Baumgart-Campbell Nuptials

At a beautiful candlelight ceremony at the First Presbyterian church in this city, on Saturday, July 16, Miss Eunice Barbara Baumgart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baumgart, became the bride of George Weber Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell of this city.

The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli and ferns. On either side of the altar were large baskets of the gladioli in pastel colors with two seven branch candelabra.

The marriage lines were read by Dr. H. G. McClasky, pastor of the church, at the 4 o'clock ceremony. There were some 125 guests present at the services.

The professional and recessional music was played by Mrs. Eleanor Schade, who also played the accompaniment for Miss Marylou Warner as she sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Because" preceding the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white bridal satin with a tight fitting bodice with nylon net yoke outlined in Chantilly lace and long sleeves that came to a point over the wrist. The very full skirt fell into aisle wide train. Her double tip, chapel length veil was held in place with a tiara of simulated orange blossoms, it was edged in lace that matched her gown. Her bridal bouquet was American Beauty roses caught with a white satin bow. She wore a single strand of pearls.

Mrs. Donald Steppat, matron of honor, wore a gown of orchid taffeta and carried a contrasting colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

Miss Jacqueline Heady of Council Bluffs, Iowa, bridesmaid, wore an identical gown of blue taffeta, her colonial bouquet was of pink carnations.

Both the matron of honor and bridesmaid wore matching picture hats. The rhinestone chokers they wore were gifts of the bride.

The flower girls were Janet Baumgart, sister of the bride and June Warner, a niece of the bride, wearing matching yellow orandy dresses with matching picture hats.

The Misses Patricia and Bar-

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lynn Hallstrom of Peru, who were married at the First Congregational church at Wahoo, Nebraska, June 12. The bride was formerly Miss Dorothy Ann Maynard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fosberg of Wahoo. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hallstrom of Avoca.

Fletcher-Dalton Wedding Held At Garden City

The wedding of Alice Marian Fletcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett A. Fletcher, of Garden City, South Dakota, to Robert Lester Dalton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Dalton of Plattsmouth, Neb., was solemnized Sunday, July 17th at half after two o'clock, at the Garden City Methodist church. The Rev. J. Horley Thompson officiated, using the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with white flowers and tapers, with a white satin cushion upon which the bride and groom knelt at the close of the service.

They were attended by Margery Fletcher, sister of the bride, and John Hakanson, Lincoln, Neb., close friend and school mate of the groom. Mr. Philip H. Cecil, Redfield, South Dakota, cousin of the groom ushered.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Everett A. Fletcher.

Miss Barbara Evans, cousin of the bride sang "At Dawning" and "Because" and Mrs. Wendell Rea presided at the piano with appropriate music before and throughout the ceremony.

The bride wore a hoop skirted, off the shoulder gown of white embroidered organdy and matching mitts. Her finger-length veil of French illusion was fashioned with a Juliette cap. The bride's maid was dressed in a dusty rose taffeta, with matching cap and mitts. They carried colonial bouquets of pink and white roses.

The bride's mother was attired in aqua crepe with brown accessories and the groom's mother wore navy blue sheer print with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. D. R. Evans, Mrs. D. Freerch, Miss Lois Evans and Miss Jeanne Burkhalter served.

Miss Claire Dalton and Mrs. John Hakanson were in charge of the gifts and guest book.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Iowa State College at Ames, Iowa. They left, after the ceremony, for Detroit, Mich., where the groom has been employed for the past year as a student engineer, by the Chrysler Corporation.

Manley Residents Visit in City

Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dall with Mr. and Mrs. Tim Finney, were in Plattsmouth to look after some trading and visiting with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Finney are now completing their new home at Manley and hope to have it ready soon for their occupancy. Mr. Dall who is a long time resident of the county enjoyed meeting many of the old time friends in this city while here.

NO SUNDAY WORK

Earl Redd, who killed a diamond back rattler the past week, states the Journal was incorrect in reporting it killed on Sunday while he was working near his home. Mr. Redd states that he does not work on Sunday, while he would kill a snake on Sunday because it would be a good deed, he was not working on Sunday, as the snake was slain on Saturday. It had ten rattlers and a button.

bara Gansemer, who lighted the tapers, were gowned in aqua taffeta formals and wore wrist corsages of white carnations.

Roy Bretthorst of Syracuse, nephew of the bride, carried the rings for the double ring ceremony on a white satin pillow.

The groom was attended by Donald Steppat, the best man and Richard Tritsch of Murray. They were both attired in summer business suits and wore carnation boutonnières of white carnations.

Carl Morehead of Louisville and Kenneth Peteret of Plattsmouth served as the ushers.

Miss Donna Sprick was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. John Altschaff had charge of the gift table.

The wedding reception was given in the Fellowship room of the church that was very appropriately decorated with summer garden flowers and tapers.

Presiding at the table for the guests were Mrs. Sydney Cook, sister of the groom, who served the wedding cake, Mrs. Fulton Lewis, who poured ice tea and coffee and Mrs. Louis Warner, sister of the bride, who served the ice cream.

The bride is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1947 and is now employed at the Acme Fast Freight Inc. in Omaha.

The groom attended the Nebraska high school. He comes two years in the new business most of this time in the Pacific theatre. At the present time he is employed at the Western Storage firm west of Plattsmouth.

St. Paul's Circles Hold Meetings

On Tuesday, July 19th, the circles of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church held their regular meetings with very good attendance and a great deal of interest shown by the members of the various groups.

Circle No. 1 met at the home of Mrs. Fred Kaffenberger with Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger as associate hostess. The devotions were given by Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger with Mrs. E. J. Moritz as the assistant leader. After the meeting refreshments were served to thirteen members and twelve visitors.

Circle No. 2 met at the home of Miss Helen Horn with Mrs. Ben Speck as co-hostesses. The devotional chairman, Mrs. Emil Schmitt, gave the devotions. "On Our Own Doorstep". After the regular business the meeting adjourned to enjoy the social hour that followed, closed with the serving of refreshments to twelve members and four guests.

Circle No. 3 met at the country home of Mrs. William Stark-john with Mrs. Verner Meisinger and Mrs. Fild Nolte as co-hostesses. The devotions were given by the devotional chairman, Mrs. Verner Kaffenberger her tonic was "On Our Own Doorstep". After the regular business session was concluded, games were played and prizes awarded. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses to eighteen membs., eighteen adult visitors and ten children.

All circles are to have a family picnic for their August meeting.

Weeping Water Couple Are Wedded

Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the First Methodist church occurred the marriage of Bonnie M. Grow and William J. Van Every, both of Weeping Water, in a simple and impressive service.

The marriage lines for the double ring service were read by Rev. E. C. Williams, pastor of the church.

The young people were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Philipot, the former a brother of the bride.

Both ladies wore attractive summer street gowns with corsages of gardenias and the bride carried a white bible.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Every are to make their home at Weeping Water where they are members of two of the prominent families of that city.

Guests at Home of Mollie Gobelman

Guests this past week at the home of Mollie Gobelman, have been a group of relatives from the west coast and St. Louis, Mrs. Theodore Talbot, of San Bernardino, California, a cousin of the late Frank Gobelman, Mrs. Flora Hallan of St. Louis and Mrs. J. Cogswell of San Bernardino. The ladies had a very pleasant time at the Gobelman home and looking over the places of interest in this section of the state.

Entertains at Pinochle Party

Friday afternoon Mrs. Harold Lebens entertained a number of the neighbors at a very pleasant pinochle party that was arranged as a surprise on the birthday anniversary of Mrs. John Bergman.

In the playing, prizes were awarded to Mrs. V. J. Chovanec and Mrs. J. A. Pound, Sr., mother of Mrs. Lebens, for their skill at cards.

The refreshments were featured with a musical birthday cake that proved a fine part of the afternoon entertainment.
