City Council Hears Road Problems

The city council had a very quiet session Monday, Mayor A. B. Rogers called the meeting to order at 7:30 with the time largely taken up with the problems of road work.

Permission was granted Claude Carter to make a sewer connection for his property at 10th street and Third avenue, the work to be done under the approval of the streets, alleys and bridges committee.

Report was received from the state liquor commission stating that Robert Slavicek and Don Rainey had applied for a license as wholesale beer distributor. The application was approved by the council, the applicants to pay the $150 occupation tax fee.

Cass County Voiture 1218 of the Forty and Eight asked permission to transfer their liquor County Draws license to their new club rooms for the night of December 31, for a New Year's eve party. This Attention

Elmer Gochenour, foreman of the street department, gave a that would care for the sheltering of the new road maintainer.

Mayor Rogers brought up the matter of speed regulation when the new paving on Chicago avenue is opened, giving the city a real speedway, and the Mayor suggested that near the approach of the city, vehicles be slowed down to 35 miles per hour, and when traveling in the city limits along the avenue reduce the speed to 25 miles per here from Omaha to make an This (Thursday) morning, the hands of the Mayor to have signs placed and the ordinance of the city be enforced for the safety of the travelers. # Gift Cuts Last Barrier In Way of Building

Greatest barrier standing in the way of an auditorium in Plattsmouth was removed this week when T. H. Pollock informed The Journal Monday afternoon that he would donate the acreage along Chicago Avenue east of Oakmont to the city as a site for a suitable building. Mr. Pollock stated that as much of the land as was needed would be included in his gift.

This group of lots, formerly the location of the Plattsmouth Sales Barn, has been considered the choice location for this type of building by a good majority of local residents. Several interested purchasers of this choice tract have made attractive cash offers during recent years, and only a few weeks ago Mr. Pollock turned down an offer in excess of $10,000,00, a sum that reveals to localites the size of "Bert" Pollock's contribution to the welfare of his community.
