

Well Known Couple Married Sunday

Miss Dorothy Maxine Tipton of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Tipton of Valley and Linford Albert Dasher, of Plattsmouth, were married at the Presbyterian church at Valley on Sunday, October 16th.

Rev. Dr. Hamlin, pastor of the church, conducted the double ring ceremony, before an altar banked with palms, white chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Mrs. Welden was the soloist for the wedding and Mrs. Ross Tipton, accompanist.

The bride and groom wore matching gray tailored suits, the bride having navy blue accessories and carrying white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Jeane Tipton of Denver, Colorado, wearing navy blue and carrying red roses, was her sister's only attendant. Mr. Winford Dasher of Plattsmouth, twin brother of the groom, was best man. Don and Carl Tipton, brothers of the bride were the ushers.

Following a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left on a brief motor trip.

Death of Mrs. Guy Kiser at Mynard Home

Mrs. Guy Kiser, 60, lifetime resident of Cass county, died Wednesday evening at the family home near Mynard, after an illness that has covered the past nineteen months, bringing to the ailing lady a relief from the long-months of helpless ness.

Mrs. Kiser was a member of one of the pioneer families of Cass county, being the former Blanche Barker, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Barker and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Perry.

Mrs. Kiser was taken ill almost two years ago, while in company with Mr. Kiser, they were enjoying a trip through the south, suffering a severe stroke at New Orleans and a second stroke when reaching Fort Worth, Texas, at the home of a son, and has since that time been an invalid.

There is surviving her passing, the husband, of Mynard, two sons, Noble Kiser of Fort Worth, Texas, Robert Kiser, of Mynard; one daughter, Mrs. Beulah Harper, of Omaha.

The body was brought to Plattsmouth to the Sattler funeral home to await the funeral services which will be Sunday at 2 o'clock at the Mynard Evangelistic and United Brethren church.

L. C. P. V. Club Has Meeting

The L. C. P. V. Club held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon, Oct. 13 at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Hart with Mrs. Wendell Hart assisting. There were 19 members and six visitors present. The visitors were Mrs. Alvin Groesser, Miss Ruth Hart, Mrs. Bill Earhart, Mrs. Opal Muechtler, Mrs. Walter Duckworth and Mrs. Clifford Cooper.

Roll call was answered by each member naming her favorite radio program of the week. The regular order of business was followed. A motion was made that our club's recreational program for 1950 include a picnic in June.

All members who have been saving Butter-Nut key strips and jar labels are asked to bring them to the next meeting.

The lesson on "Laundry Conveniences" was very ably presented by Mrs. John Reeke and Mrs. Harold Vogler.

The November meeting which will include the election of officers, will be at the home of Mrs. Arthur Rough with Mrs. Harold Meisinger as assistant.

At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses. — Mrs. Harold Meisinger, Sec'y.

To Enjoy Visit Through South

Today (Thursday) Mollie C. Gobelman of this city, accompanied by her sister, Miss Lovey Hiatt and her aunt, Mrs. T. E. James, both of Sidney, Iowa, departed on a motor trip to the south that will take them to Arkansas and Texas before their return.

They are traveling to Springfield, Missouri, where they will visit a niece of Miss Hiatt and Mollie, Mrs. Arlene Boren, and also enjoy a motor trip through the "Shepherd of the Hills" country and northern Arkansas before turning westward to Texas.

Their main stay in Texas will be at Mansfield, home of Mrs. J. Grove, a sister of Miss Hiatt and Mollie, and with other relatives in that section of the south. At Dallas they will be guests of relatives and to attend the Ice Frolics to be held at the celebrated Will Rogers rink. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rile, the latter a niece of the visitors are skilled skaters and they expect to have a most interesting time in seeing the various features of the Frolics. They will also be guests of another niece, Mrs. Johnston at Dallas.

SUNNYSIDE CLUB

The Sunnyside Farm Bureau met Thursday, October 6th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Meisinger. Business meeting was held. Guest speakers were Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Siemonet who had as their subject the recent farm tour which they had experienced.

The balance of the evening was spent in card playing and visiting. Next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Abel on Nov. 3rd.
