Mullis-Hermanson Wedding at Denver

Old friends in this city will be interested in learning of the wedding of Mrs. Ethelyn Mullis, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Wiles of Lincoln, and Mr. Ed Hermanson, of Lincoln.

The wedding took place at the Presbyterian church at Denver, the marriage lines being read by Dr. Edwin Miller, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Lincoln, an old friend of the bride and groom.

On their way back from Denver Mr. and Mrs. Hermanson stopped at Wichita, Kansas, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kaluschie, the latter a sister of the bride.

Mr. Hermanson is engaged at Lincoln as the general manager of one of the large hardware stores of the state capital city.

Mrs. Hermanson has made her home for the past twelve years in Lincoln moving there from her former home at Plattsmouth and has been engaged as secretary for Samuel Waugh, of the First Trust company of Lincoln.

SPEND SUNDAY HERE

Miss Marion Brown of Papillion, a student at the University of Nebraska, was here Sunday to visit with her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Donelan and her mother, Mrs. Karl Brown of Papillion, who was a guest here for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Schreiner were among those attending the Ice Follies in Omaha on Monday evening.

Entertains Old Friends from Guam

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Finney in this city was the scene of a very pleasant reunion the last week of old friends of Pacific Island days.

C.T.M. and Mrs. Vernon S. Shriver, who were enroute to their new station at San Diego, California, stopped off here to visit Mr. and Mrs. Finney. The visitors had with them their pet cannie, "Gizmo," who had been with them on their service on Guam. "Gizmo" has quite a record and has been often photographed in official U. S. Naval releases.

The members of the party were all located on Guam for several months, the Shriviers being located there when Mr. and Mrs. Finney were also engaged there in defense work prior to returning to the United States. It is needless to say that many interesting stories of the old island days were recalled by the group.

Mrs. George Swiney Given Surprise

At the First Christian church last Sunday evening, Mrs. George Swiney was given a birthday surprise. The audience was invited to the basement where home made angel food cake and ice cream were served to 88 guests. She also received some nice gifts and had a real fellowship with members and friends that attended Sunday evening services.

When no dew follows a hot day, rain may be expected.

Hill-Mendina Wedding Held Here Sunday

The marriage of Miss Evejyn Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hill, of Glenwood, Newfoundland, and William Mendina, of Gander, Newfoundland, son of Mr. Alexander Mendina, of Novinger, Missouri, took place in this city on Sunday, October 30th.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performed the double ring ceremony at 2:30 at the Presbyterian manse on South 7th street.

The bride was dressed in a pale blue suit with black accessories and wore an orchid corsage.

Her maid of honor, Miss Patricia Libershal, wore a gray suit with black accessories and wore a red carnation corsage.

Charles Wolever attended his uncle as best man. A dinner preceded the ceremony and was given by Mr. Mendina's sister, Mrs. Sophia Wolever, for the members of the family.

A reception was held on Sunday evening at the Wolever home, the rooms were beautifully decorated with the fall flowers. The lace covered dining table was centered with a beautiful three tier white wedding cake.

Mrs. Don Warga, Mrs. Gordon Redfern of Kansas City and Mrs. C. M. Davenport were in charge of the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Medina will make their home in Gander, Newfoundland, where the groom is employed with the Transcontinental Western Airlines.

Former Resident Enjoys Birthday

Charles E. Taylor, of Waukomis, Oklahoma, a former resident of Cass county, recently celebrated his 85th birthday anniversary in his home in Oklahoma. He was remembered with a great many cards from the friends in the old home on this most pleasant event.

Mr. Taylor is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, pioneer residents of this community, they living on a farm south of this city and where Charles Taylor was born and raised. He will be recalled by the older residents of Cass county.

Mrs. J. L. Stamp and Mrs. Grace Pugsley of Omaha are sisters of Mr. Taylor.

VISIT OMAHA MARKETS

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Sand, Mrs. Hall Pollard and James Pollard of Nehawka, were here Wednesday morning for a short time while enroute to Omaha. They spent a short time at the South Omaha yards to secure several calves that will be fed at the farms near Nehawka.

Post-Nuptial Shower Given

Mrs. Paul D. Jahrig and Mrs. L. D. Hiatt entertained at a post nuptial miscellaneous shower at the Hiatt home on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. Phillip Keil, Jr. Yellow and white was the color scheme used. Games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. Donald Born, Mrs. Elmer Tritsch and Mrs. Fred Wehrlein, following which the guest of honor opened the lovely gifts presented to her from her friends and relatives. The gifts were presented in a unique manner. An alarm clock set to ring at intervals led the honoree to the location of the gifts which were concealed throughout the home. This feature afforded much merriment for all. Mrs. Jahrig and Mrs. Hiatt served refreshments to bring the party to a close.

MARRIED HERE MONDAY

Monday afternoon at the court house Judge Richard Peck was called upon to read the marriage lines for Bert Elgie Johnson and Carrie Elizabeth Johnson, both of Omaha. They returned to Omaha after the wedding service.

Finnefrock-Sell Wedding October 29th

Miss Ina Mae Finnefrock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Finnefrock, and Richard Sell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fitch were married on Saturday evening, October 29th in the Wesleyan Methodist church on South 10th street.

Rev. A. E. Harris, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony that joined the lives of the young people.

The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Payton, close friends of the young couple.

The bride wore blue satin and she also wore a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with some thirty guests present. An out of town guest was Mrs. Birdie Chancellor, of Medford, Oregon, grandmother of the bride.

The young couple left for a week's honeymoon at Boulder and Denver, Colorado, after which they will make their home in Plattsmouth.

Hold Party at St. Luke's Church

Monday evening a very delightful Halloween party was held at the undercroft of the St. Luke's Episcopal church, given for the members of the church school. Members of the congregation were invited to join in the very pleasant time that followed.

During the evening games were played by the members of the party and prizes awarded to the successful member of the group. Edward Egenberger, superintendent of the church school and Canon George St. George Tyner, rector of the church were in charge of the games.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served at an appropriate hour to the members of the group.

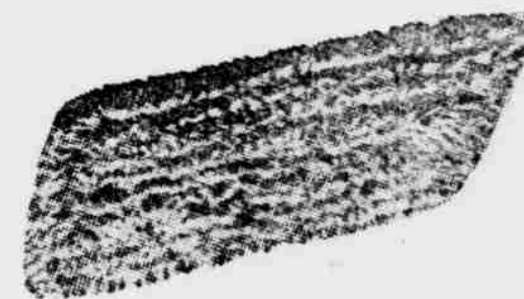

TACOMA, Wash. (UP)—Tacoma has collected nearly $750,000 from parking meters since they were first installed here in 1941, the city finance office reported.
