The bicycle entries will be divided into two classes, one group from 9 to 12 years of age, another group from 13 to 16 years. There will be prizes aggregating $15 for each class of the entries.

Immanuel Church To Observe 75th Anniversary

In a special service at 10:00 on September 11 Immanuel Lutheran church will observe the 75th anniversary of its organization as a congregation. Festival speakers for this service are the Rev. Martin Jung of Woolstock, Iowa, son of former Pastor G. Jung, who served here from 1895 to 1907, and the Rev. John E. Hermann of St. Louis, executive secretary of stewardship for the Western District of the Lutheran church, Missouri Synod. He is a son-in-law of former Pastor Hartman.

The beginnings of the congregation may be traced back to the 1850's and 1860's, when the pioneer founders of the congregation came to Cass county. Mr. Hohlshub of Plattsmouth interested himself in these pioneers and frequently brought Lutheran pastors over from Iowa to preach to them in Plattsmouth, and in such schools as Cedar Creek, Hoover, College Hill, and District 33. After 1870 Pastor Gruber of Seward county came here on a tour of the territory and helped these people get their own pastor in the person of Pastor Hannewald. When Louisville was established as a village in 1872 by Captain Hoover, the Rev. Hannewald also built himself a house there so as to be closer to his people. In the following year Immanuel Lutheran Congregation was organized.

The first church was built in 1876, a small school house in 1880, and a four-room parsonage in 1879, all at the present location. The latter two were built during Pastor Catenhusen's ministry, who became pastor here in 1878. When he accepted a call elsewhere, the congregation called the Rev. G. Jung who was installed in 1885. The following year the congregation erected the present brick church at a cost of some over $8,000. From 1900 to 1915 the congregation also had called teachers for its Christian Day School, Mr. George Jung, Mr. G. Steinkrauz, (Continued on Page Five)
