Sketch of Life Of Long Time Resident
Mrs. G. O. Schwenecker, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Glaze, and daughter, Shirley, of this city, were at Ashland, the past week to attend the funeral services for Mrs. Diana Crawford Bushnell, 77, who died on Saturday at the family home near Ashland. The services were held at the Marcy chapel and conducted by Rev. Milton Laid, pastor of the Congregational church. The burial was at the Ashland cemetery.

Mrs. Bushnell was the fourth child of James and Melissa Sweat Crawford. Her father and his brothers were veterans of the Civil War, and migrated from Ohio and Illinois in quest of exercising their Veterans' Homestead rights and establishing new homes in the West. They entered the Nebraska territory in June, 1866, ferrying the Missouri river at Plattsmouth. They staked claims in middle-western Cass county.

Mrs. Bushnell was born in a prairie home near Murdock on February 29, 1872. Cass county had always been her home. She received her elementary and high school education from the nearby rural schools, and then attended the Western Normal college at Lincoln. She graduated from the Normal department in 1895, and for six years taught in Cass county rural schools.

On December 25, 1898, she was united in marriage with Marvin E. Bushnell of Osage, Ia. They went immediately to the farm that has remained her home for the past fifty years.

Mrs. Bushnell was the mother of nine children: Mrs. Laura Sherman, Mrs. Mildred Olson, Mrs. Vera Jenny, Mrs. Bernice Straight, Mrs. Barbara Bernice, Mrs. Edna Fidler, Miss Norma Bushnell and Messrs. Crawford and Clark Bushnell. These, with 19 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, one brother, James Crawford of South Bend, one daughter-in-law and six sons-in-law, survive.

Mrs. Bushnell died at the age of 77 years. She had suffered an infection of the lungs for a number of years. Three granddaughters preceded her in death, as did her husband, who passed away on June 5, 1945.

Will Select "Cowboy Kid" at Ak-Sar-Ben
The "Cowboy Kid" of the Ak-Sar-Ben World Championship Rodeo will be selected at the final performance of the show in Ak-Sar-Ben Coliseum at Omaha at 2:15 p. m. Sunday, October 9.

The contest, a new feature this year, will open to any young cowboy at least seven years old but not over thirteen, wearing western equipment on ponies under 58 inches.
Judges will select the "kid" under the same rules used during a western pony class of a horse show. Ponies will count 20 per cent, horsemanship 30 per cent and personal appearance will count 50 per cent. Glenn Williams of Releston is chairman of the event.

In addition to the "cowboy kid," entries placing second, third, fourth and fifth will be named as hazers for their chief. A hand-tooled saddle will be presented to the winner of the event, with other awards for the hazers.

Cyril Kalina was in Omaha Saturday evening to visit his sister, Mrs. Emma Hladik, of that city who is undergoing hospitalization.

This included gas gun and shells, gas bombs to be used in emergencies, mirrors through which suspects may be watched unobserved and other equipment that is found in cases of emergencies. In addition to this the office of Sheriff Solomon is equipped with a modern rescue ambulance and also a boat to be used in case of accidents at beaches or in the rivers.
