BLUE RIBBON BABY BEEF CLUB
The Blue Ribbon Baby Beef 4-H Club met at the home of Gary Hild on June 30th.

Before the lesson we went to judge Gary's calves. He had them tied up and arranged in a very neat order so it was easy to get to them. We then had our business meeting on the front lawn.

The meeting was called to order by President, Gary Hild. Roll Call was taken with nine members and five visitors present. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Assistant Secretary, Dorothy Hild. We decided to have a float at the Cass County Fair, which will be held around the last of August. We read our lesson on "Leading the Calf," and then had a test on it from the leader, Ralph Hild.

The next meeting will be held July 25th, at the home of Geo. Borne. We will judge George's calves. At an appropriate hour delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Henry Hild—Dorothy Hild, News Reporter.

The Cass County Homemakers held their regular meeting at the home of Donna and Marilyn Embury, July 8, 1949. The meeting was held jointly with the Cass County Canners, The Cass County Cooks, and the Modern Miss Clothing clubs. Two members answered roll by telling what they plan to do to their rooms. The members had the pleasure of having Miss Schultz there to show us the kits for the sewing girls which was very interesting to the rest of the girls.

Two demonstrations were given. They were "How to Wash a Pair of Hose the Correct Way" by Margaret Knabe and "Preparing a Jar for Exhibit" by Marjorie Whipple. Guests of the meeting included the mothers and the members of Mrs. Sand's club. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Margaret Knabe and Carolyn Wesell. The next meeting will be at the home of Patsy Mather, July 13, with Rosemary Redden as assisting hostess.—Marjorie Whipple, News Reporter.

At a recent meeting Peggy Sand was hostess to the Cass County Canners, the Cass County Cooks, the Cass County Homemakers and the Modern Miss Clothing clubs. The Homemakers received their new material and each gave their assigned lesson, they were "Hospitality" by Rosemary Redden, the "Comfortable Bed" by Marjorie Whipple, and the "Correct Lighting" by Ruth Wolph. Since our leader will be gone for several weeks we were assigned lessons that can be given at a later date. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.—Marjorie Whipple, News Reporter.
