thursday afternoon where they spent a few hours at the Clarkson hospital with Mrs. Wiles who is there under treatment.

Mrs. Conklin and Children Sail
Mrs. Zella Troutt has received a message from her daughter, Mrs. Joan Conklin, who with her twin sons are leaving today (Monday) for Germany where they will join Captain Conklin and make their home in that country for the present. Captain Conklin is stationed with the American occupation forces.
While in New York City Mrs. Conklin had the pleasure of seeing a former classmate at the Plattsmouth high school, Cadet Edward H. Gradoville of the U. S. Military Academy, who also sailed for Europe on June 23 as a part of the summer outing of the cadets.

Heard on Radio Program Sunday
The Horace Heidt program from the Pacific coast Sunday night greatly interested many of the Plattsmouth fans, when one of the soloists being Eddie Kerns, of Alameda, California, a son of the former Etta Koukal of this city. The young man is one of the talented young musicians of the coast country. The mother, Mrs. Etta Kerns, graduated from the local schools, and has in late years resided on the west coast. The young soloist is a nephew of Emil Koukal of this city.
