Edmunds-Ackley Wedding Held At Nehawka

The Methodist church at Nehawka was the scene Sunday, November 6th of the very lovely wedding of Miss Gladys Edmunds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert A. Edmunds of Nehawka, to Mr. Gerald Ackley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Ackley, of Nehawka.

The church was very attractively arranged with decorations of multi-colored chrysanthemums and the tall candle-labra. The marriage lines were read by Rev. Harry Hart, pastor of the church, in the presence of 130 friends.

Proceeding and during the ceremony Miss Marjorie Whipple played the wedding music and accompanied by Miss Doris Franke, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a gown of white bridal satin, fashioned with fitted bodice. The sleeves were long and came to a point over her wrists. The yoke and sleeves were of white Chantilly lace. The cascade skirt fell in to a long train. The gown was made by the bride's mother and the bride fashioned her own finger tip veil of white nylon with flowered tiara and nylon net.

The bridesmaids, Miss Betty Ackley, who wore aqua taffeta with a colonial bouquet, Miss Louise Fassnacht, in lavender taffeta, and Miss Byrdena Fassnacht, wearing peach taffeta, they carried colonial bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Maid of honor was Miss Lela Edmunds, sister of the bride, who wore yellow taffeta, with a colonial bouquet of white mums. The gowns of the bridesmaids and maid of honor were fashioned after that of the bride.

The groom was attended by Emmett Oliver of Falls City, while the ushers were Lowell Banks, Council Bluffs, Eldon Ackley, Newton, Iowa, and Paul Bobbit of Council Bluffs.

Following the wedding a reception was given by the parents of the bride in the church parlors, attended by some two hundred and seventy-five guests. In the parlors of the church the color theme of yellow and white was carried out.

Mr. and Mrs. Ackley departed after the wedding for a week's honeymoon in Iowa and Kansas and on their return expect to be at home in Omaha to the friends after November 15th.

The bride graduated from the Bellevue high school and attended Peru State Teachers college, later teaching for two years. She graduated from the Radio Electric School of Omaha and for two years has been employed with the Guarantee Mutual Life Insurance Company.

The groom attended the Riverton (Iowa) high school and had four years of army service and is now attending commercial school in Omaha.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. William Ramer, Anna Louise, Leroy Dale of Scribner; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Edmunds, Nebraska City; Roy and Mildred Edmunds, Brock, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Edmunds, Miss Ethel Edmunds, Brock; Mrs. Thelma Mason and Elizabeth of Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Baldwin and Allen, Miss Jane Sahl, Miss Beverly Anderson, Miss Darlene Warrle of Omaha; Miss Dorothy Moore, Miss Lorraine Thorp, Macedonia, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ackley, Veri Ackley, Miss Phyllis Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, Jr. and Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Dysart, Union; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rihn, Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cox, Donald, Lawrence, Carlene, Miss Patricia Pryor, Peru; Eldon Ackley, Newton, Iowa; Mrs. Oliver and son, Emmett, Falls City; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Athens and Roland, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Athens, Riverton, Iowa; Paul Bobbits, Lowell Banks, John Akins, Council Bluffs.

Discussions were held on numerous phases of the Auxiliary work and reports were given by all presidents of the district. Many plans from these suggestions will be of very importance to the members in the district.

The meeting closed with the members declaring it was a very successful meeting. Auxiliary members attending from Plattsmouth were: Vera Warga, Sophia Wolever, Marjorie Willis, Charlotte Gall, Betty Pruess, Helen Nierste, Josephine Strong.

A program by the Auburn Auxiliary was presented at the armory. A delicious dinner was served by the Auxiliary with a dance following.

Junior Women's Club Meeting Monday Night

The Junior Women's Club held their regular meeting on Monday evening in the main dining room of the Edith Solomon coffee shop, with Mrs. Vera Warga, president, presiding.

The room was beautifully decorated with the Thanksgiving theme being carried out in the settings.

Several new members were present and given welcome by the president.

The minutes of the previous meetings as well as reports of the treasurer read and approved. The treasurer was instructed to send a check of $100 to the board of education, this money had been pledged to the stadium fund while Esther Donat was the president of the club.

The plans are being made for the Christmas party and Dee Nielsen is the chairman of this committee.

The polo drive was discussed, the president is to attend a meeting of county chairmen to be held in Auburn Friday, November 18th, where plans will be made as to how the drive should be carried out.

Juanita Brendel, chairman of the Cass County Cancer Control, was unable to be present, but sent a message saying the reason for this foundation is to educate the people to the warning signs and symptoms of this dread disease. Movies and speakers can be had by contacting Mrs. Brendel.

The club was extended an invitation to meet with the Senior Woman's Club at their December meeting. Mrs. Blise Robinson, state president, will be the guest of honor.

After the close of the business the meeting was turned over to Joan Solomon, program chairman, she introducing Lt. Don Shearer of the Nebraska Highway patrol, who showed movies on traffic hazards and how they can be avoided. This program was very interesting and thoroughly enjoyed by all. Delicious refreshments were served by the committee, Ruth Ann Davenport, Joan Solomon, Blossom Yelick, Augusta Elliott, Blanche Highfield and Marcella Eloe.
