Buffet Luncheon Honors Bridal Party

Sunday Mrs. Lena Tritsch and Mr. and Mrs. Ordell Hennings entertained at a pre-nuptial two course buffet dinner at 12:30 honoring Betty Meisinger and Chester Johnson who were married at 4:30 Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist church in this city. The event was held at their home 623 Ave. C. with fifty-three guests in attendance.

The serving table was beautiful with its appointments of a blue linen cloth and crystal candelabra holding white taper on either side of the lovely centerpiece of pink and white carnations and fern, centered with seven iris orchids flown in from California for the occasion.

The guest list included relatives, sorority sisters and fraternity brothers of the bride and groom to be as well as the bridal party.

Mrs. Tritsch is an aunt of Betty and Mrs. Hennings a cousin.

Omaha Parties Wed at Court House

Monday afternoon at the office of County Judge Richard Fock William N. Minor and Vera M. Baines, both of Omaha, were married by his honor in a very impressive manner. The wedding was witnessed by Mrs. Marie Behrends and Miss Thelma Kruger, clerk in the office of the county court. The groom gave his occupation as a truck driver and the bride as that of a PBX operator. They returned to Omaha following the ceremony.

Kass County King Korn Queen Weds

The First Methodist church in Plattsmouth was the scene Sunday, June 26, for the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Marie Meisinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester W. Meisinger of Plattsmouth, and Mr. Chester Harvey Johnson of Mullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester R. Johnson of Mullen.

Baskets of pink and yellow roses and fernery were arranged at the front of the church for the forty-three guests. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Williams of Plattsmouth and Rev. L. Edward Mattingly of Lincoln in the presence of about 400 guests.

Preceding the ceremony, Mr. LeRoy Yanney of Lincoln sang "All the Things You Are" and "Because," accompanied by Miss Betty Corbit of Chester who played organ music throughout the service.

Candies were lighted by Miss Roberta Embree of Friend and Miss Barbara Jo Furman of Lincoln. They wore formal of yellow marquisette and wrist corsages of yellow roses. During the candle lighting, the sweet-heart songs of the couple's sorority and fraternity were played by Miss Martha Temple, violinist of Lincoln.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, Mr. Yanney sang

Mrs. C. H. Johnson
The Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly-type lace and white marquisette over net over main fashioned with a widely flared skirt and a sweeping capelet trim. Pearl-sprinkled rose petals outlined the curving yoke and accented the lace of the bodice as it trailed away into the marquisette skirt. Her chapel-length veil of imported illusion was held in place by a halo of simulated orange blossoms. She wore matching lace bouquets and a single strand of pearls, and carried a handkerchief worn by her grandmother and mother on their wedding days. Her cascade bouquet of white roses was centered with a single orchid.

Her maid of honor, Miss Lola Johnson, of Mullen, wore a gown of misty green marquisette over satin fashioned with full skirt and bodice and tied with a wide satin sash. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jean Meisinger of Plattsmouth and Miss Eleanor Johnson of Mullen. Their gowns were of pale pink marquisette over satin in the style of the maid of honor's dress. They carried cascade bouquets of pink roses. The junior bridesmaid, Miss Patricia Johnson, of Mullen, wore a dress of pink marquisette over satin and also carried pink roses.

Mr. Johnson and his best man, Mr. Ray C. Young of Alliance, wore white dinner jackets and boutonnières of burgundy carnations.

Ushers were Mr. Bill Johnson and Mr. Mac Rayfield, Jr. of Mullen, and Mr. Dean E. Meisinger of Plattsmouth. They wore white carnation boutonnières.

For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Meisinger chose a dress of blue printed silk with white and black accessories. Mrs. Johnson wore a two-piece dress of brown printed silk with accessories of faint teal and brown. They wore orchid corsages.

Presiding hostesses at the reception held at the Hotel Plattsmouth following the ceremony were Mrs. John Sattler, Jr., and Mrs. Henry Donat of Plattsmouth. Baskets of gladioli formed the decorative motif for the reception.

Officiating at the serving table were Mrs. Ordell Hennings of Plattsmouth; Mrs. J. M. Rayfield of Mullen, and Mrs. J. C. Swinbank of Lincoln. Assistant servers were Miss Mary Phyllis Seemichsen, Miss Phyllis Kehne, and Miss Margaret Smith of Plattsmouth; Miss Marilyn Bra-

Miss DeJarnette-Bill Kenner Wed Sunday

One of the lovely weddings of the summer season was that of Miss Bobbie DeJarnette, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. B. DeJarnette and William C. Kenner, III, son of Dr. and Mrs. William C. Kenner of Nebraska City Sunday, June 26th, at the First Presbyterian church at Nebraska City.

Rev. John A. Williams read the marriage lines in the presence of some 300 guests.

The chancel of the church was arranged with pedestal baskets of white peonies, gladioli and daisies with lighted cathedral tapers in branched candelabra. The choir loft was surrounded with lighted candles tied with huckleberry foliage.

The ends of the pews held bouquets of daisies tied with satin streamers.

The professional for the bridal party was "The Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" by Mrs. Reuben Beard of Nebraska City, who played the wedding march by Mendelssohn as the recessional. Mrs. Beard also played a prelude of organ music as the guests were seated. She accompanied Miss Jo Ann Bergmann of Omaha who sang "Because" by Grieg.

Mrs. J. Morton Porter of Nebraska City was matron of honor and Miss Ila Mae McDougal of Lincoln was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Brust, Nebraska City, and Mrs. Erwin Dreibus of Shenandoah, Iowa.

Robert Tritsch of Plattsmouth, cousin of the groom, was best man and the ushers were J. Morton Porter, Frederick Ware, Jr., Omaha and Stanley Johnson, Friend.

The bride had prepared the lovely design for her wedding gown and also the gowns of the attendants.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She chose a gown of heavy ivory satin with a snugly fitted bodice and bouffant skirt which ended in a ten yard train. The bodice was fashioned with a yoke of filmy net which was outlined by a bertha of ruffled Chantilly lace with a dainty design of seed pearls, and long bridal sleeves tapering to points at the wrists. Her hooped skirt fell from an inverted V waistline and was caught with satin to reveal ruffles of Chantilly lace at the hemline. Her floor length veil was of imported French illusion and Rosepoint berilloom lace which was held in place by a coronet of the Rosepoint which was etched with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and calla lilies mixed with baby breath and fading into streamers of stephanotis and centered with a white orchid.

The gowns of the attendants were made identically ranging from dark to light hues of green. The matron of honor wore a gown of moss green slipper satin with a strapless bodice covered with matching Chantilly lace. The full flared skirt had a draped overskirt in back that swirled into a short train. The maid of honor wore leaf green, the bridesmaid, forest, and the bridesmatron, lime. They wore sunbonnets made by the bride and matching mitts. They carried cascade bouquets of white gladioli and baby breath.

Lynn Ewing, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ben Ewing of Nebraska City was flower girl, her gown being of canary yellow matching tones of the gowns of the other attendants and wearing matching mitts and sunbonnet. Bill Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parker, Nebraska City was the ring bearer. The pillow bearing the rings was used at the marriage of the bride's mother.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception at the Hotel Grand. The bride's table was centered with a six tiered all white wedding cake.

Miss Lucille Stryson, Lincoln, cut the wedding cake, Miss Martha DeLong, Nebraska City, poured, Miss Marilyn Parsons, Omaha, served the punch, Miss Connie Yates, Nebraska City, had charge of the guest book and Miss Wilma Reiner, Waverly, cousin of the bride, had charge of the gift table.

The couple left on a trip to Wunder Lodge, cabin of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wunderlich in the Masonic park in southern Colorado. For going away, the bride wore a two-piece dress with a white linen skirt and a royal blue box jacket. Her accessories were blue and white and she had a white orchid corsage. On their return they will live at 535 South 41st street, Omaha, while the groom is attending the University of Nebraska College of Medicine.

The bride attended the University of Nebraska where she was a member of Alpha Phi sorority. The groom attended the University of Nebraska and was affiliated with the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity and he is now a member of the Phi Rho Sigma medical fraternity.

SELL LICENSES

The records at the office of the county judge reveal that in June with two days yet remaining, there have been twenty-three licenses sold to the young people of Cass county. This is one of the heaviest runs on the matrimonial market for many months and puts June truly in the month of brides.
