Mr. and Mrs. Henning Johnson spent the day Sunday with Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Martin at Crab Orchard. Mrs. Martin fell recently and broke her arm.

Mrs. Vance Balfour and Mrs. Fred Hansen were in Lincoln Friday. Mrs. Balfour visited her father, Mr. A. W. Bedson and Mrs. Hansen visited her grandmother, Mrs. D. E. Smith. Mrs. Smith returned recently from a trip to the west.

Mr. and Mrs. George Poulos, Jr. and daughter of Union and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Poulos and son of Auburn called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Poulos, Sr., Sunday evening. Mrs. Fred Hansen entertained at a birthday dinner for Mr.

Hansen Thursday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hansen, John Stuart and Clarence Hansen. LaVonda Murdoch has returned to Wesleyan at Lincoln where she is a Sophomore this year. Norma Lundberg is a Senior at the University of Nebraska. Alva Linder, who has attended Peru State Teacher's college the past three years, has enrolled in Worslem College at Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Beins and family of Idaho Falls, Idaho, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Christina Chappell this week. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Shomaker are preparing to move to Lincoln in the near future. They have purchased a new home across the street from their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Weber and family. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Heesch, who have been living in the tenant house on the Shomaker farm will move into the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Shomaker.

Water has been installed in the church basement at the Methodist church. This will be appreciated by the W.S.C.S. when they serve dinners. Herman Smith did the plumbing and Clark Finney of Plattsmouth did the trench work.

Ruth Pollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Polaird, graduated from the Vogue School of Fashion Art at Chicago September 15 and has accepted a position with Robert's Interiors of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hansen entertained their bridge club at dinner and cards Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Ringler of Lincoln, were supper guests Friday evening of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Tyson. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dieking of Otoe called in the evening.

Mrs. Hattie Gunther and son, Dick, of Beatrice were week end guests of Mrs. Gunther's daughter, Mrs. Fred Wessel and family. Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Gunther and family were dinner guests Sunday at the Wessel home.

Mrs. E. A. Nutzman entertained the W.S.C.S. at her home Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. D. St. John and Mrs. Nel Nutzman assisting. Mrs. R. B. Stone had charge of the devotions. The society voted to serve the dinner at the Madsen hog sale in October. Wednesday was

Rev. Harry Hart's birthday and the society sang the birthday song to him. The society will sponsor a covered dish supper at the church Tuesday night, September 27, for the ministers and teachers. Rev. Hart will entertain in the evening with pictures.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King of Hooven, Ohio, visited this week with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wieckhorst. They left Friday for Bedford, Iowa, to visit Drs. Rennie and Rennie. Mr. and Mrs. Wieckhorst and Judy drove there to Bedford and spent Friday night and Saturday with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Rennie. Mr. and Mrs. King are Mrs. Wieckhorst's aunt and uncle. Mr. and Mrs. Wieckhorst and their guests were in Omaha Wednesday to visit Boy's Town.

MRS. TRACE PLYGON, Correspondent

Mrs. Nellie Patton returned on Friday from a visit in Colorado with her daughter and family.

Bluebird Club met on Tuesday with Mrs. Monning at her home, and Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Newlin were assisting hostesses. The subject of juvenile delinquency and its causes was discussed.

On Monday afternoon at the Community building, the first of a series of eight assembly school programs was held. This was a musical presented by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart. He was soloist, singing with power and excellence for nearly an hour. Among the selections were "Old Man River," "De Glory Road," "The Desert Song," "A Little Bit of Heaven," and "Cruising Down the River," the latter one followed by the audience singing the chorus. After the regular program, he responded to three encores. He appreciated the spirit of the school people as listeners. Mrs. Stewart was an especially skilled accompanist on the piano. Those present will be looking forward to the next assembly at which time a Negro quartet will be the attraction.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Stanton are having their home changed in the interior, redecorated, and improved in many ways. When Mrs. Vera Pratt and her mother, Mrs. Deles Demier, motored to Peru to take Marion Pratt to her school for this year, they went on for a vacation trip to several states. At Columbia, Mo., they visited the Wayne Deles Demier family, saw the Bagwell dam not so far from there, then on to Little Rock, Arkansas, where they visited relatives. For sightseeing they drove to Memphis, Tenn. They returned through Cairo, Ill., and a part of Kentucky, with a final visit with relatives at Iowa City.
