

W. F. Evers to Attend Grand Encampment

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Evers departed this (Thursday) afternoon for San Francisco, Calif., where Mr. Evers will attend the grand encampment of the United States of the Knights Templar.

Mr. Evers, deputy grand commander of the Knights Templar of Nebraska will represent the state at the meeting, a very high honor for the Plattsmouth Masonic leader.

The grand encampment is held every three years and the San Francisco meeting will give him the opportunity of participating in this important gathering of the Templars, as there will be no meeting until three years hence. Mr. Evers will serve as the grand commander in 1950 and no encampment will be held during his term of office.

Mr. Evers has also been notified of his appointment as aide to the commander of the Fifth division of the parade. The Templar parade is a very colorful feature of the encampment and participated in by many of the commaderies of the nation.

Returns from Funeral Service

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie W. Niel returned Tuesday evening from Denver, Colo., where they were called late last week by the death of Mrs. Ernest Reher, a cousin of Mrs. Niel and a former resident of Plattsmouth. The deceased made her home here for a number of years but in the late years has resided in the west.

Sporer Family Has Loss of New Baby

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sporer of near Murray are mourning the death of their babe, Judy, born on Tuesday, September 13th at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha. The little one died at birth and brought to the parents and little sisters a very deep regret.

There is surviving the parents and four sisters, Betty, Winifred, Charleen and Lucy Marie.

The body was brought here to the Caldwell funeral home and from where funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon with burial at the Oak Hill cemetery.

Stadium Has New Seats Now Ready

The new stadium at Athletic park will have their seats all in readiness for the opening football game on Friday with Auburn. The wooden covering for the concrete bleachers are here and will be in place. The last section of the seats has been poured and will be ready for use for the game.

The board of education is also arranging for the building of temporary wooden steps at the northeast side of Athletic park to accommodate the patrons until they can be replaced by more permanent steps.

Start Series of Masonic Schools

Wednesday Raymond C. Cook, grand custodian of the grand lodge of Nebraska, A. F. & A. M., departed for Cambridge, Nebraska, where he held the opening of the fall series of schools of instruction for the officers of the Masonic order.

The schools will be continued now until after the holiday season and will keep Mr. Cook quite busy in visiting the lodges over the state.
